Bar Haven Church Ceremonies.

People and Children Pay Loyal Tribute to Pastor.

Among the many memorable incidents crowded into the long career of Rev. Francis A. Cacciola as rector of St. Francis Xavier's Mission, Bar Haven, and its dependencies, none received greater honor than that which was shown him on the occasion of his 15th anniversary of his ordination to the holy priesthood. On Wednesday, Father Cacciola was the celebrant of a high mass in St. Francis Xavier's Church at 10 o'clock. The ceremonies of the mass were very impressive and the movements of his dear little altar boys all robed in their little white robes added splendor to the scene of the Sanctuary where the three grand altars of the church were lit with a galaxy of lights and a profusion of flowers. The children of the school, dressed in their new white robes, which they wore at the opening and closing of the forty hours devotion, approached the altar during the exercises of holy mass and received communion for the intentions of their pastor. At the close of the sacred ceremony they moved in mass formation to the Altar of the Blessed Virgin Mary and sang hymns and Father Cacciola's mother, whose name was Mary, and who donated the altar to the church. Father Cacciola recalled the wonderful transformation which had taken place since taking up his residence at Bar Haven in the year 1907, and told his hearers the closer they kept to their dear Lord the nearer they would come to Him. Free from the divers influences of city and town, it is within the province of the lives of people and children here to be persuaded to the truths and teachings of Eternal Justice. This is the mission of our dear church and the things that belong to Caesar and to God the things that belong to God. "A divine injunction commands us not to become spiritual survivors and moral cripples but to acquire those essentials that will enable us to make our lives sublime." The music of the mass was uplifting and the solo parts splendidly rendered. The beautiful tribute to the late lamented mother of the rector given by the school children with exceptional grace, gave a touch of pathos to the occasion recalling that Father Cacciola had lived to see her highest ambition and his arms realized. A mammoth procession in which all the grand ornaments and banners of the church were displayed was held in the evening. The girls all appeared in their white uniforms and the scene was one not soon to be forgotten, and will mark another grand luminous page in the annals of St. Francis Xavier's Church, Bar Haven.

Newfoundland Picture Story Almost Ready.

INTERVIEW WITH PHOTOPLAY-WRIGHT.

In a statement issued from his headquarters at the Cochrane Hotel today, Garrett Eklund, Fort, novelist and photoplaywright, said that the Newfoundland motion picture project was well under way and would be ready to go into actual production in a few days. After carefully considering the great quantity of original material so kindly submitted by resident authors, Mr. Fort, in conference with Ernest Shipman and the officials of the Newfoundland Films, Ltd., decided that the best story for present purposes would be "Rip Tide," the well-known novel by Kenneth O'Hara. Mr. O'Hara, an author and director of prominence, has just completed an Ernest Shipman Special at Sault Ste. Marie, and has joined Mr. Shipman in Halifax. Mr. Fort is leaving on the "Silvia" to meet them in Halifax for a joint conference. He will return next Thursday, and expects to bring Mr. O'Hara with him.

Final arrangements in New York and Halifax are being made to engage an all-star cast for the picture, and at the present time, it is expected that the Company will arrive in about two weeks. While only well known and favorite artists are being chosen for the principal roles, it is Mr. Shipman's intention to choose a number of talented persons from the city to interpret some of the less important parts. There will also be a mob scene of considerable proportions, affording an opportunity for some three or four hundred people to participate. Further details will be made public upon the arrival of Mr. O'Hara, who is to have charge of all casting arrangements. Mr. O'Hara will direct the picture, as announced previously, thus insuring success through sympathetic treatment of a subject of which he is thoroughly familiar, and close cooperation with the producing unit. The author-director idea, a comparative innovation within the last year, has met with unqualified success in great centers of motion picture production like Hollywood and New York. Authors like Rupert Hughes, Mary Roberts Rinehart, Clarence Budington Kelland, Maurice Maeterlinck, and Gouverneur Morris have proved themselves capable of turning out the great cinematic successes of the year, and with Mr. O'Hara's long experience in both the literary and dramatic field, the result of the combination is certain to be a photoplay "knockout." Mr. Fort is confident that the first Newfoundland picture, "RIP TIDE," will not only be the first photoplay product yet to come from Newfoundland, but also one of the greatest dramatic pictures of the year. Combining a warm heart interest and sympathetic treatment of the lives of the Newfoundland people, with a series of dramatic smashes culminating in a terrific climax, both spectacular and novel, "Rip Tide" will be a photoplay which will rank with the best.

Sportsman Shot Bear With Revolver.

Dr. Clinton B. Parker, of Brooklyn, N.Y., spent a few weeks on Upper Humber and secured forty-five salmon. His companion, F. B. Burden, landed fifteen. They enjoyed the trip very much. A Western Star correspondent had a chat with Dr. Parker on his return to Curling, and asked him if he had any experience with bears. He said the doctor made no reply except inviting the Star man to his room at the Davis Hotel. On entering the Doctor said he had learned a lesson from his last year's experience never to go into the woods without some firearms, and this year he had provided himself with a small six shooter, "and there," pointing to a table in a corner of the room, "is the result of this precaution." Upon the table were the skull bones and paws of bruin. The doctor stated that they were annoyed by the bear somewhat the same as last year, and their efforts to drive him away were of no avail, and so he had to bring in operation his little six-shooter, but not before they had lost a man and some other stores. The party went from Curling in company with Frank McIsaac, as guide, to fish at North Branch, Codroy—Western Star.
