

BE SURE AND SEE THE TRADE MARK: "The Maple Leaf"

WEAK BACK FOR YEARS.

Mrs. A. Schnare Black Point, N.B. writes: "For years I was troubled with weak back. Oftentimes I have laid in bed for days, being scarcely able to turn myself and I have also been a great sufferer while trying to perform my household duties. I had doctors attending me without avail and tried liniments and plasters, but nothing seemed to do me any good. I was about to give up in despair when my husband induced me to try Doan's Kidney Pills, and after using two boxes I am now well and able to do my work. I am positive Doan's Kidney Pills are all that you claim for them and I would advise all kidney sufferers to give them a fair trial."

Price, 50 cents per box, 3 boxes for $1.25. At all dealers, or will be mailed direct on receipt of price, by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont. In ordering specify "Doan's."

A bottle of beer was placed in the corner stone of the new town hall at Gary, Ill., just before the ceremonies started. An enthusiastic prohibitionist placed the bottle filled with amber fluid in the niche of the corner stone, this until they learned the inscription on the bottle. The inscription read as follows: "At one time the contents of this bottle was used as a beverage by the people, but the beverage was destined to become extinct." After the bottle had been properly placed in the niche the corner stone was laid.

How to Get Rid of Catarrh
A Simple, Safe, Reliable Way and it Costs Nothing to Try.

Those who suffer from catarrh know its miseries. There is no need of this suffering. You can get rid of it by a simple, safe, inexpensive, home treatment discovered by Dr. Blosser, who, for over thirty-five years, has been treating catarrh successfully.

His treatment is unlike any other. It is not a spray, douche, salve, cream, or inhaler, but is a more direct and thorough treatment than any of these. It cleans out the head, nose, throat and lungs so that you can again breathe freely and sleep without that stopped-up feeling that all catarrh sufferers have. It heals the diseased membranes and makes a radical cure, so that you will not be constantly blowing your nose and spitting, and at the same time it does not poison the system and ruin the stomach, as internal medicines do.

If you want to test this treatment without cost, send your address to Dr. J. W. Blosser, 716 Walton St., Atlanta, Ga., U. S. A., and he will send you by return mail, from his Canadian Distributing Depot, enough of the medicine to satisfy you that it is all he claims for it as a remedy for catarrh, catarrhal headaches, catarrhal deafness, asthma, bronchitis, colds, and all catarrhal conditions. He will also send you free an illustrated booklet. Write him immediately.

WIT AND HUMOR

General Sir O'Moore Creagh, who will toward the close of this year succeed Lord Kitchener in command in India, has served forty years in the army in India.

His last appointment there was as commandant of a first class district. While serving in this capacity he had an amusing experience on one occasion. He had presented the prizes at the garrison sports, and was rather surprised when one of the prize-winners—a private in an infantry regiment—approached him a few days later and begged to know if he would be allowed to change his prize for something more useful.

"What was your prize?" asked the general. In reply the man produced a long case from under his arm and showed a handsome pair of meat carvers.

"Very nice, I am sure," said General Creagh. "What do you want to change them for?"

"Well, you see, sir," replied the man, "I find them rather difficult to use at meal time, and if it is all the same to the committee, sir, I would rather have a knife and fork of the usual size, to eat my meat with."

An old gentleman, rather portly and clad in a somewhat youthful suit of light gray flannel, sat on a bench in the park enjoying the spring day.

"What's the matter, sonny?" he asked a small urchin who lay on the grass just across the walk and stared intently. "Why don't you go and play?"

"Don't wanter," the boy replied. "But it is not natural," the old gentleman insisted, "for a boy to be so quiet. Why don't you run about?"

"Oh, I'm just waitin'," the little fellow answered. "I'm just waitin' till you get up. A man painted that bench about fifteen minutes ago."

"Mr. Chairman," began the man who is unaccustomed to public speaking, "I—er—I—er—I—er—"

"Well," interrupted the chairman kindly, "to err is human."—Washington Herald.

Collector (angrily)—You know very well, sir, that this bill has been running several years—now, I put it up to you, what do you want me to do with it?

Debtor—By George! I'd enter it in the next Marathon race if I were you.

The Langworths lived in a corner house so easily accessible from the street that they were constantly annoyed by persons ringing to ask where other possible inhabitants of that block were to be found. Finally, goaded to desperation by these interruptions, the family boy attempted to put a stop to the nuisance.

"I guess," said he, complacently, "there won't be any more folks asking if the Borwns, the Biddles or the Hansons live in this house. I've fixed 'em."

"What have you done?" queried Mrs. Langworth.

"Hung out a sign."

"And what did you print on it, laddie?"

"Just five words," replied Harold proudly: "'Nobody lives here but us.'"

A broken pitcher was offered as testimony that Ephraim Jackson, the colored prisoner, had whacked his wife on the head.

"The testimony doesn't hold water," said the learned judge.—'Bohemian.'

THE FRENCH WAY
I popped the question to Marie,
Like any other beau;
She blushed and smiled and answered,
'Oui.'
For she is French, you know.
My dear,' I asked her, bending low,
(I feared the cake had turned to dough)
'Whom do you mean by we?'
'O, U and I,' said she.

Brighten Up

The Fall is an excellent time to paint your buildings. The weather as a rule is more favorable for painting in the Fall than any other time—less damp and rain to soak the lumber before painting, and no flies and insects to stick to the wet paint and mar or spoil the surface. If your buildings need paint protection from the winter storms, do not delay. Paint them this Fall. Ask your dealer for

McClary's Fuel-Saving Scheme

Sask-Alta Double Duplex Grates will save you fuel. Grates are separate, as shown in illustration. This allows ashes to be removed from one end of fire-box without disturbing fire in other end.

And saves fuel—as frequently there are more ashes in one end of fire-box than in other. When ordinary long grates are used good coal in one end of fire-box is shaken down with ashes in other.

Remember this feature is patented. Therefore Double Duplex Grates are to be found only on Sask-Alta Steel Range.
