

WHAT IS GOING ON TO-DAY IN THE WORLD OF SPORT.

LEAGUE MEETING HERE TO-MORROW.

A New Schedule For the International to be Arranged.

Red River Won the Pankonok Stakes at Jamaica—Roseben Stopped to Nothing.

A meeting of the officers of the International Baseball League will be held here to-morrow afternoon, at the Royal hotel, to revise the schedule. A good many changes will be made in the season's card. The games scheduled to be played here during race week will be transferred, and the Tigers will play away from home while the talent is playing the ponies. Another change will be made to accommodate the Police Athletic Association, which desires to hold games at Britannia Park on Wednesday, Aug. 5, or 12. Two holiday days will be changed, so there will be no conflict between the Hamilton lacrosse team and the Tigers. Manager Paige has shown a very good spirit in the matter of arranging dates, and his liberality will no doubt be appreciated.

Work at Britannia Park is progressing satisfactorily.

McGANN AND M'GRAW FIGHT.

Boston, April 30.—Dan McGann, the old Toronto first baseman and now of the Boston Nationals, and his former manager, John McGraw, of the Giants, fought twice last night.

At the finish of yesterday's game, when McGraw went to bat and hit into a double play, McGraw made some remark about McGann being an ice wagon, which got to the ears of the player.

McGann is stopping at the same hotel where the Giants are also housed, and during the evening walked impatiently up and down the hotel corridor waiting for McGraw to return from the theatre. McGraw came in with Mathewson and went to the billiard room for a game. McGann followed him, and in spite of Mathewson's intervention struck at McGraw. Hats were knocked off and there was a clash, but no damage was done except to McGann's Kentucky blood. The scrap broke up the billiard game and the players separated the combatants.

McGraw went upstairs and was soon followed by McGann, who went over to where he was sitting and made a vigorous pass at the Giants' manager. McGraw expected something was coming his way and ducked in time to get a blow on the shoulder. He was up in a flash, and the pair clinched again, but some of the players interfered before any blood was spilled.

McGann left the hotel by order of the management. McGann was not in the game and hostilities were not renewed.

NO EASTERN GAMES.

Only two games were scheduled in the Eastern League yesterday, and these were postponed on account of rain. To-day the visiting teams make another shift, Toronto going to Baltimore for four games, then at New York, and the champions get home to open the season on May 12 on the new island diamond.

MONTREAL GETS JONES.

Detroit, Mich., May 1.—Bumpus Jones, the Tiger Club, has been ordered to go to Montreal, where he will pitch for Jimmy Casey's club. This is the first sign of the general axe-swinging that is to be expected once the Tigers round to form. Jennings has decided to keep seven pitchers until July 1, and just who they will be is not certain.

RED RIVER WON.

Roseben Beaten Again Yesterday at Jamaica.

New York, May 1.—Red River, third choice in the betting, easily won the Pankonok Handicap at the Jamaica course yesterday, running the six furlongs in the fastest time of the meeting, 1:12.5. Roseben was made a hot favorite for this race at 8 to 5, but the big early for the final trials in Toronto and Montreal the first week in June.

The dates include all the provinces. The events at Halifax will be the trials for all the Maritime Provinces. St. John's, N. B., was billed for a meet, but New Brunswick will throw in their lot with the Nova Scotia at Halifax.

The list of meets is:
May 16—British Columbia at Vancouver.
May 16—Alberta at Calgary.
May 16—Manitoba at Winnipeg.
May 22 and 23—Ontario at Toronto.
May 30—Maritime Provinces at Halifax.

June 6—Final meets of winners at Toronto and Montreal.

The trial regatta will in all likelihood be held at St. Catharines on Friday and, if necessary, Saturday, June 26 and 27.

