

Mrs. Loft 8th and Wife (with three children) and Wife and Family whose differences are such, agreement appears impossible, - she complaining, he has provided no home for her, but, has been in uncomfortable residence with his ^{father's} Mother.

Separated on the list The speaker reports, they be separate on the list, the husband to have the oldest boy, and the wife, the girl and infant son.

Mrs. Johnson 9th and Wife ^{reported} L. M. 458.
 It appears in March last Johnson was married to Fanny Cheshaek daughter of John Cheshaek of Mipikang of the Credit, - and taken by her husband to his home, but but, she, it appears, ^{soon after} desired to return home, - and, her Parents, to the dissatisfaction of her husband, ^{insisting} her visit home, until he warned his wife not to leave her home; but, she persisting, - he closed his house, and abandoned housekeeping. - Such is his statement.
 The wife came to the pay table at the recent fall payment, and, upon her statement, - (and, previous to hearing that of her husband) consented to give her the share of money for her husband, after consultation with Mr. Inspector Dugman.

Decision, in suspense The speaker reports, that in the absence of any request of Johnson, it is decided, not to place the wife on the list.
