Xmas Day at the Meth. Orphanage.

Christmas began early for the girls at the Orphanage this year, and the solicitation and joy have been long as well as great.

On the 21st the Girls were all invited to attend the Gower Street Sunday School Anniversary Service. When this announcement was made to the school it caused no small amount of excitement, and keenest interest and anticipation visibly portrayed itself on the faces in front of the Deacons.

A visit to "Gower," the Mother church, is always considered a "treat" by the children, and we do not at all wonder at this, for the many friends of "Gower" by their repeated acts of love and kindness have endeared themselves to all the Orphan Girls of the West End.

Time would fail to tell of the surprise parties, treats, picnics, etc., planned and carried out by the various societies of that church to relieve the monotony and brighten the life of the child at 165 Hamilton Avenue.

This year something entirely out of the ordinary happened, and because so unusual, we are sure, is regarded as a "Red Letter Day" by all the girls. We refer to the Gift Service in which each Orphan girl was privileged to participate, at the close of which, by the well-timed, kindly suggestion of the S. S. Supt., the girls were all claimed by a number of friends, and taken to their respective homes for tea. That act was surely the crowning one of the unique Gift Service that preceded it and well calculated to call forth the gracious "Inasmuch" from the Master Christ. Christmas Eve came round bringing with it the many evidences of good-will and kindly remembrances from the genial Santa Claus friend, but at bed-time general gloom filled the minds of the occupants of the dormitories on being told that they were not to hang up their stockings; but the next morning everything like depression vanished when the family filed in for breakfast, for there were twenty-eight of the most beautiful pink, green and yellow stockings hanging in bright array along the wall all filled with such lovely Christmas goodies.

The turkey and plum pudding dinners was a wonder and keenly appreciated by all the youngsters.

The last, but not by any means the least event of the season, was the "Tree" which came off Friday evening the 26th. It was voted by all to be the very best Tree ever seen in the Methodist Orphanage, its heavily laden condition of gifts, spoke plainly of loving kindness and good-will from the many friends whose names appear elsewhere.

We take this opportunity of thanking one and all of those kind benefactors, and join with the Orphans in wishing all a very Happy and Prosperous New Year.
