Many Passengers

on Kyle.
Added to the woes of those of the one hundred and two passengers who arrived on the steamer Kyle this morning, who were obliged to comply with the law regarding vaccination and get a jab of the needle at the cost of one dollar a jab, was the fact that all who intended going out on the morning's westbound express were obliged to take it easy here until tonight. The Kyle was held at Port aux Basques owing to the late arrival of the cross-country express, hence the delay.—North Sydney Herald, Oct. 7.

Wesley Epworth League

At a meeting of the Wesley Epworth League which takes place to-night Mr. Isaac Morris will give a discourse on the following topic: "In old testament times prophets were called of God to arouse His people to a fuller sense of duty. Would such men as the prophets arouse God's people to-day?" There will also be a quartette by Wesley talent. Leader, Mr. Walter Sparkes. Everybody will be heartily welcomed.

Attempted Burglary.

Yesterday morning, about three o'clock, three young men were disturbed in their efforts to gain an entrance to Stafford's Drug Store. That they would have succeeded in getting in, there is no doubt, but that a woman who lives nearby hearing the noise of the trio raised her window and shouted for the police, when the would-be burglars decamped. The attempted entrance was made at the rear of the store and the putty from one of the windows had been removed, before the men were disturbed. It is thought the thieves were after liquor, which is dispensed at the store.

Digby sailing October 18th next. Mrs. McLeod is going to visit her friends in Ayr and will remain for the winter. Messrs. J. M. Devine and J. T. Meaney, who will represent the local Irish Self-Determination League at the Ottawa Convention left for the Canadian capital by yesterday's express. Mr. J. F. Carey, of the Furness Withy Co., left by yesterday's express en route for New York where he attends a meeting of managers that is being held there.
