Whalebone Special Offer

There are many persons in Canada who have not had the opportunity to get one of my celebrated Whalebone Plates, and I have decided to make a $25.00 set of Whalebone Teeth for $10.00. They will stick in any mouth, no matter how hard it is to fit. This is what you can expect for $10.00—the best set of teeth that will stick to your mouth—never fall when you laugh, bite corn off the cob, do not make a noise when you eat, and look natural as your own.

Crown and Bridge Work

Requires skill and experience, and as done by the ordinary dentist is tedious, painful and often unsatisfactory. As done by the specialists it is painless, quickly done and always satisfactory.

THE WESTERN HOME MONTHLY

Vol. XV.

Published Monthly

No. 2.

By the Home Publishing Co., McDermot and Arthur Sts., Winnipeg, Canada.

THE SUBSCRIPTION PRICE of The Western Home Monthly is $1 a year or three years for $2 to any address in Canada, or British Isles. The subscription price to foreign countries is $1.50 a year, and within the City of Winnipeg limits and in the United States $1.25 a year.

REMITTANCES of small sums may be made with safety in ordinary letters. Sums of one dollar or more it would be well to send by registered letter or Money Order.

POSTAGE STAMPS will be received the same as cash or the fractional parts of a dollar, and in any amount when it is impossible for patrons to procure bills. We prefer those of the one cent or two-cent denomination.

WE ALWAYS STOP THE PAPER at the expiration of the time paid for unless a renewal of subscription is received. Those whose subscriptions have expired must not expect to continue to receive the paper unless they send the money to pay for it another year.

CHANGE OF ADDRESS.—Subscribers wishing their addresses changed must state their former as well as new address. All communications relative to change of address must be received by us not later than the 20th of the preceding month.

WHEN YOU RENEW be sure to sign your name exactly the same as it appears on the label of your paper. If this is not done it leads to confusion. If you have recently changed your address and the paper has been forwarded to you, be sure to let us know the address on your label.

A Chat with our Readers

OUR short talks with our readers in the last three numbers apparently attracted the attention of many and we are encouraged to continue to discuss the merits of The Monthly in this manner, in the hope that every reader will assist in widening its sphere.

When we wished our readers a prosperous and happy 1914 in our January number, we meant something more than a casual wish that the year just entered should bring our subscribers many good things, we meant that The Western Home Monthly would do its best to contribute to their pleasure and well-being. In the past you have found much to enjoy within the covers of the magazine, you have in every issue found well informed, fearless editorials, dealing impartially with matters of grave interest to this Western country. These will be continued so that every reader of The Monthly may have enlightened and non-partisan views on the questions that have from time to time to be solved by the people. You have found its fiction pages healthy and fascinating; you have found its many special departments, dealing with every phase of home life helpful; its fashion pages artistic and reliable; and generally speaking you have regarded The Monthly as your good friend who could always help, instruct and entertain you.

You have been enthusiastic about The Monthly and thus you have encouraged the publishers to better effort. You know how much easier it is to work when appreciation is shown. The Monthly entered 1914 with a most sanguine spirit, endorsed by an army of readers of whom any magazine would be proud. The duty devolving on all those who appreciate The Monthly is not only to send their own subscriptions in early, but to see that their friends share in the happiness that The Monthly brings with its twelve monthly visits.

Indeed there could be no better remembrance of a friend than a year's subscription to The Western Home Monthly.

For the coming year it will continue, and on a larger scale, to give its readers the benefit of expert knowledge in all its departments. The hope is that The Monthly will in the future meet all tastes that the home can devise—that even the children will be found absorbed in its pages. The daily mail of The Western Home Monthly would in its size surprise even its most ardent supporters, and at this season it is teeming with kind words of approval and generous good wishes, for all of which we are very grateful.

As we have already stated, the year 1913 was a good one for us, the best in our history. It saw the sphere of The Monthly greatly extended and for this our thanks are due our subscribers. The thousands of new ones added have taken up the cause of The Monthly with true Western zeal and enthusiasm. The Monthly is a purely Western product, and its aim is to be helpful and interesting to every Western home.

We have from month to month been saying a modest word in this column about the progress of the magazine, and in looking over the records of the past year we feel that our expectations have been more than realized. Our friends have multiplied in their numbers, and if in other channels of trade business stringency has been felt it has had no effect on our subscription receipts.

We may be pardoned for selecting from among the many good wishes received for 1914 the following from Canada's Grand Old Man—Lord Strathcona—whose part in the development of the Dominion is perhaps unequalled, and whose Greeting to the Canadian West was published in the January number:

"That The Western Home Monthly may go on increasing in the beneficial influence it exerts, and the welcome it receives in thousands of homes throughout the West, is my earnest hope and belief. Wishing you a Happy New Year."

Strathcona.

London, Dec. 13, 1913.

Regina Leader—In looking over The Western Home Monthly one is struck by the number of prairie writers who are doing good work in a literary way. Many new names appear among the contributors of creditable stories. Of clear, wholesome, entertaining fiction there is a good supply in each issue. The needs of all the members of the household are well considered in this essentially Western and Home Monthly.

Dear Sir: Please find enclosed remittance for renewal to The Western Home Monthly. In my bachelor days The Western Home Monthly was a very welcome visitor, but now I have joined the army of Benedicts "We" find it still a much-needed friend, not only for its educative and inspiring tendency, but also for the information contained therein relating to the farm, poultry and the garden, and last but not least the help given and suggested for our young men and women. Wishing The Western Home Monthly every success.

Yours, Bert Downer.
