Municipal Contest.

Some excitement promises to be forthcoming in the Municipal Elections set for December 15, and campaigning will therefore not be so dull and prosy as anticipated. The fight for the Mayoralty, according to prospective nominees up to the moment of writing, will be waged between two candidates, both of whom have every eligibility for the position of Chief Councillor. In incorporated cities, Mayors are styled Chief Magistrates. In St. John's they are given the courtesy title, and do not sport any chain of office. That a warm and friendly rivalry will eventuate from the nominations of those gentlemen who have consented to seek the Municipal franchise, will add to the amenities of the election, and the friends of both will have to be up and doing in order to secure a majority for their favorite. The qualifications of the two prominent citizens in the running so far for the Mayoral Chair need not be recapitulated just now. They are both well known to the city voters, and will doubtless make a pronouncement of policy when the proper time arrives. Supporters of both are numerous, and may be expected to put in some good work in furthering the civic ambitions of their favorite candidates. This is as it should be. Without a contest the enlightenment accompanying elections would be missing; neither would there be any inducement or incentive to boost the solitary individual nominated, who would be elected by acclamation, thereby depriving the male and female ratepayers within the Municipal boundaries of the pleasure of hearing the exposition of a policy calculated to benefit the future welfare of the city. With a contest there must necessarily be a campaign, and with a campaign there has to be a clear declaration of policy and a clear-cut enunciation of a programme for the future. Electors may expect then, within the course of a few days to have the platform of the rival aspirants made known, and then it will be left to them to make their choice, and cast their ballots accordingly. It is perhaps a good thing for the city that there are two candidates in the running for Mayor. At least it will make for a definite pronouncement from both as to how they purpose conducting civic affairs; and to the man who has the clearest cut policy, without any extra strings or frills or impossible promises, to that man will the taxpayers rally and by their support place him in a position to devote his best efforts to the welfare and well-being of the capital city of Newfoundland. The full tally of Councillors have not yet been made public, but so far as those of them who are soliciting the civic suffrages of their friends go, there promises to be an interesting contest for the six chairs which adorn the Council Chamber in the City Hall. Of the persons of these aspirants we shall have somewhat to say later.

Tragic Happening.

MAN FOUND DEAD ON TORBAY ROAD.

At 7.30 this morning a resident of Torbay Road named Robert Kelly reported to Inspector General Hutchings that near Tricco's house, which is 4 1/4 miles from town, a man dressed in oil skins lay face downward in the drain, apparently dead. The Inspector General and Supt. Grimes immediately proceeded to the scene and they discovered that the man was Richard White of Torbay, and that he had been dead some hours. The man evidently had sat on the roadside in the shelter of a small tree and when he expired, fell in the drain. The body was removed to the Morgue, where Dr. Tait was called. He pronounced death due to heart failure. The deceased, who is a butcher, was in the city yesterday and purchased several head of cattle, which he started to drive home during the evening. He was on the beach at about 5 p.m. in company with his cousin. It is presumed that becoming exhausted in following the cattle the man succumbed. The wife of the deceased was also in town yesterday, and stayed with relatives for the night. The sad news was broken to her by one of the clergymen from the R. C. Cathedral. Much sympathy is felt over the tragic happening as the deceased leaves a large family.

Opened Memorial School.

Dr. W. W. Blackall, C. of E. Superintendent of Education, and Sergt. T. R. Vicketts, V.C., arrived from White Bay by the Prospero to-day. They went north some time ago for the purpose of attending the opening of the Ricketts Memorial School which was erected in the settlement of which only V.C. was a native. The school was built with money raised by public subscription some time ago.

Had Rough Passage.

The Spanish schooner Andervale, Capt. L. Arreta, 32 days out from Las Palmas, Canary Islands, salt laden to Laso & Co., arrived in port this morning with some of her canvas carried away. The vessel met very stormy weather and last night anchored under Cape Race. Owing to a heavy sea and strong S.W. wind, the vessel could not hold the ground, and the captain had to make for sea, not, however, before he lost chain and anchor. Through good navigation and seamanship the vessel was kept off the rocks and port reached. The captain also reports the loss of one of his small boats.

Claiming a Fortune.

Efforts are being made by some members of the Baldwin family to establish their claim to about two million pounds, which is now in chancery. The money was left by a resident of Jersey, in the Channel Islands, who died some years ago. The Baldwins, quite a number of whom are resident in Pouch Cove, originally came from Jersey. If the relationship can be traced there is no doubt but a huge fortune awaits the claimants.

