In the words of Field Marshal Smuts -- in his address on being installed as Rector of St. Andrews University -- on October 17, 1934:

"The fight for human freedom is indeed the supreme issue of the future, as it has always been in the past.

"The new dictatorship is nothing but the old tyranny writ large. I fear the new tyranny more than I fear the danger of another great war.
Tyranny is infectious. As Burke said; it is a weed which grows in all soils,
and it is its nature to spread."