OLYMPIC BENEFIT.
There seems to be some misunderstanding with regard to the objects of the athletic carnival which is to be given at the Alexandra rink next Monday night. The Canadian Olympic Committee, who are to pay the expenses of the athletes who go to London to represent Canada at the big world's championship games there in July, must raise about $40,000 to meet those expenses. The Dominion Government has contributed $15,000, the Ontario Government $2,000, and the rest must be raised by the cities who are sending representatives. This city will likely be represented by two of the best athletes on the team, and possibly more. It is to be a benefit for the Olympic committee, and the committee of representative business men who have taken up the matter is sufficient proof of the interest being taken in the affair and the desire to keep Hamilton's end up.

The prizes have been placed at fifty cents and a dollar, and the reserved seats on the latter ticket can now be secured at Northmeier's. There has been a splendid sale of these, and the fund will likely be a good one.

Longboat will positively be here, and will run, and Mike Creed and Bob Stamp will have their first meeting. One of these men will go to London, sure, and the first time that a line can be got on them will be at their meeting on Monday night. Creed is leery of Stamp's ability, and Stamp has been very anxious to meet him. Creed was imported from Ireland for the I. C. A. C. of Toronto, and it will be a big disappointment to Toronto if Stamp beats him. Those who have seen Stamp jump say he is surely will.

HELP THE MEN, SAYS SPORT.

Sporting Editor Times—The athletic meeting in the Alexandra rink on Monday evening should be patronized by all lovers of the athletic sport, the object is to provide funds to assist in giving Kerr and Coley an extra two weeks' training in England, prior to their contests. The Olympic Games Committee is composed of representative men who should be well backed up. They cannot come to every one to buy tickets, but those missed can secure tickets at Northmeier's. Hamilton's reputation is at stake, so I trust to see the rink crowded. The time to help our athletes is now, when they are coming home, I hope they will, victorious. Pleased to see the strong support given by the press.

Week End Trips
Are always looked forward to by people who wish to take a little outing after their week's work is over. Commencing May 2, the Grand Trunk Railway System will operate a round-trip ticket at single first class fare with ten cents added to a number of points in Ontario, good going Saturday or Sunday, returning on any train Monday.

OLYMPIC TRIALS.

Dates of Sanctioned Meets Announced by C. A. A. U.

Toronto, May 1.—Secretary W. H. Crow, of the Canadian Amateur Athletic Union has secured word from the several provinces under the C. A. A. U. jurisdiction, naming the dates for their Olympic trials. The Western men will all work on the same day—May 16—in the three centres, and will be ready

SOME SNAPSHOTS AT SPORTS AND SPORTSMEN

Speaking in the Globe in regard to the annual meeting of the Amateur Athletic Federation at Montreal, Francis Nelson says:

I don't find anything in the report about the silly and impertinent "suspension" of the Hamilton Y. M. C. A. baseball team. It is the dictate of Mr. Sullivan, the Hamilton Y. M. C. A. recognizing the authority of neither Mr. Sullivan nor the monstrosity. Perhaps the mysterious "authority" that accomplished this remarkable feat of athletic government now realizes its absurdity, and has sense enough to be ashamed of it.

Ty. Cobb, the fleet Detroit outfielder, attributes his decline in hitting to the loss of a bat. He placed great confidence in that stick. The pet bat was stolen at Detroit, and club officials are now on the tracks of the youthful pilferer. Cobb will be a happy lad again if the prize bludgeon is returned to his safe-keeping.

He is now hitting .289. Little McConnell, the former Providence second baseman, leads the American League, with over .400. Hans Wagner is batting only .222 for Pittsburgh.

New York Telegraph: Mr. R. J. Mackenzie, of Winnipeg, was one of the spectators of the Excelsior Handicap yesterday. Mr. Mackenzie is the Canadian who bought Tourenne a year ago last fall from Frederick Forsythe, the $10,000. He came to New York to see his father off for Europe, and yesterday he visited the stable of Trainer Whyte at Belmont Park. The horses of the Mackenzie stable did not arrive from Washington until yesterday. They are in first-class condition, and Tourenne may be expected to start at Belmont Park. Mr. Mackenzie is very much of an enthusiast for racing, and it is more than probable that he will get together a first-class stable in a year or two.

