

Commissions, to execute the law martial during the time of War, according to the directions of an Act passed in the twenty second year of the reign of our late Royal Grand-father, intituled, "an act for amending, explaining and reducing into one Act of Parliament the laws relating to the Government of His Majesty's ships, vessels, and forces by sea"; and to use such proceedings, authorities, punishments, corrections, and execution upon any offender or offenders, who shall be mutinous, seditious, disorderly, or any way unruly either at sea, or during the time of their abode and residence in any of the ports, harbours, or bays of our said Province, and territories, as the case shall be found to require, according to the martial law, and the said directions, during the time of war as aforesaid."

Extract from the Governor-General's Instructions.

" And there having been great Irregularities in the manner of granting Commissions in the Plantations to private ships of War, you are to Govern yourself whenever there shall be occasion according to the Commissions and Instructions granted in this Kingdom, but you are not to grant Commissions of marque or reprizal against any Prince or State in amity with us to any Person whatsoever without our special command; and you are to oblige the Commanders of all ships having private Commissions to wear no other Colours than such as are described in an Order in Council of the 7th of January, 1730, in relation to Colours to be worn by all ships of War."
