IER: Doug Varty

Andre Dicaire

because of a slight prowess at the sport. I believe that if you are Athletics are taking a turn for the going to do this, do it as a worst, especially at the intramural gentleman and not an idoit(sic). ranks. Some of the participants What really blackens my feelings think that it is a place to prove the most about the intramural themselves worthy of recognition system, is not the aggressive about it. They turn to me or even pay for their vain outbreaks. The an opponent or team mate, yell at firs time will be a precaution from any vain expressions make sure I the mumblings over poor calls , I diarrhea, they walk around with education department is trying to seldomly make, but it is this over the chest out thinking they have run an intramural program for the whelming ability to get verbally impressed everybody. Well they're whole campus, it is supposed to be hyper active. Some of these, what wrong, at least in the eyes of us an enjoyable system but with you might call "half athletics", try referees and especially mine. In to be so cool and very collective the future these "Imbullsalls' will the top of their voices at least loud a referee and a foul or penalty. am not around, or you'll pay, one enough for their girl friend way up The second outrage will result in way or the other. in the side stands can hear, and of an expulsion from the game. If he course for any younger children or she refuses the expulsion the which may be around to pick up. game will be called and awarded inter-action between players or After this outbreak of vain, verbal to the opposing team. The physical paticipants like the one described we the workers in the system can do without. If your going to use

P.J. Meagher

Sports Dept.

Dear Editor:

I hope you will allow me to voice a few facts concerning Derek DiTomaso report on the UNB Memorial hockey game.

The great reporting of our Bruns has once again triumphed. I am referring to the UNB Memorial hockey game that Mr. DiTomaso presumingly covered on Saturday, Feb. the second.

His description of Philip Handrahan's two goal performance was ver interesting especially in light of the fact that Mr. Handrahan was watching the game from the stands, and has not played since Christmas due to an injury.

Mr. DiTomaso did not stop there though! McLean, in goal for UNB did play a "standout game," but since you did not stay for the third period you missed his performance! The first two periods were played by Kevin Rochrod who put in a solid performance.

In closing I would like to say, I hope in the future you would research you info better.

> Pete Thompson Red Devils Fan

Dept. still missing

Dear Editor:

It has become clear that there is indeed a need for more staff at the Bruns, my reason for saying this is an article in last week's sports section that one of your reporters. did. The article involves the game between U.N.B. and Memorial at the Aitken center, the reporter Derek DiTomaso who supposedly covered the game said in his description that Ken McLean the UNB goalie wasin the nets he said that MClean made "an incredible is the fact that Phil Handrahn

McLean because he left after the aware of this. second period.

Oh yes, another interesting note leg save one one Mem. Opportun- scored two goals in the game for ity and showed his quick reflexes UNB this would be difficult for him by making a couple of great to do because he has been out saves", well Mr. DiTomaso must of since Christmas with knee probbeen at a different game because lems. I realize that the Brunds in actual fact Kevin Rochford was does an admirable job with the the goalie for UNB for the first two writers they have but this proves periods, and Ken MClean played that the Bruns does need more the third but alas our star reporter reporters, and I hope by publishwas too cold to stay and see ing this letter people are made

> Yours John Irvine, B.P.E.I. A Devoted Devils Fan

A positive change

Ladies & Gentleman & You Dis- racists. Our soul cause is for coers Too!

apology

Dear Ms. Wakeling:

Regarding last week's letter: Mv apologies - wrong election...right sentiment.

> Sincerely Tim Bannister defense of culture not its demise. I might also add, we don't go This commentary addressed to around torturing or elimating the poor mindless soul who wrote Disco lovers (God have mercy on the column. "ADL a form of like yourself totally midirected! If Racism. Mr. Macdonald how do as you say, that you are secure you see fit too call us facists and or then why don't you take a stand instead of blaming Anti-Discoers like ourselves as rotten by-products of society. Instead of labelling us racist why don't you contribute something worthwhile instead of your rhetoric (Nazis, facist, etc) All we are trying to do is bring about a more positive change in the direction of society. Finally I will leave you with this.

> 'Could you possibly bare (Sic) a hypnotised society addicted to three chords of elementary music combind with a little syncopation wined up with some garbage lyrics. Actually disco is insulting to traditional African Carribean and Native North American Music.

> I must forgive you through for your feeble and more than likely misdirected attact on the ADL.

Big Brothers say 'thanks'

number of people on campus for team, here are the results: their support during our annual Bowl for Millions campaign, which kicked off on Saturday, February

Tom MacAdam, as chairman of the UNB- STU Inter-Residence Sports Committee helped organize a team challenge bowling match between residence teams as part

Lady Dunn Hall	146
Aitken House	139
Harrington Hall	135
Neville House	98
Bridges House	97
Tibbitts Hall	76
Holy Cross Residence	38

of the Celebtity Day activities on Thanks to all of the bowlers, and the 9th, held at the Nashwaaksis also to each of the 729 sponsors. On behalf of the Big Brother Ass- Bowl-A-Drome. Listed in order of We'd like to make a challenge ociation, may I publicly thank a total number of sponsors per match an annual part of Bowl for Millions. A note of appreciation is also due to Trius Taxi, who provided free transportation for a number of the students to the Bowl-A-Drome on Saturday. So thanks again to all who have helped out. A suitable presentation will be made to the girls of LDH in the near future.

Sincerely,

Dwight Scott, Chairman Bowl for

Lost your head?

Washington D.C. police are asking the public for help in identifying a human head found last weekend near Georgetown University Hospital.

A police spokesperson says they've turned the case over to the board box. (Newscript) homicide squad but they think it's possible the head was stolen from the hospital or Georgetown's medical school and left outside as a prank. The preserved head was foun Saturday morning in a card-

'He shares your concerns'

Using Canadian resources to meet Canadian needs - that's the NDP plan for creating more jobs.

NDP

(authorized by the Official Agent for the Phil Booker election carr

Activity Awards

Nominations are now being accepted by the activity awards committee. All nominations must have a seconder and a letter of support submitted to the student union business office. Nominations dose March 7th, 1980.

because the NDP chance and the

up with Clark

gedby