Pall Mall Gazette: Macaulay tells us that bull-baiting was suppressed in this country not so much because of the cruelty it involved, as because it afforded amusement for the populace. One is at times inclined to feel that the reformers of the present day are imbued by the same spirit of intolerance. Even the most ardent supporters of the turf are prepared to admit that some people

BARIL DEFEATED THE BIG RUSSIAN.

Bob Mongoff Failed to Down "Acton's Unknown" and Was Hurt.

Fred Bartl, "the demon" wrestler, has bobbed up in Quincy, Ill. The Wednesday issue of the Whig, of that city, says:

After having lost the first fall in 40 minutes and 28 seconds to Bob Mongoff, the big "Russian Strangler," Fred Bartl, the speedy little middleweight wrestler, came back at his huge opponent and put him to the mat in jig time, the second fall taking but 10 minutes and 17 seconds, with Bartl the aggressor all the way. At the close of the match, which was a handicap, the Russian agreeing to throw him twice in one hour, Bartl addressed the audience, stating that he would wrestle Mongoff in a straight match any time, best two out of three, no time limit, and he intimated that the Russian had nerve to give him a handicap, for he felt that he was the better wrestler of the two in a straight match. Mongoff had nothing to say to the audience, but he claimed that he was unable to wrestle his best, owing to an injury he received early in the match, which made it almost impossible for him to continue.

The first fall had been in progress for about a half hour when Mongoff, his features distorted with pain, asked the referee for time to rest, but the referee had no power to stop the match on the request of one of the contestants. The big man appeared to be in Bartl's power but presented his opponent from punning him down. In the meantime he begged pitiously for a cessation of the match for a moment, stating that he was injured. With Bartl's permission the match was stopped, and Mongoff said one of his ribs had been broken. The referee was not satisfied and called a physician, who failed to find any fracture, but said that the man was suffering either from a torn ligament attached to one of the ribs or an internal injury. He did all that could possibly be done and the Russian agreed to continue the match.

Bartl was generous and allowed him the time that was taken out, although he could have insisted that the time be counted as wrestling time. In fact, he was not compelled to stop the match at

JENKINS AND GOTCH.

Tom Jenkins, America's former champion wrestler, once again on the warpath after Frank Gotch, recent conqueror of Hackenschmidt, to whom Jenkins lost his laurels some years ago.

Jenkins defeated Gotch in Madison Square Garden two years ago in a most bitterly fought and exciting match. Shortly after that Hackenschmidt took the American measure, and in doing so injured Jenkins' side. It was while still suffering from this injury that Jenkins took Gotch on in Kansas City and was beaten. Gotch has since refused to give him a return match.

CONKLE LOST ON A FOUL.

Buffalo, May 1.—At a local theatre last night there was another bout between Charles Conkle and Charles Taylor. The bout was fierce and at six minutes the referee gave the match to Taylor, on account of a foul by Conkle.

JUDGING AT THE HORSE SHOW YESTERDAY.

Mr. E. L. Wilkes, of Galt, Won King Edward Gold Cup.

Toronto, May 1.—April showers and a raw wind kept some of the ladies absent from the boxes at the second day of the Horse Show here yesterday. Despite climatic conditions, there was, however, a good audience, and the greatest interest was evinced in the horses, more especially those of the hunting and saddle classes.

His Honor Sir William Mortimer Clark was present during the evening, but there was a marked falling off in the attendance of those of the fair sex.

Tandems, hunters, saddle horses, trotters, single Cyddesdales, pacers and ponies were brought out before the judges. The most excitement naturally centred with the jumpers, six of which under the "qualified heavyweights" jumped in the afternoon, while twenty others were put over a six-jump test in the evening. The horses cleared the little green strip neatly in practically every case, and there were no mishaps to riders. One big New York animal cleared very hurdle by a generous margin, and by his general behavior won applause from everyone. To the skilled men with the note books in the centre of the tan park, he apparently had not the necessary points, and came away with a white ribbon only.

