

Holmes, John, of Maine, 148
Horseshoe Bend, battle with Creeks at, 35
Houston, Sam, 35
Hunter's Hill, Jackson's plantation near Nashville, 15, 19
Huntsville (Ala.), Jackson brings forces together at, 33

Indian Queen Tavern (the Wigwam), 115, 120
Indian Territory created (1834), 214

Indians, 142; hostility near Nashville, 12; Creek War, 32-38; Seminole War, 54-59; removal of, 201-16, 236; see also names
of tribes

Ingham, S. D., Secretary of Treasury, 117

Internal improvements, 138;
Jackson on, 79; issue in 1824,
84; Adams and, 99, 100, 105;
South opposes, 140; South
Carolina and, 159; Maysville Road veto, 218

Jackson, Andrew, father of the President, 1-3

Jackson, Andrew, birth (1767),
3-4; birthplace, 4-5; early life,
5 et seq.; personal characteristics, 6, 7, 11, 15, 18, 19, 20-21, 213, 217, 234-35; education,
7, 10; in the Revolution, 8-9;
attitude toward British, 9;
business enterprises, 9-10, 19-20; in Charleston, 9-10; admitted to bar, 11; goes to Tennessee, 13-14; as "solicitor" in Nashville, 14-16;
marriage, 15; represents Tennessee in Congress, 16-17; in Senate, 17-18, 69; as judge in Tennessee, 18-19; quarrels, 20-21; in War of 1812, 26 et seq.;
nicknamed "Old Hickory," 30; in Creek War, 33-38; at

New Orleans, 40-43, 45-50;
popularity, 45, 50, 63-64, 115, 210, 229-30; in Seminole War,
and Florida expedition, 55-61;
controversy about Florida expedition, 61-64; as Governor of Florida, 64-67; life at the Hermitage, 68-72, 102-03;
candidate for presidency (1824), 73 et seq., 95; and tariff, 79, 143, 162-63, 169, 235-36; and Adams, 80, 93-94, 108, 122, 220; and Crawford, 80; and Clay, 80; and Calhoun, 80, 134-35; candidate for presidency (1828),
100 et seq.; resigns from Senate, 102; as a politician, 107-08;
election, 109-10; journey to Washington, 114-15; as President-elect, 115-19; Cabinet,
117-18, 129-30, 135-36, 193-
194, 218; inauguration, 119-
124; and Spoils System, 124-
127, 236; and Congress, 128;
Kitchen Cabinet, 130-31;
Eaton controversy, 132-34;
toast to the Union, 164-66;
and nullification, 167, 173-77;
candidate for reelection (1832), 168, 218; proclamation to South Carolina (1832), 175-176; Force Bill, 177, 179, 180;
and United States Bank, 182, 184 et seq., 218; censured by Senate, 196-98, 228; and Indian policy, 208-09, 214-16;
and Georgia, 213; journeys to New England, 219; Harvard confers degree on, 220; life at White House, 221-23; his finances, 223-24; political influence, 224-28; farewell address, 228-29; return to Nashville, 230; last years, 231-34;
death (1845), 234; Webster's characterization of, 234-35;
achievements, 235-36; bibliography, 237-38