K. M. A. At Home.

The Kirk Men's Association held an "At Home" last night in the Presbyterian Hall. There was a large attendance. The Vice-President, Mr. W. Angus Reid, outlined the aims and objects of the Association. A concert was held which was greatly enjoyed. Games of various kinds were indulged in during the evening, and an excellent supper was enjoyed.

If its VALUE you want, just go down to BOWRING'S and get a pair of their good Blacketts. Prices down to Rock Bottom. The Blackett season is now on. Don't delay this opportunity. Get yours now.—nov16,21

Kyle Delayed.

Up to press hour to-day as Kyle had not arrived at Port aux Basques, and it is presumed that she has been delayed by the storm now raging on the West Coast. No report has been received of the Kyle leaving Sydney, but she should have left some time last night. The express, which is awaiting the Kyle's arrival, will naturally be several hours late in arriving here. The Kyle will make one more trip to Sydney and will then proceed from there to St. John's direct; and she will go on dock for a general inspection and so that small repairs may be effected. These will probably take about a week.

WEST COAST STORM.—A heavy gale has been raging since yesterday along the South West and West Coast, and as a consequence the Kyle has been delayed in crossing the Strait and the Portia has had to shelter at Channel.

A Grand Dance will be held in the Empire Hall to-night. Tickets 75c. Don't miss it. nov16,21

One Splendid Hour of Glorious Song.

LAST NIGHT'S RECITAL IN THE COLLEGE HALL BY MISS ELSIE HERDER.

Despite the inclement weather which prevailed last night, a capacity audience, attracted by the musical treat in store, turned up at the Methodist College Hall, where for an hour or more they were treated to a feast of vocal and instrumental viands. The Recital was for the purpose of furnishing funds in aid of the Methodist Orphanage, and right nobly did patrons respond, braving the storm of wind and rain in order that they be privileged to contribute, no less than to show their appreciation of the talented young lady under whose principal management the programme was arranged. We are indebted to Miss Herder for her efficient aid, to all of whom general thanks are due for one of the most successful musical treats of the season.

"The talented principal, Miss Elsie Herder, presented an attractive programme, every item of which was thoroughly enjoyed and appreciated. Miss Herder's well merited reputation in musical circles justified the expectation that her Recital would add to her laurels. In every song she pleased, in some she excelled her best efforts, and it was noteworthy that despite the heavy strain to which her voice was subjected, the closing number was a triumphant finale to a series of successes. There was a pleasing variety in her selections. Sanderson's "Friend of Mine" was the opening number. Other songs in the first part were "After" touchingly rendered; Elgar's "Like to a Damask Rose"; Homer's Requiem; Spross's "Will o' the Wisp," as dainty as delightful, and Burleigh's "Little Mother o' Mine." A storm of applause followed and in graceful recognition Miss Herder responded with another number. The second part commenced with Burleigh's "The Sailor's Wife." There are times when a Recital loses its attractiveness because of its sameness. Throughout Miss Herder maintained interest and admiration, not alone by the excellence of her singing, but by its variety. She alternated from grave to gay, from "Penseroso" to "L'Allegro," from the rippling song of "Lightness to melodies which whispered life's tragedies and sorrows. "Now Sleeps the Crimson Petal" was followed by Quilter's "O Mistress Mine." "Blow, Blow, thou Winter Wind—" was realistic, and appropriate to the weather. The closing numbers were in admirable contrast. English, Irish and Scottish: "The Banks of Allan Water," a delightful ballad, with a charm all its own; "Killarney," a song whose sweetness is as the voice of Erin itself; "The Young May Moon," exquisitely sung, with "Angus MacDonald," a Scottish lament closing in an outburst of joyful welcome. "Yes, Angus, my own coming home from the war." Here and there throughout the programme Miss Herder's renditions suggested dramatic power. In Angus MacDonald the suggestion gave place to reality. It was a triumphal conclusion to a well selected programme, and evoked a spontaneous outburst of applause.

In the Recital Miss Herder was assisted by Mrs. John Murphy, Mrs. Herbert Outerbridge and Mr. Lloyd Woods. As a violinist Mrs. Murphy has won golden opinions, and last night proved no exception. She is a violinist of exceptional merit, and won the applause and admiration of her audience. Mrs. Herbert Outerbridge's improvisations were clever. She made two appearances, the first calling for a double encore, and the second a triple re-call. To charm and vivacity Mrs. Outerbridge adds elocutionary power, and the joy de vivre. The power she cannot confer, but joy begets joy. Mr. Lloyd Woods is always a favorite. His contribution was a song of the Spanish Main followed by another in response to an insistent encore. Mr. Gordon Christian was accompanist, and added much to the general success by his masterly manipulation of the keys. Mrs. Walter Rendell effectively and gracefully accompanied Mrs. John Murphy in her violin contributions. To Miss Elsie Herder and her assistants, the Methodist Orphanage Committee are willing and grateful debtors, and so, too, are those whose good fortune it was to be present at last night's recital.

