

LIBRARIAN'S . STATEMENT

Total number of books on Catalogue..... 1000
 Number exchanged every Sunday, about 200

Collected during year for fines, etc.....$7.08

Many of our best books are worn out and worthless, and unless they are replaced by new ones very soon the interest taken by the children, in the Library, will be destroyed.

I would ask that at least $200 be given the Librarians to expend in the purchase of new books.

E. E. STOCKTON, Librarian.

MUSICAL . DEPARTMENT

Our Orchestra consists of twenty pieces under the able leadership of Mr. F. H. Byshe. They render very valuable assistance in the service of song at the School Session.
