BORN LUCKY,

Or These Two Ladies Would Have Been Injured.

Miss Walsh, daughter of Police Sergeant Walsh, West avenue north, and a friend, Miss Hood, stenographer for Mayor Lawrason, Dundas, had a somewhat exciting experience last evening. They were driving a spirited horse, and when passing the Ontario Box Com-pany's premises of Main street east, early in the evening, it became fright-ened at a Brantford car entering the street from the Terminal Station yard, and dashed on to the sidewalk. The and dashed on to the sidewalk. The boulevard, at that point, is considerably higher than the street, and the buggy was overturned, throwing the occupants out upon the road. Fortunately, both ladies fell free of the buggy, or the consequences might have been serious, as the horse dashed eastwardly, draging the vehicle, minus one wheel, along the sidewalk, here lined with iron and the sidewalk, here lined with iron and wood trolley. telephone and telegraph poles. The Sunday evening promenaders freely gave it right of way. Once the animal fell, but speedily regained its feet and continued its career till it reached Mr. Alexander Ballentine's residence, when, turning into the lawn, it sought to enter the side gate, to the considerable damage of both that structure and the buggy. sidewalk, here lined with iron and

The young ladies were taken to Dr. Carrick's surgery where they received medical attention. It was found that Miss Walsh had been fortunate enough to escape injury, except a few bruises, and abrasions. Miss Hood, however, was badly shaken up and suffered some injury to her left side. At first it was feared that her hip bone had been fractured, but after the arrival of her parents from Dundas, she had so far recovered from the shock as to permit of her being carried to the 10.15 car, where she was made comfortable, and taken to her home.

Smith vs. Smith in a Theft Case This Morning.

Fined $15 For Furious Driving Around the Market.

At Police Court this morning consider able time was taken up with a stabbing affray between some Italians, and Budi mir Protich was called upon to act as interpreter, as the prisoners and witnesses ould not speak English.

Frank Domino and Seppon Ponack were charged with stabbing by Tony Ga-britch, and both pleaded not guilty. Tony Gabritch said the trouble started ast night at 11.30. An Italian asked him and his wife, and a friend from Buffalo to go over and have something to drink, and they went. At 11.30 he left the house, and, on reaching home, two peo-ple were in front of his home. When he asked them what they wanted they jumped at him, he said, and stabbed him and one of them pointed a revolver at him, but did not fire. After being stab-bed he looked for the police. J. L. Henrietta Gabritch, a sister of the compalianant, said when she went out in company with the Buffalo friend she saw the prisoners running away.

Effie Gabritch, the complainant's wife, said some Italians put the prisoners out of the house where the drinking was going on, and locked the door, but when the fight started she went out to help her husband and Seppon Ponack threatened to shoot her if she did not go away.

P. C. Lowery gave evidence of having been notified of the assault and of arresting the prisoners at Ponack's residence and two other constables found a revolver. They also found the prisoner hiding in the cellar.

Philip J. Smith, 104 Jackson street west, was charged by Delby J. Smith with sealing a dozen incandescent lamps. The complainant said the prisoner was selling lamps for him at 25 per cent. commission. He had twelve lamps and sold eight of them at $5 cach. Philip, he said, had worked for him a few days before he started selling lamps and had been paid $11.45, which was about $4 more than was due him. Mr. Thomson, of Kerr & Thomson, questioned the witness as to where he got the lamps in the first place, and was told he bought them for cash in Connecticut.

Philip Smith was then put in the witness box and said the agreement was that he pay $3.75 for the lamps and he was at liberty to sell them at whatever figure he wished. There had been some trouble in regard to some livery bills.

"He stole these lamps and I can prove it," said the witness.

Witness said that under the instructions of complainant he had hired a buggy for three days at $3 so that the country might be canvassed. The prisoner was committed for trial and let out to his own recognizance.

The enterprising people of Oregon have a slogan almost identical with that of Hamilton. The Greater Hamilton Association adopted "Hamilton, Canada, is the spot for you," and the western State people use "Oregon is the place for you." They use the words just as Hamilton does, in an oval around envelopes, etc. They had a large write up in the Philadelphia Post last week.

CARRYING LARGE CROWDS.

The Hamilton Ferry Company on Saturday had a big day's business at Oaklands, handling the Baptist Young People's City Union picnic and a number of small parties. The traffic to the cemetery yesterday was so heavy that the company will run a number of extra trips next Sunday to avoid crowding. The company is giving a special rate for fruit pickers to the north shore.
