Book for decorating ideas

Have you run out of decorating ideas? The Port Credit Public Library has a fine selection of books to help you decorate your home, parcels and, your tree.

We suggest you look through some of our old or new cook books where you will find hundreds of varied meal ideas for small or large families or unexpected guests, with table settings and flower arrangements for all occasions.

There is also a large selection of books on how to make wooden toys, cuddly dolls or doll houses or how to rejuvenate your own house. Come and make your choice.

Books for Christmas reading for adults and children are on display with a large number of current magazines to suit all tastes and always up-to-date.

The library is open Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday from 12.30 to 8.30 p.m.

Saturday 9 a.m. to 4.30 p.m. and closed all day Monday.

Some recommended books are, "How to Make Containers and Accessories for Flower Arrangements", by Jean B. Amer and Alma L. Gray; "Good Housekeeping Book of Cake Decorating"; "Cooking for Company", by the food editors of Farm Journal; "Making a Miniature House," by Guy R. Williams and "A Wreath of Christmas Legends", by Phyllis McGinley.
