LONDON, To-Day.
Bacon, painter, is dead. He painted the Coronation picture of King George V. and Queen Mary.

ROME, To-Day.
From the Vatican comes the emphatic denial that the health of the Pope is causing anxiety, and the statement is that his health is quite normal.

OTTAWA, To-Day.
One of Strathcona's recent benefactions, showing the deep interest he took in Canadian boyhood, was the promise to contribute $5,000 a year for three years to a fund being raised to permit of the appointment of a Dominion Secretary to travel through Canada and organize Boy Scouts.

PARIS, To-Day.
Long continued cold, especially in central districts of France, is bringing numbers of wolves frantic with hunger out of the woods. A little girl returning from school at Lacoquille was devoured by wild animals, search parties finding only a torn pinafore and a few bones. Hunting parties are being organized everywhere.

TORONTO, To-Day.
His physician says now it seems probable that Sir James Whitney will completely recover from his illness. The Prime Minister passed a very satisfactory day, and when asked whether his patient would ultimately regain his health, stated that Sir James was making good progress and that the outlook was exceedingly hopeful.

MEXICO CITY, To-Day.
Huerta betrays no sign of yielding, although he is cognizant of the increase in the strength of his enemies intruding within the capital and those in the field. He is handicapped by inability to procure money and is confronted with the Washington determination that he must retire from Mexican affairs. Personal and political friends and highest officials of the Catholic Church in Mexico, who have been endeavoring by methods for some part discreetly indirect to bring about his elimination, are seemingly convinced that they have failed. Huerta talks optimistically of the outlook, displays pride in the size of his army, which he estimates as considerably more than 10,000, and appears to believe that in spite of all obstacles he will be able to dominate the situation within three months. It is conceded here that ex-Minister Magon has failed in his mission to Mr. Lind at Vera Cruz and that the United States will listen to no proposition short of the unconditional elimination of Huerta.

Little Girl Injured.

On Saturday afternoon a little girl, named Gaiway, daughter of Mr. Jas. Gaiway, of the General Post Office, met with an accident at the Prince's Rink. She was skating round when she tripped and fell. Her head came in contact with the skate of a companion and as a result a gaping wound was inflicted. The victim, who bled copiously, was picked up in an unconscious condition and conveyed to her home on Prescott St. Yesterday the little girl was in a weak state and concussion of the brain is apprehended.

Inspect Dock Premises.

Mayor Ellis and the members of the Water Committee of the Council, visited the dock premises to-day to enquire into the waste of water reported by Inspector Rooney. It will be remembered the Reid Company repudiated the Inspector's report, and as a consequence the matter will likely come up for discussion at to-day's special meeting.

Minard's Liniment Co. Limited.
Sirs—I have used your MINARD'S LINIMENT for the past 25 years and whilst I have occasionally used other liniments I can safely say that I have never used any equal to yours. If rubbed between the hands and inhaled frequently, it will never fail to cure cold in the head in twenty-four hours. It is also the best for bruises, sprains, etc.

Yours truly,
J. G. LESLIE.

Obituary.

There passed peacefully away on Sunday morning an aged lady of note, in the person of Mrs. Robert Cowan, widow of the late Robert Cowan. Truly it can be said to know her was to love her. After six weeks intense suffering which she endured with calm persistent faith, she passed away from this earthly house to that house not built with hands, but eternal in the heavens. We, her friends as well as her family, will miss her and often we will long for the touch of that vanished hand and the sound of that voice which is still. She leaves to mourn her two daughters, Mrs. Geo. Lawrence, and Miss Lizzie, at home; also three sons, Peter, Henry and Robert.

She is not dead, what though we laid her quiet form beneath the sod to rest. What though she sleeps a long and quiet sleep in 'midst of others who grew weary of the toils and cares of this wild life. This is but seeming! Underneath the sod She is not, never was: Her soul is gone To be with God.

Illustrated Lecture.

As seen by reference to our advertising columns to-day, an illustrated lecture on "Japan" is arranged to take place in the Grenfell Hall to-morrow evening. Mr. Jones, the courteous manager of the King George Fifth Institute, has kindly consented to deliver this lecture. We understand that the lantern and slides are of the finest quality. We would urge all who are interested in the Land of the Rising Sun, to avail of this opportunity of seeing Japan as it was, and of the changes that have taken place since the heaven of Christianity has been working there. Enjoyable music and other items will be rendered during the interval, and candy will be offered for sale. Proceeds in aid of missions in that land. We would bespeak for the lecturer a large audience.