Following are the results of the judging yesterday afternoon and last night:

Pairs, horses, not exceeding 15.2-1. Fairheart and Truck, owned by J. W. Fairheart, Toronto; 2. Creighton & Creighton, Geo. Pepper, Toronto; 3. Duchess of Marlborough and Lady Brilliant, Dr. W. A. Young, Toronto; 4. Derby Day Dream and Derby Vision, A. Yeager, Simcoe.

Pacers, not exceeding 15.2-1. Bertina, A. Maher, Toronto; 2. Paige Oyster, A. Wales, Toronto; 3. Prince B, I. B. Paisley, Toronto.

Saddle horses, not exceeding 15.2-1. Sunray, Miss Marjory Clouston, Montreal; 2. High Honor, H. B. White, Keswick; 3. Gay Lady, A. Yeager, Simcoe; 4. McDonald, Geo. Pepper, Toronto.

Amateur pairs, Victoria or Brougham—1. Lord Ennis and Lord Clare, Ennisclare Stables, Toronto; 2. Duchess of Marlborough and Lady Brilliant, W. A. Young, M.D., Toronto.

Amateur tandems—1. Duchess of Marlborough and Lord Kitchener, W. A. Young, M.D., Toronto.

Hunters over six jumps—1. Lord Minto, Geo. Pepper, Toronto; 2. The Vase, Crow & Murray, Toronto; 3. Chancellor, E. H. Weatherbe, New York; 4. Kennebec, Hon. Adam Beck, London.

QUAKERS' TRIP.

Games to be Played in England by Philadelphia Cricketers.

The visit of the Philadelphians to England this summer is being looked forward to with great interest in the old country. They have decided to sail from New York on the steamship Umbria on June 29, and will probably reach London on the 27th or 28th.

The Quakers have arranged to practice on the London county cricket ground at the Crystal Palace from June 29 to July 4. Mr. Lacey has arranged a good programme for them, and the tour will commence with a match against South Wales at Cardiff on July 6. They will play Worcestershire, Hampshire, Middlesex, all but said he wanted to do the square thing by his adversary. He was loudly applauded for his action.

After his brief rest, Mongoff, in spite of the apparent pain his exertions caused him, went at the struggle in earnest, and after 40 minutes and 28 seconds secured a hold on Bartl that the latter could not break, and slowly but gradually forced his man to the mat for the first fall. During the intermission the big man was given medical attention and he still complained of severe pains in the region of the injury when he returned to the mat. It was soon apparent that he was not wrestling as he was earlier in the contest, and Bartl took advantage of his opportunity, rushing his man and keeping continually away from the floor, and finally broke the hold. He was soon in Bartl's power again, however, and the little man refused to be denied. He had his huge opponent almost to the mat, one shoulder lacking but a fraction of an inch of being down. When finally forced to the mat the big man was able to get his other shoulder away from the canvas, and, alternating tuns for several minutes, he compelled Bartl to keep up the strain until finally the Russian, exhausted, Bartl pinned both shoulders to the mat for the fall in less than 10-12 minutes.

SHORT ENDS.

Little Paragraphs of Sport From Far and Near.

New York, May 1.—Lucien Reollet, the French amateur pool champion, was defeated last night by Chas. F. Conkin, a former national champion, 400 to 341.

Dublin, May 1.—In a glove contest held here yesterday afternoon Bill Spence, of Australia, knocked out Jim Roche, the former Irish champion, in the fourth round. The purse was $1,000, and there was a side bet of $1,000.

London, April 30.—Managers Morgan and Morley, respectively for George Hackenschmidt and Frank Gotch, met representatives to-day of the syndicate offering $10,000 for a fresh match between the two wrestlers, and closed a tentative agreement for a meeting either in England or France on a date yet to be fixed. Articles were drawn up, signed by Hackenschmidt and mailed to Gotch, who has expressed his willingness for a match.

London, April 30.—In the semi-final singles for the coveted court tennis championships, now in progress at the Queen's Club here, the former champion, A. W. Gore, proved too strong for C. P. Dodge, of Colorado Springs, and defeated the American player by three games to nothing. The score was 6-3, 6-2, 6-4.