Coming to Newfoundland.

GOVERNOR GENERAL OF CANADA TO VISIT ST. JOHN'S.

Lord Byng of Vimy, Governor General of Canada, informed Mr. Arthur Mew, C.M.G., Deputy Colonial Secretary, who has recently returned from Canada, that he hoped to be able to visit Newfoundland shortly to see the place and the people. Mr. Mew left here about the first week of October to attend the session of the General Board of Missions of the Methodist Church, as lay delegate from Newfoundland. The other Newfoundland delegates were Rev. Dr. Fenwick and Rev. Dr. Saint. The conference which was attended by representatives from all over Canada, met in Toronto. The chief question raised was that of finance. Last year, the expenditure totalled $1,250,000 and the revenue amounted to $1,100,000, the greatest in the history of the Board. The increase in expenditure over revenue was made good from surpluses and savings in expenditure, which had accumulated during the past ten years, but the Board is financially sound as it has a reserve of $300,000. For next year, the estimated expenditure was assessed at $1,250,000 and this will mean that the revenue will be about $150,000 short. The only method of reducing expenditure was to cut down salaries of Home and Foreign Missionaries, but this was not considered wise and it was decided that the excess expenditure should be left to the people of the Methodist Church to make good.

Bishop Usako of the Japanese Methodist Episcopal Church addressed the conference and said that his church was raising $300,000 for a forward movement. He further stated that Anglicans, Presbyterians, Methodists and Congregationalists in Japan had united in the cause of Education. Satisfactory work is being done in China and soon the first native Christian Church will be formed under its own constitution and officers.

A school for the training of Missionaries has been formed in Toronto under the supervision of Rev. Dr. Lowell Murray. It has the support of many important colleges.

MEETS LORD BYNG.

Mr. Mew, who was accompanied on his trip to Canada by Sir P. T. McGrath, met Rt. Hon. Arthur Meighen, Canadian Prime Minister, on the journey. Mr. Meighen was electing a Minister of Works and Buildings, Minister of Customs and Excise, General Postmaster and Colonel of the Nova Scotia Regiment. The Nova Scotia Regiment was invited to join the Prime Minister's special and had the opportunity to hear him and his companions speak. Mr. Meighen impressed Mr. Mew as a man of great ability and force of character. He had a clearly defined policy and neither he nor those with him appeared from the beginning to be extremists. Meighen appeared frank and fearless and the progress he made as he passed through Canada was noticeable. It is yet too early to attempt to determine the result of the Canadian elections but it is expected that none of these will get a working majority and a political adjustment will probably be necessary later. The entrance of Sir Lomer Gouin into the fight should have an important bearing on the result. Mr. Mew met Lord Byng at a luncheon at the Canadian Club where Sir P. T. McGrath delivered an address on Newfoundland. Lord Byng said he was specially interested in Newfoundland because of his regiment served under him in the 29th Division during the Great War. He knew of their work in Gallipoli and France and he had been proud to have such men under him. He then said he was coming to Newfoundland as soon as he could, to see the place and the people. In his address, Sir P. T. McGrath assured Lord Byng of a hearty welcome when he does come here as our Governor.

Mr. Mew attended the great McGill reunion at Montreal and was also loud in his praises of the Canadian civic and educational systems. He saw many former Newfoundlanders during his trip, all of whom were anxious to hear news from the land of their birth.

The Storm on the South West Coast.

A medical man writing from Rencontre West, H.B., to his father in the city, describing the damage done by the recent storm, says: "The new church at Francois, which was partly finished, was blown down. This is the second time that this church has been destroyed by wind. One man's house at the same settlement was turned over three times, and a small shop that was near it, together with a stage, were pitched in the water and later were found on the other side of the harbor. Another man had ten panes of 14 x 20 glass broken in his home. One of Webb's schooners, the Globe, went ashore early during Sunday morning with about 200 qts. of fish on board. Men worked all day and succeeded in removing the fish and afterwards they salvaged the schooner. Another fisherman's house was tilted far enough by the gale to make the kettle fall off the stove. Nearly all the boats in the harbor were filled with water or turned bottom up." The writer said there was not much damage done at Rencontre West.

