C.L.B. Concert.

"F" Co. Avalon Battalion C. L. B. held a concert in their gymnasium last night which was largely attended, fully 200 being present. The proceeds will go to the expenses of the company's room. Lieut.-Col. Rendell presided and in a short speech paid a meed of praise to Miss Edwards, who kindly helped make the affair a success. Capt. Alderice spoke in a similar strain. The farce was most entertaining and Privates Rendell, Bishop, Colton and Moore, who took part in it, acquitted themselves splendidly. The concert was also most enjoyable and the efforts of the performers were loudly applauded. The following was the programme: Piano solo, Miss Edwards; song, W. D. Edwards; gramophone selection, E. Spry; recitation, R. Chafe; song and chorus, "F" Co.; song, J. Snelgrove; gramophone selection, E. Spry; song, Mr. Barnes; farce, "John Brown's Body"; God Save the King.

Amateur Wrestling.

At the rooms of the Y. M. A. at St. Mary's, South Side, on the 20th inst., two amateur wrestling matches take place. One will be between Cranford of St. Mary's and A. J. Hennebury of the C. L. B.; the other will be between "Kid" Keats, St. Mary's, and F. Roberts, C.L.B. These young men are well up in the art and good matches should result. Young Olson will referee.

L. S. P. U. Tournament.

The prize winners in the L. S. P. U. contest last night were J. Cullen, J. Wrack, J. Wilcox, M. Cluney, W. Hayes, M. Ryan and James Quinn. The games were closely contested and a large number took part. J. Cullen secured the highest number of games—19; Messrs. Wrack and Wilcox, 18; and the others 17. On Wednesday, Thursday and Friday nights next week there will be a succession of tournaments. The prizes will be ducks, geese, etc.

Woman Charged With Postal Theft.

Last night Const. O'Neill arrested one of the women who works about the Post Office on a charge of stealing packages from the Parcel Post Department. Recently the Inspector General was apprised by the Postmaster General that certain packages were taken from the Department, the larcenies covering a period of several weeks, but the thief could not be discovered. Const. O'Neill, in plain clothes, watched the Post Office, and it is said he caught the woman in the act. The woman will appear in court to-day.

POULTRY RAISING.—An illustrated lecture on Raising Poultry will be given in the Presbyterian Hall, next Monday, by Mr. J. P. Landry, of Canada.

Hon. Mr. Greene's Funeral.

The funeral of the late Hon. D. J. Greene, M.L.C., took place yesterday afternoon and was largely attended. Headed by the band of the Catholic Cadet Corps, the cortege started from Queen's Road, down Church Hill to Duckworth Street, along to Prescott Street and on to the Cathedral by way of Military Road. A guard of honor of the C.C.C., of which the deceased was Lieut.-Colonel, was lined up on each side of the hearse, which was covered with floral tributes sent by friends. Immediately behind the coffin walked the relatives of the deceased. Then came in the order named His Excellency the Governor, Sir Ralph Williams, the Prime Minister, Sir Edward Morris; Governor's Private Secretary and A.D.C., in His Excellency's carriage; His Grace Archbishop Howley, His Lordship Chief Justice Horwood, Mr. Justice Johnson, members of the Executive Council, Legislative Council and House of Assembly, Mayor Ellis and City Councillors, officers of C.L.B., M.G.B. and M.D. Highlanders, heads of Government departments, and a large concourse of citizens. The band played the Dead March in Saul, which added solemnity to the proceedings. Arriving at the Cathedral the casket was placed on a catafalque at the sanctuary rail, where seats were provided for His Excellency the Governor and party and for the C. C. C. officers. Vested in cope and mitre the Archbishop recited the funeral service, "Libera Me Domine" and "Ego Sum Resurrection Vita." His Grace was attended by His Rev. Monsignor Roche, Rev. J. Donnelly, Rev. J. J. McGrath, Rev. D. O'Callaghan and Rev. D. Sheehan. His Grace delivered a panegyric on the deceased from the text, "I know that my Redeemer liveth and that in my flesh I shall see my God." After dwelling on the Christian belief in the Resurrection, His Grace went on to pay a tribute to the many virtues and amiable qualities of the deceased, who was an important factor in the legislative and public life of the Colony, and whose brilliant talents would be missed in his country's councils. His Grace made touching reference to the bereaved wife and mother and other relatives of the deceased, whose hearts were now filled with grief, but there remained the consoling thought that all would be united hereafter where there would be no parting. He enjoined that prayers be offered for the dead. At the conclusion of the service the procession formed up again and with solemn tread advanced to Belydere Cemetery where the body was consigned to the earth to await the day of resurrection.

McMurdo's Store News.

FRIDAY, Dec. 15, '11.
We are particularly pleased with some of the new Sachet Powders. The firm of L. T. Piver of Paris are well known for some of their Sachets—eg., Le Trefle, Incarnat, Azures, Saffraun, Senteur des Prairies, and so forth. But they are continually adding new ones to the list. Such a one is Lariette, which is for the first time imported by us this year. All who have sampled it think very highly of it, and we are inclined to think it will become one of the most popular things of its kind. Price $1.20 in ounce.

