THE RED DEVILS LOOK STRONG

The UNB Red Devils took to the ice last Tuesday night for their initial workout this season. Approximately forty-five hopefuls turned out the first two nights. Coach Pete Kelly and Assistant game with Mount A. Coach Ted Bedard cut thirteen after Wednesday night's session and ten more Thursday night. Except for three or four more players to be cut the squad is almost down to playing size.

With last years holdovers and this years new players, the is the goaltending. Bill Coughlan of Brockville appears to stand a good chance of sticking with the varsity. John Bassett, Toronto, who received a broken foot playing football earlier this year will UNB'S pass defense was at its best. The rush was on Tsonos be able to play in ten days and it is expected that he will be in the played for Upper Canada College last year. Soward is a shifty, good stickhandling center who scored twenty-nine goals in twenty games last year. The defense remains intact with John Benson lovely blocking and picked up twenty yards around right end. and Hedley Savoy making up one pair and Tiny Fraser and Galen kick. Possibly Tsonos saw an opening and went for a first down instead of kicking.

A UNB play that had not been used too much in previous games had considerable success in the final. The pro pass or spot pass was used four times and three were completed. At times Pete Madorin's deception in the backfield was terrific. Both of Mount A's interceptions occurred at critical times and pulled them out of bad spots. Some very queer placing of the ball by the referee occurred in the third quarter during a Mount A offensive drive downfield. It appeared that the ball was placed a full two or three feet ahead of where the ball carrier was stopped, on several occasions.

Post game celebrations included carrying coach Gus Mac-Farlane and several Mountie stars off the field on the shoulders of exhuberant fans.

The Junior Varsity hickey squad started practices last Friday night. About thirty players turned but, most of those had been meeting and yet are interested in cut from the Varsity. The next J. V. practice is tomorrow night at 8:00 P.M.
