Big Sales at Low Cost

Less than $5.00 will meet the bill for five insertions of a one-inch live stock advertisement in Farm and Dairy, telling 10,000 farmers of what you have for sale. If you have pure-bred stock for which you want a buyer, consider what this privilege means to you!

The local market at its best is easily supplied. It grudg-ingly offers but a meagre price for your valuable stock. You need not accept this price.

need not accept unis price.
There is a great market, par-ticualarly for pure bred dairy-stock, amongst the readers of Farm and Dairy. The readers of Farm and Dairy know good stock and appreciate its worth. That is why those who adver-tise in the live stock columns of Farm and Dairy reap such Farm and Dairy reap such satisfactory returns.

Consider the following testi-
