

local option the success it is in the municipalities where it is in force to-day, and he has also done much to elevate the status of the hotelmen in the Province of Ontario who desire to live up to and within the law. (Applause).

Temperance people cannot reach the final goal by a rush, and it would not be advisable if they could. All those things that are good and good permanently in legislation are the result of a growth. We are travelling in the right direction, and perhaps travelling fast enough. (Applause).
