The Bank of Montreal clerks now have their choice to stay with the bank and live a life of ease and bachelorhood or quit the bank, work for a living and become a benedict.

If I were Czar of the Bank of Montreal, I'd make every clerk get married as soon as his salary reached $600 a year.—Hamilton Spec's pie-man. I don't think there would be any rush on the matrimonial market, even at that.

Who said Charley Williams didn't see the sea scrpent?

The city council don't need any coaching, but a few electric fans in the council chamber would make the place habitable in the summer time.

The gallant editor of the Growler objects to the girls being slighted, He considers it an outrage to the maidens that they are not permitted to pay poll tax, too.

The editor of the Growler says that there is a dark horse coming out in the mayorality contest. I always thought friend Abe too modest to go after the prominent position of Mayor.

I saw a box of wet goods one day in Hamilton labelled Maple Leaf Whiskey. I never before knew that they made whiskey out of maple leaves, but I saw the stuff in Hamilton and they are liable to do most anything in the ambitious burg.

The Mayor told the council that he couldn't find the street monument for Stanley avenue, but finally located it in St. Paul's cemetery. Where else would the Mayor expect to find a monument. The early residents were certainly conscious of the fitness of things.

It was a seven-year-old Kent County maiden who said to her father, after watching the frogs jump in a pond of water, "Why. Daddy, the froggies jump in without taking their clothes off." The remark does credit to the child. It shows that the little one has observation, already developed in a marked degree.

A RAINY-DAY STORY. Some tall stories have been circulated regarding the heaviness of the rainfall. One person, a fisherman probably by trade, said he had a large barrel with both eads out lying in the back yard. The bunghole was up and the rain fell in such a torrent that rent that more water went in at the bung than could come out at the ends, and as a consequence burst the bar-rel.—Mount Morris Index.

I don't think that the Bank of Montreal clerks will be as popular with the girls as they were. Detective Archie Skirving said he was going to have a house boat at Erieau, and I guess he has got it. .

The farmer makes it a point to water his stock, but when his grain is watered the way it was this year, he objects.

The Bank of Montreal has passed an enactment that their clerks must have a salary of $1,500 per annum before they get married. The Bank people must want to employ only bachelors.

NOT EVEN ONE. I think that the Bank of Montreal didn't want to give any wedding presents to their clerks.

An incident in connection with Sir John Macdonald, which has never appeared in print, is worth telling, and, what is more, it is true, The Prime Minister had gone into the Kingston postoffice to see, his old friend and supporter, then postmaster, Mr. Robert Shannon. coming out, the caretaken, a man named Dunbar, stood ready to open his hand on his forehead, and said to himself: There's something I've forgotten. 'Yes, sir; you've forgotten te the inside door. Stopping in the lobby just within, the Premier put aise my pay." Now, Din ar had been petitioning the member and Minister (for Sir John was both) during several months for an increase of pay without realizing his desire. No one could better appreciate the ready wit of he answer that flew out on the heels of his own remark, than Sir John Macdonald, who, wih a merry twinkle in his eye, smiled and said -

"Dun'ar, you hall get it."-Ottawa. Events.

Less than a hundred years ago, according to the Irish Law Tir. proclamation was made at the Mar ket Cross of Inverary, Scotland, which warned off poachers in this mixed style:

She was playing in a melodrama, and in one of her scenes she was alone with the villain, who locked the door and then announced in the usual style, "Aha, proud damsel, you are in my power," et ., etc. Miss Millard rushed at the door, beat upon it violently and was immediately precipitated out of sight of the audience, while a voice in the wings said loudly, "Bless me, I forgot to warn the lady that that 'ere door opened the wrong way!"

Beware of Appearances.

Two practical jokers once, when at railway station, observed a rusticlooking personage, who stood gaping around at everybody and everything in evident astonishment. Thinking to have some fun, they walked up, and, stationing them selves on each side of him, proceeded to have their sport. "Paddy," said one, "are you fool or an ass?"

"Neither," replied the peasant, 'hut I'm between the two.'

The jokers were observed walking away in evident disgust and looking very small.-London Tit-Bits.

International Bible Lesson for To-Morrow + The Tabernacle-Ex. 40, 1-13.

Golden Text-"Enter into His gates with thanksgiving and into His courts

It is about one year since Israel left Egypt to our lesso: o-day. God uses about one-third of I rodus, nearly all Leviticus and much of Numbers with Tabernacle teaching as object lessons in theology. There are three questions to ask about the Tabernacle and its sacred furniture:-

Its form? Its meaning?

They were all planned and arranged by God, as divine types of our Lord lesus Christ, as the Lamb of God, the High Priest and King, all prophetic symbols of the plan of salvation, the only ritual given by God for such purpose and to be used in His worship by His people Israel. All the materials were the gifts of God's people, who and to be restrained in their giving. The most skilful workmen were inspired of God and put their very best into every detail of their work. God's Tabernacle was His Tent, where He abede with His people, because one with them in their wanderings, governing, providing and blessing them from day to day. And such God is today by His Holy Spirit in His Church (the body of our Lord Jesus Christ), a habitation of God through the Spirit," composed of those who trust Him as their personal Saviour and follow as He leads them.