Nfld. Life Underwriters' Association.

The regular monthly meeting of the Nfld. Life Underwriters' Association was held yesterday at 1.15 p.m. at the Green Lantern, Theatre Hill. A very hearty lunch was served to the members by the management of this popular cafe and the catering was all that could be desired. At the conclusion of the regular business, the President of the Association introduced Mr. E. B. McInerney, the newly appointed Manager of the Royal Bank of Canada, who was present as a guest. Mr. McInerney addressed the members on "The functions of a bank," and in a very able manner traced the history of exchange banking and banking from the early ages to the present day. In the course of his address Mr. McInerney discussed the subject of Life Insurance from a Bankers point of view and the prominent part that business and corporation insurance was taking in the financing of all business enterprises of to-day. Mr. McInerney is a graceful and polished speaker and made a big impression on the members of the Association. During the past year the Life Underwriters have held many meetings and were addressed by some of the best speakers in the city notably Rev. Dr. Jones (late Rector of St. Thomas'), Rt. Hon. Sir R. A. Squires, Prime Minister, Mr. W. J. Higgins, K.C., and Hon. Dr. Campbell.

Own Your Own Home for Less Than You are Paying Rent.

For $600 cash down we build a nice plain 6 room $1,800 house and give 10 years to pay the $1,200 balance. Payments in principal and interest will average $14.40 per month for the 10 years, when payments cease and buyers own their own homes.

We build up to $3,500 house on this plan. We accept $900 on a $2,700 house; the monthly payments for 10 years to own this averages $21.60 per month.

The actual rent on the $1,800 house is $4.40 per month, as $10.00 per month or $120 per year applies to paying the principal.

On the $2,700 house, payments on principal is $15.00 per month or $180 per year, rent therefore only $6.60 per month.

See the $2,500 bungalow we are now erecting on Mount Royal Avenue—$800 down and $20.37 per month for 10 years is the price to own this beautiful home. We are in a position to give good service and value; we operate our own saw mills on the West Coast, also our own factory on Plank Road. We have one million feet of splendid sound, clear lumber of all kinds now in the city, including clear Fir Clapboard.

To parties wishing to build their own home, we supply lumber on 10 years' credit, taking first lien on the building.

Purchasers of lumber of all kinds will find our retail prices low. Stock sound and extra well sawn. Our clear West Coast Fir Clapboard is not equalled by stock sawn in any other part of the Colony.

Call on Mr. St. George, West End Lumber Yard, for further information.

Wedding Bells.

BARRON-OLEY.

The marriage of Miss Mary Eugene Barron, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Barron and Mr. Harold Oley, son of Mrs. Oley of Halifax and nephew of Colonel Oley of the same town, took place yesterday at the Oratory of the Sacred Heart Convent at 3.30 p.m. At the time the wedding took place, it was snowing heavily and Mrs. Oley has therefore the distinction of being the first snow bride of the season.

The bride, looking charming in a dress of white chamoisee trimmed with orange blossoms and Irish lace. She wore a coronet veil, also trimmed with orange blossoms and carried a beautiful bouquet. The bridesmaid was Miss Margaret Beams who wore blue and silver with a Dutch hat. Mr. Gordon Beams was best man, and the ushers were Messrs. J. Gibbs and R. Beams. The bride entered the chapel on the arm of her father who gave her away. The bride's mother who was present, was gowned in mole velvet. After the ceremony which was performed by Monsignor McDermott, the wedding party drove to the home of the bride's parents where the reception, to which several guests had been invited was held. The health of the bride and groom was duly honoured, and later the happy pair left for the railway station where they took the evening train for Holyrood in which town the honeymoon will be spent. The numerous and valuable presents received were a splendid testimony to the popularity of Mr. and Mrs. Oley, to whom the Telegram offers its best wishes for a felicitous married life.

Seventeen Aspirants.

So far some seventeen citizens are aspirants for honors in the coming municipal election. The latest to announce that they will be contestants for Councillors are Messrs. T. E. Brophy, J. Nangle and Reg. Deane. Mr. Phos. Peel is considering a request from many friends and may decide to become a candidate also.

Rebuilding Paper Plant.

A large number of men are now employed at Bishop Falls in rebuilding the plant of the A. E. Reed Co. which was destroyed by fire a few months ago. The new building will be a big improvement on the old one and will be fire proof. They are being built on the most modern plan and should be completed within a couple of months.
