Whiny Theatre Wanks Plan World Tour

Freddy Beach (notCUP) The University of New Bumslick Staged Cleft OverProductions are staging a world tour. Their motivation, they say is that they get no respect in the Freddy Beach theatre community. Spokepersons Steamed McEyeslick and Join Yourpain say that they've been misrepresented by local critics as whining and angst-ridden, when they're really warm, fuzzy and angst-ridden.

Staged Cleft plan to take their repertoire of several original productions, including I White Therefore I Am, Anst and Artichokes and I Suffer for My Art, to major theatre communities like MooseBreath, Saskatchewan, Lower Buttfuck Nowhere, Manitoba, Timbuck Three and Ecum Secum, Nova Scotia.

Full dress rehearsals are taking place in the English lounge every day.

Local Cinema Offerings Surprise, Delight

BY ANAGRAM INANE
Schindler's List
I have been a fan of Steven Spielberg for many years now, and when I saw this one 'clean up' at the Oscars I thought that he must have delivered yet another winner. But how wrong I was - this turned out to be more than a little on the depressing side, and there was a distinct lack of those stunning special effects that made Jurassic Park so memorable. I mean, where is Indiana Jones when you need him to come and save the day? Or even those plucky kids from The Goonies - I'm sure that they could have come up with some cunning plan so that good would triumph over evil. Instead we get this somber movie after which it is more than just a little bit hard to come out smiling. Mel Brooks always managed to find more humor in the Nazis, didn't he? And if all that wasn't enough, it is filmed in black and white. I waited for the dramatic change as in The Wizard Of Oz, but it never happened. Couldn't afford some color film after all the money you made last summer Steven? Let's hope that he gets back to his blockbuster days again very soon.

Naked Gun 33 1/3: The Final Insult
It is always refreshing to see a film where the screenwriters have gone out of their way to come up with an original idea, a cohesive plot and a script that lives up to the standards of their earlier work. And that film is the new Naked Gun movie. But this time the humor is much more sophisticated with biting satire on the current social events which are eating at the core of today's society. The movie is set against a plan to bomb the Oscar's ceremony (very plausible as the Inquirer featured such a story a few weeks ago) and how the heroic Frank Drebin, played impeccably as always by Leslie Nielsen, saves the day and also wins back the love of the sultry Priscilla Presley. The performances are sterling all round, and wouldn't it be ironic if this movie found itself honored at next year's Academy Awards ceremony? There are also a plethora of cameos by many celebrities like Pia Zadora and Phil Donahue; after all, when you are making a film of this quality it is fairly obvious that everyone will want a piece of the action. Without a doubt, this is the best movie that I have seen so far this year.

Over-dosed Rock Stars Form Tour

Nirvana (AP) A collection of dead rock stars have banded together to prepare for an all-star tour to trek the country this summer. Preparations for the tour had been in the works for months, but the slate recently picked up a front-man: recent suicide Spurt Nobrain of the Seattle band Nervenda. Nobrain joins Jim Doorison, Pelvis Spasley and Jaundice Soplin.
While the recently deceased Nobrain died from self-inflicted gunshot wounds, tour publicist Colonel Pom Tarker says that he fits into the tour based on his well-known substance abuse and recent coma in Rome.
Material for the tour was originally intended to include original compositions of the addicts, but group cooperation has been sporadic. Tarker says that while Nobrain may be an asset as a leader and key to the grunge fad, if new material doesn't come together, the core members of the group have been rehearsing Wayne Newton songs for the last decade.

Longstrong to Host New Show

Freddy Beach (UP) UNB Presidenc Throbbing Longstrong has been signed to host a new talk show on the Tox network. Longstrong will tackle sensitive issues in the late afternoon time slot, in a head to head battle with Oprah and Phil.
Longstrong beat out former UNB Professor Matin Yaksalm for the position, who prolonged negotiations by only communicating with the network by flying paper airplanes from his home.
The Tox Network has secured Elmer Fudd as Longstrong's vacation replacement.
Longstrong's position at UNB is rumored to be offered to American academic Camille Blathia, who is reportedly planning on replacing VP Tom Travesty with Madonna.
