SHOP EARLY

Christmas is only about a week away and yet it is not too late to remind all good citizens that there is still the opportunity to obey the annual exhortation to shop early. The Christmas season is a season of good will to all. The spirit of the time will be the better obeyed if people do not wait too late to make up their minds in the matter of purchasing. The young lady behind the counter will be better able to appreciate that spirit if she is saved to some extent at least the turn of Christmas eve. Shopping early has become a regular feature of social service. It means so much to those who have to be prepared for the late shoppers and relieves a strain from the shoulders of people who at this season experience much tribulation. It is not easy to look pleasant and be pleasant after hours of strenuous work in a shop. Moreover, this year, whether our Christmas is curtailed or not, whether we have to practice economies or not, whether the merriment be dimmed with sadness, this Christmas is the dawn of a new day. Shopping early this year is really a solemn obligation. It is something of a duty and something of a pleasure whether we have much to shop or not. It will be a sign of the recently discovered virtue of usefulness. Let us do our utmost to show that we possess this virtue.

Harkins Academy and St. Mary's Concerts

Clara Bernard, May Donovan, Irene Foran.

God Save the King.

The audience which filled the Opera House Friday evening, was a speaking testimony of the popularity of the staff and pupils of Harkins Academy and their splendid entertainment. So enjoyed was the concert of Tuesday afternoon Dec. 1st, in aid of the Belgian Fund, that many who had not the opportunity of being present requested that it be repeated. The financial support given, certainly showed the effort was appreciated. The sum of $146.00 was realized from the sale of tickets and candy, and after expenses are deducted the handsome sum of $123.00 will be equally divided between the Red Cross Society and the Patriotic Fund.

Every number on the programme was good. The flag drill, though difficult, was perfect and the uniform dress of the ladies and ladies received much favorable comment. The Patriotic choruses of the cadets in khaki, were well rendered, especially Rule Britannia. The stage setting was most appropriate to Miss Marion McArthur's song, which surely was one of the gems of the evening. The young ladies who took part in the Minuet danced beautifully and made one feel "ye olden times" of dress and dance, were all right. The recitations by Masters McCurdy and Nicholson were very fine indeed. Both selections were of a high order of elocution and their interpretations of each are beyond criticism. The knitting song was quaint and pretty. The Drummer Boys came in for a large share of praise, as did the little ladies and gentlemen in the Good Night song, and the concert exercise, The Leaves. The band selections were most enjoyable. The Grand Finale "Canada's Loyalty to Britain and her Allies" made a beautiful picture and with the singing of Rule Britannia by soldiers, sailors and cadets was most inspiring.

Stiff, Enlarged Joints Limber Up! Every Trace of Rheumatism Goes!

Even Chronic Bedridden Cases are Quickly Cured
RUB ON MAGIC "NERVILINE"

Nothing on earth can beat good old "Nerviline" when it comes to curing rheumatism.

The blessed relief you get from Nerviline comes mighty quick, and you don't have to wait a month for some sign of improvement.

You see Nerviline is a direct application; it is rubbed right into the sore joint, thoroughly rubbed over the twitching muscle that perhaps for years has kept you on the jump. In this way you get to the real source of the trouble. After you have used Nerviline just once you'll say it's amazing, a marvel, a perfect wonder of efficacy.

Just think of it, five times stronger and more penetrating than any other known liniment. Soothing, healing, full of pain-destroying power, and yet it will never burn, blister or destroy the tender skin of even a child.

You've never yet tried anything half so good as Nerviline for any sort of pain. It does cure rheumatism, but that's not all. Just test it out for lame back or lumbago. Gee, what a right fine cure it is for a bad cold, for chest tightness even for neuralgia headache it is simply the finest ever.

For the home, for the hundred and one little ailments that constantly arise, whether carache, too-bache, stiff neck, or some other muscular pain—Nerviline will always make you glad you've used it, and because it will cure you, keep handy on the shelf a 50c family size bottle; it keeps the doctor's bill small; trial size, 25c; all dealers, or the Catarth-ozone Co., Kingston, Canada.
