

TUESDAY EVENING, SEPTEMBER 17.

VERY UNJUST.

Our cotemporary is not the only journal that belabours when misfortune has overtaken them...

The wonder to many is not that he has been defeated, in North Ontario, but that he should ever have been elected for any place...

CENTRE RIDING.

CLOSE OF POLL, FIRST DAY.

The following is the total vote polled yesterday for the various candidates in the Centre Riding:

Table with 3 columns: Candidate Name, Ferrier, Loggins, Armstrong. Rows include Nichol, Pilkington, Garafano, Eramosa, Erin, Fergus, Elora, Orangeville.

Curious Presentment.

It cannot be denied that there are some queer men composing even Grand Juries sometimes, and that these often make queer presentments at the end of their labours...

The Elections.

The following statements will show how the various candidates stood at the close of the polls on Monday in the constituencies mentioned.

STORMONT.—At the close of the first day's poll Mr. Ault had a majority of 308 for the Commons over Sinclair, and Mr. Colquhoun 112 over Cockburn for the Assembly.

LAMBTON.—The close of the first day's poll showed Mr. McKenzie 663 ahead of Mr. Vidal, and Mr. Pardee 848 in advance of Mr. Rae, his opponent for the Local House.

NORTH VICTORIA.—Mr. Morison has been elected to the Commons by a majority of 284, and Mr. Cockburn to the Assembly by 269.

ALGOMA.—It is said that Mr. Simpson had been defeated for the Commons, and that Mr. Cumberland had been returned for the Assembly.

EFFECTS OF CHEMICALS ON SHIPBOARD. A week since, after a long passage, the bark Rambler arrived at this port from New York...

A CURIOUS DIVORCE CASE IN PRUSSIA.—A single example will explain what things are even now possible. A married lady, mother of several children living in amiable harmony with her husband...

THE MONEY BAGS. The London Advertiser of the 14th inst. is responsible for the following: A person came very near calling him a gentleman—passed through this city yesterday per G. W. R. en route to the County of Bothwell...

UNPROFITABLE GARROTING.—Garroters are sometimes disappointed, not only in their expectation of victims, but with their disposition when captured. A few nights since, two of the disciples of the Spanish principle for fixing a person, set upon a man on Centre street, Detroit...

NEEDLES WERE FIRST MADE IN London by a negro from Spain, in the reign of Queen Mary. He died without imparting the secret of his art. The art was recovered in 1665. Elias Growse first taught the English to make needles, but the art was again lost for nearly a century...

General News.

The Montreal Witness says—If the owners of Molson's Bank and the bands of curiosity-mongers see fit to allow it, there may long remain a memento of the riot on Friday last...

THE Wisconsin papers tell of a gentle zephyr which passed through the town of Mondovia the other day: "It swept nearly everything in its path for a space of from eight to ten rods in width, twisting trees from one to two feet in diameter in two, and carrying the top some distance. The bodies of large trees were distinctly seen at the height of one hundred feet in the air, tossed and whirled about in all directions."

LONGEVITY IN NORWAY.—The latest Norwegian census shows that there are in that country eighteen persons above one hundred years of age, one of whom, an unmarried woman, living at Mo, in the Nordland district, is one hundred and seven. There are, besides, thirty persons of one hundred years old, of whom eleven live in that same district.

THE London Economist of the 24th ult. states that Colonial securities were then mostly firm, "the investment inquiry exceeding the supply of stock." An advance in Canadian securities had consequently taken place, and some of the 6's were quoted at 4 premium.

FESTIVE FUNERALS.—The New York Times notes a peculiarity in metropolitan funerals. Conviviality is largely practised in the carriages that form the funeral train. In fact, the mourners conduct themselves as merrily as possible, and the flowing pocket pistol passes from hand to hand with rapidity and regularity...

A MERRY BROTHERHOOD.—The latest English papers have given full accounts of the recent festivities of the 'Foresters,' an extensive organization of English working men. The main objects of the order are to assist in social merry makings—to take care of sick members, and to give decent burials to the dead. Lately an immense gathering of the brotherhood has been held in London, where they have appeared in various picturesque costumes, those modelled on the popular conception of Robin Hood seeming to be the most common. Unlike their supposititious founder and his associates of Sherwood Forest, the Foresters of the present day pay their own way, without levying on outsiders. The expenditures of the order last year were £259,169. Within the last ten years ten thousand members have been received.

AN Ohio editor refused to speak to the toast "Woman," on the ground that woman was able to speak for herself, and any man who undertook to do it for her would get into trouble.