Rowland's Macassar Oil has long been known as one of the most elegant dressings for the hair. We have just laid in a limited stock. It is as good as ever. Price $1 a bottle.

Mr. Neal's New Purchase.

Mr. George Neal, who has been absent from the city the past couple of weeks, returned here by the express yesterday afternoon. While abroad he purchased the fine steamer Balma, which was built in France 3 years ago at a cost of $75,000. The ship will be used as a general carrier by the Bell Island S. S. Co., of which Mr. Neal is one of the principals. She is a fine vessel of 455 tons gross, 154 net; lit with electric light and capable of steaming 12 knots. She is also fitted with a cold storage plant, which cost $10,000 and which must be of great utility for those shipping perishable goods during the warm summer season. She has also an evaporator on board. The vessel is substantially built, well equipped in every respect and is now on her way from Sydney to Bay Roberts coal laden.

Supplied the Orphans.

To celebrate the anniversary of opening his new store, Mr. S. B. Kasher to-day gave a number of the Church of England Orphanage boys a bit-out of good strong boots. Mr. P. F. Collins supplied them with stockings and Mrs. McRae with candies and fruits. The children of other orphanages will receive similar gifts to-morrow.

Persian Crisis.

Special Evening Telegram LONDON, To-Day.
Referring to the Persian question during a discussion on Foreign Affairs in the House of Commons to-day, Sir Edward Grey said the Anglo-Russian agreement was not intended to impair the independence and integrity of Persia. A declaration to that effect had been made by the Persian Government, but he added that Britain had not undertaken an obligation to protect the integrity of Persia. The Russian Government, continued the Secretary, had demanded that Shuster be withdrawn. The British Government did not object to that demand. Shuster's intention of appointing British officials in Northern Persia was good, but the spirit and intention of the Anglo-Russian agreement could not be permitted to be upset, and two great nations embroiled by the action of any individual, no matter how good his intentions were. After what had happened he agreed with Russia's demand that the consent of the British and the Russian Legations should be obtained for the appointment of Foreign Advisers. As Persia was unable to pay the indemnity, he hoped Russia would be induced not to press that demand. The British Government was strongly opposed to the restoration of the ex-Shah. Russia had given a categorical assurance that she had no intention of that kind. In this connection Sir Edward read a communication from the Government at St. Petersburg stating that the troops would not advance from Kasbin for eight days, unless extraordinary circumstances should force an advance, and that, when Persia complied the demands for the further presence of the troops would be superfluous. The communication concluded with an assurance of adherence to the Russo-British agreement. Sir Edward insisted upon the importance of Shuster being replaced without delay by a Foreign Financial Adviser, acceptable to Britain and Russia, and that the latter country should co-operate to assist Persia in securing loans for the restoring of order.

Nfldr. Married At Seattle.

A very pretty wedding between two former residents of Newfoundland, took place in far-off Seattle, Washington, on October 19th, in the Church of Our Lady of Good Help. The contracting parties were Mr. Patrick Byrne and Miss Mary Goss, both residents of Torbay. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Father Barrett. The bride looked charming in a dress of crepe meteor over white messaline and carried a shower bouquet of lilacs of the valley. After the ceremony a wedding supper and re-union were held and attended by the many friends of the happy pair. Amongst the guests were quite a few Newfoundlanders including Mr. and Mrs. P. Ryan and Messrs. G. Molloy, J. Doyle, G. Doyle, W. H. Ryan, T. M. Tapper and J. M. Tapper. Both Mr. and Mrs. Byrne received numerous and very handsome presents. Mr. Byrne, the groom, is a brother of Detective Sergeant Byrne, of this city. The happy couple are making their home in Connet, Washington. The Telegram extends its felicitations.

Mr. Reid Won the Prize

Mr. F. E. Reid, of Heart's Delight, while at Saskville College last year took a position as agent for the John A. Hertel Co., of Chicago, in selling Bible symbols. The company offered prizes to those selling the largest amount of their goods. He won the first prize, receiving a typewriter valued at $100, having sold 700 copies of the work given to him to dispose of. He has gained for himself the position of Field Manager for the Co. in Canada and Newfoundland, and will secure students from the various colleges to engage in canvassing during their vacations. He will enter a Canadian college next year to study medicine and his many friends will wish him success.

Obituary.

It is with sorrow we report the death of Adam Noseworthy, of Pouch Cove, who died on the 14th inst., after a short illness, at the ripe age of 76 years. He leaves behind him a wife, four sons and one daughter to mourn their sad loss. One of his sons is Lighthouse Keeper at Cape St. Francis; another in New York; and the daughter is married to the Postmaster of that settlement. To the sorrowing relatives we extend our sincere sympathy.—W. B. E.