Bought and Paid For.

AT THE CASINO TO-NIGHT.
To-night the W. S. Hopkins Players will present the play with which they opened their engagement here. We refer to that laugh-producing "Bought and Paid For." Without exception, "Bought and Paid For" is the most popular play in the company's repertoire. The scenes are laid in New York, they could be laid anywhere, for every town and city has just such characters as are seen in "Bought and Paid For." Those who enjoy a good laugh, a play full of human interest, and good acting should not miss "Bought and Paid For" at the Casino to-night. To-morrow night the company will present "The House Next Door," another laugh-maker.

Churchill's Troubles.

Special to Evening Telegram.
NEW YORK, To-day.
A cable to the Tribune from London, reports that Churchill is finding the continued co-operation with men pledged as Lloyd George is to the Little Navyites more and more difficult. Vague rumors are afloat that a combine to be supported by the Northcliffe papers is being discussed for the formation of a new party headed by the Duke of Westminster and Churchill, and possibly allying with the Duke of Sutherland.

McMurdo's Store News.

MONDAY, Jan. 26, 1914.
Stockman's Kolarbent is the disinfectant most suitable for use in the stable, being specially prepared for that purpose. And as an antiseptic wash, cleaning, purifying, healing and soothing, for mange and other skin troubles, thrush, hoof trouble, cuts, wounds and scratches, broken knees, and bruises, and many other external troubles that attack the horse it is really invaluable. Every farmer and stableman should have a bottle at hand. Price 50c.
Mito Infants' Food, Nestle's Special make, stands high in the ranks of foods for infants and invalids, and has brought many infants up to robust and hearty childhood. We know of no better food for babies. Price 30c. and 60c. a tin.

England in Newfoundland.

A Dinner is to be held at Wood's West End Restaurant, under the auspices of the White Rose Social, on Tuesday, Feb. 3rd, to which we invite all Englishmen by birth living in St. John's. The chief item of interest to be discussed will be: "Should we have a club-room where Sons of English-born parents may assemble?" All who are interested in the formation of such a Society will kindly show their interest by attending the dinner.

Yesterday at 1:50 p.m. an alarm of fire was sent in summoning the Central and Eastern Companies to the house occupied by Mrs. Sheppard at the head of Long's Hill. The fire was caused by a defective chimney and was promptly extinguished before any damage was done. The "all out" signal was sounded at 1:58 p.m.

"The Star o' Robbie Burns."

Editor Evening Telegram.
Dear Sir—Undoubtedly the majority of your readers, especially Scotchmen, have read with great interest and pride the short sketch and selections of the now world-famous Robert Burns, which appeared in your issue of Saturday last. Also, the eulogiums of Lowell and Ingersoll, who by their verses have shown to his posterity the high esteem his memory so well deserves. Below you will find a few verses of a fitting tribute to this great poet, by one whose name I cannot ascertain, but who nevertheless was inspired with that patriotic feeling so inseparable with Scotchmen, and I kindly request you to publish them. I have tried to find the author's name, but my search has been futile. At any rate, to my sentiments, those words are the most eloquent outpourings of a truly "Scotch heart."

Yours truly,
ERNEST KOCH.

"THE STAR O' ROBBIE BURNS."

There is a star whose beams ray
To shed o'er every clime;
It shines by night, it shines by day,
An' ne'er grows dim wi' time.
It rose upon the Banks o' Ayr,
It shone by Doon's clear stream.
A hundred years are gone an' mair,
Yet brighter grows the beam.
Though he was but a ploughman lad
An' nae o'er the "hadden gray," Auld Scotland's sweetest bards were bred
Aneath a roof o' straw.
To weave the strings o' Scotia's lyre
Whieher this day returns
That gave the world her peasant boy,
"Immortal Robbie Burns."

On Fame's emblazoned page enshrined
His name is forever now,
An' morn' a costly wreath's been twined
To grace his honest brow.
Old Scotland's heart expands wi' joy
Whieher this day returns
That gave the world her peasant boy,
"Immortal Robbie Burns."

Let kings and courtiers rise an' fa'
This world has monnie turns;
Yet brighter beams aboov them a'
The "Star o' Robbie Burns."