Lexington, April 30.—Because a heavy snow which fell early to-day made the track unfit for use, to-day's races here were declared off.

CYCLISTS ON THE FIRING LINE.

Much has been written concerning the use of the bicycle in warfare, and many tests have been made on this subject, both in this country and abroad. But in the main the effort has been toward the use of the wheel as an auxiliary, and not as a part of the equipment of the man on the firing line. The wheel mounted soldier has been considered as a scout or a messenger, or in some other capacity in which horsemen of a general mounted service might be used. An entirely different view point will be employed in the English autumn manoeuvres, for a body of volunteer cyclists will be pitted against regular troops. This will show actually how valuable a cyclist can be on the battlefield.

ASQUITH'S POLICY.

British Premier's Platform Includes Home Rule.

London, April 30.—In the House of Commons in the afternoon, Premier Asquith gave a somewhat roundabout, although practically complete, adhesion to the home rule pledges given by Winston Spencer Churchill during the recent electoral campaign at Manchester.

The subject was brought up by Walter Long, Conservative, who asked the Premier if Mr. Churchill's pledges had his sanction and authority, and, if so, whether he would give the House an opportunity of discussing this change in the Government's policy.

Mr. Asquith replied: "There has been no change in the policy of the Government, which was fully explained by the Chief Secretary for Ireland and myself in this House on March 30. I did not authorize Mr. Churchill to make, and I am satisfied that he has not made, any statements inconsistent with previous declarations of the Government. He did not say anything which I have not said expressly or by plain implication in my speech, and therefore his statements represent what I said."

England's First Sky-scraper.

Liverpool, April 30.—The corporation has authorized the construction of an office building 300 feet high opposite the Princess landing stage on the bank of the Mersey. It will be the first skyscraper ever built in England.

arrangements have not been concluded, but it is expected the Ottawas will play McGill on May 23, and stay over for a match against Montreal May 25, Victoria Day. Four games will be played against McGill during the season, and two against Montreal. A series of six games will be arranged with the Civil Service Club, three on Parliament Hill and three on the Ottawa grounds at Rideau Hall. The complete schedule of games, however, will be arranged in a few days.

The Ottawa eleven will be one of the best this season that has ever represented the capital. H. J. Haygate, the former Sussex player, who was with Montreal last year, will be one of the mainstays of the team. Mike Britow says he will not have time to devote himself to cricket, but it is likely he will be persuaded to play in the important matches.

ANOTHER MEETING.

Another meeting of the English Association Cricket Club will be held in the A. O. U. V. Hall to-morrow evening at 8.30, to complete organization. All persons desiring to join are invited to attend.

25 KING EAST

Historic Houses of London—Somerset House.

In 1548 the space now covered by Somerset House was cleared by the Protector Somerset for the erection of a palace. To obtain the necessary stone at least two religious buildings were demolished. But before the building was completed the Protector was beheaded and the property reverted to the crown.

Herbert Somerset House became a royal residence, but the Charles assigning the house to their respective wives. In later years it seems to have been converted into a sort of Hampton Court, where favorites were given apartments.

But the Somerset House here spoken of is not the same building as stands to-day. The original palace of the Protector was pulled down about the year 1710, and the present house erected in its place. The architect was Sir William Chambers. One the grandest features of the building is the terrace towards the river, which is a copy of that built by the brothers Adam in 1768 for the Admiralty.

Few houses have entertained a greater number of famous people here. Walpole, Halton, and Watt, all spent many hours; Wilkes, Flaxman and Chantrey knew it well; and here Sir Joshua Reynolds delivered some of his finest discourses to the students of the Royal Academy; and last, but not least, Nelson himself has many a time read the cabinet court yards for a day of the admiralty officers were at Somerset House.

Golfer (who rather fancies himself)—I suppose you've been round the links with worse players than me, eh? (The caddy takes no notice.) Golfer (in his loudest voice)—I say, I suppose you've been 'round the links with worse players than me, eh? Caddy—I heard verba what you've said. I'm just thinking about it.
