SEVERAL MARRIAGES in which prominent Charlottetown families are interested have lately taken place. Mr. Dennis O'M. Reddin, jr., son of Judge Reddin, was married in the Cathedral at Boston, on the 13th inst., by the Rev. Lawrence J. O'Toole, to Miss Lily Younghumand, also of Charlottetown. After the coremony, the happy couple left Boston on their wedding tour. On Monday morning, Miss Isabella M. Fowle, daughter of Mr. Aubrey Fowle, was married to Mr. of Mr. Aubrey Fowle, was married to Mr. George A. W. Robertson, Clerk in the Paymaster's Department of the P. E. I. Railroad.

The That Parky announced in our last issue to come off on the 17th inst., at Lot 65, in aid of purchasing an organ for 8t. Ann's Church was a grand success. Quite a number of ladies and gentlemen from the city took advantage of the favorable weather to participate in the fastival. Father James & Me-Donald, Parish Priest, spared no gains in promoting the comfort and pleasure of those who attended. On the arrival of the morning train from the city, he had a sufficient number of teams at North Wiltshire Station to drive the passengers to the grounds. To the ladjes in charge of their part of the business great credit is due for the taste they exhibited and the heal they manifested to make matters agreeable. The tables got up were such as gave universal satisfaction, and all seemed to enjoy themselves to their hearts coutout. In the evening Father McDonald did not seem to forget that courtesy and kindness so characteristic of a real gentleman in seeing our town folks asfely on board of the train on their way home, after enjoying a very pleasant day.
