

Anything You Desire.

Do you want to make a change in the look of your house? Have you a wish that you would like to improve the appearance of your rooms? Then come to our store. We can give you Wall Paper at any price. Lots of designs of the latest productions on hand.

O. B. GRAVES,
222 Dundas Street.

CHINA HALL

We have just received a full line of DINNER SETS, all sound, no chips and nicely decorated and stippled in gold, at $7. Also 100 Piece Sets with out gold for $5.

Yeo's China Hall
177 Dundas Street.

PATENTS

P. J. EDMUNDS, Solicitor of Patents
MECHANICAL AND ELECTRICAL
252-51 Richmond, corner King, London, Ont.
Telephone 391.

Keep Cool For $15....

You can do it if you are supplied with one of our MOTOR FANS. Just the thing for office or store.

LONDON ELECTRIC CO., LTD.
850 Richmond Street.

Bass Fishing

COMMENCES WEDNESDAY, JUNE 16.

Examine your outfit. See what you require. We can supply you with the latest and best of everything pertaining to the piscatorial art. Our stock of Bass Flies, Bass Hooks, Bass Leaders, Rods, Reels, Lines, etc., is new and complete.

W. A. BROCK,
192 Dundas St., London.

R.K. Cowan

Barrier, etc., over Bank of Commerce and County Buildings, London.

THE MOST Fashionable Dress Binding is the Lip, because it looks well and because it wears as long as the skirt and never fades, frays or becomes ragged. It is waterproof, dustproof, and gives a tailor made finish to the dress such as no other binding gives. See that you get "Worth's" latest French skirt pattern, free, with every purchase. Made in 3 widths and 2 colors.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

Hunt & Sons' old established feather bed and mattress cleaning factory, manufacturers of goose feather pillows, mattresses and spring beds. Ticks filled with feathers and delivered. Stoves bought, sold, or exchanged. 533 Richmond street, north, opposite Victoria Park and Central Avenue. Telephone 397.

Headquarters for Baby Carriages—beautiful designs, beautiful colorings, and prices finer than ever. It costs you nothing to see them at TRAF-FORD'S, 55 and 57 King street, city.

If you have a watch that does not give you satisfaction take it to W. T. Fresham, 321 Dundas street. All work guaranteed; moderate prices. Clocks called for and delivered.

Screen Doors. Our combined storm and screen door is a screen for summer, with removable panels for winter—two doors for the price of one since there is but one bill for hardware and hanging, and no trouble or storage. Saves its cost each year! Changed in one minute! With our castor a door cannot sag. Bowman & Co., 200 Clarence street.

Notice to Advertisers.

Prompt changes are requested from our advertisers. Copy must be handed in by 4 p.m. the day before to insure insertion the following day. We cannot undertake to make changes when handed in the day of issue.

The Latest.

The weather is extremely warm and with it the flies have come. To avoid the pest use Cooper's Sweet Fly Poison Disk—Ez pick eggs. We also have a full line of Tanglefoot, Shoe-Fly, Insect Powders, Paris Green, etc., all at Rock Bottom Prices.

—FOR SALE BY—
N. W. Emerson, Druggist,
451 Richmond Street.

Be Ready

For the approaching hot weather. Buy your gas or coal oil stove now. There is no easier way of preparing the summer meals, and it is less expensive than coal or wood. Grand variety here. Phone 462.

STEVELY'S,
362 Richmond St.—Phone 462.

HOT TODAY—COOLER TOMORROW.

Toronto, July 4—11 p.m.—The important low area, which was over Lake Huron yesterday is now dispersing to the north of Lake Superior. The weather has been fine and excessively hot throughout Ontario and portions of Quebec, while in the Manitoba and Lake Superior districts showers and thunder storms have occurred. Minimum and maximum temperatures:

Calgary, 44-66; Edmonton, 52-66; Qu'Appelle, 52-70; Winnipeg, 53-72; Port Arthur, 58-84; Parry Sound, 70-96; Toronto, 66-92; Ottawa, 66-94; Montreal, 56-88; Quebec, 58-88; Halifax, 48-64.

PROBABILITIES. Toronto, July 5—1 a.m.—Probabilities for the lower lakes region: Moderate south west and west winds; fine and continued very warm; thunder storms at many places by night, turning a little cooler on Tuesday.

LOCAL TEMPERATURES. The highest and lowest readings of the thermometer at the observatory here on Saturday were 91 and 63 above; on Sunday, 84.5 and 71 above.

DON'T

buy a Walking Cane or Pipe until you see my stock. Have some very cheap ones.

JOE NOLAN, Masonic Temple.

Your Eyesight,

Your health and your comfort rests with the man who fits your glasses. Consult the only exclusive refractician in Canada.

F. C. LaGrange M.O., 204 Dundas Street. Office hours 9 to 12 a.m., 7 to 9 p.m.

In the Dining-Room.

TUESDAY, JULY 6.

BREAKFAST—Blackberries with sugar and cream. Baked eggs. Breakfast biscuit and coffee.

LUNCHEON—Cold corned beef, sliced thin. Thin bread and butter. Red raspberries and cream cookies.

DINNER—Fried chicken. Flaked potatoes. Devilled tomatoes. Green apple pie. Cheese. Coffee.

Cut out these recipes and paste them in a scrap-book.

Breakfast Biscuit—One pint of flour, one rounding teaspoonful of baking powder; sift the flour and baking powder together three times; one tablespoonful of lard rubbed thoroughly in the flour, one-fourth teaspoonful of salt. Mix as soft as possible to handle with cold water; roll and cut into biscuits and bake in a hot oven twenty minutes.

Fried Chicken—Take a spring chicken, dress and cut up as for pot pie. Steam for one-half hour, as this makes it more juicy and more easily done; then fry in butter and lard mixed, a pale brown; sprinkle with one-half a teaspoonful of salt and a dash of pepper while frying.

Flaked Potatoes—Get potatoes as perfect as possible; boil in their skins in salt water for one-half hour; drain dry and peel; rub through a coarse sieve onto a hot dish before the fire. Do not touch them after this or the flakes will flatten out. Serve hot.

Deviled Tomatoes—Two or three large firm tomatoes, not over ripe; cut them into slices half an inch thick and lay on a sieve. Make a dressing of one tablespoonful of butter and one of vinegar rubbed smooth with the yolk of an egg, half a teaspoonful of salt, a fourth of a teaspoonful of mustard and a fourth of a teaspoonful of cayenne pepper; heat until smooth and heat to a boil. Take from the fire and pour upon a well-beaten egg, whipping to a smooth cream. Put the cream containing this dressing in hot water while the tomatoes are being thoroughly broiled over a clear fire. Put the tomatoes on a hot dish and pour the dressing over them. Cooked in this way they are very nice with chicken.

Apple Pie—Crust—For one pie take two large handfuls of flour, a pinch of salt, a piece of lard the size of a turkey's egg, rub into the flour until smooth; mix with just enough cold water to roll. Filling: Take four or five large tart apples, pare, quarter and slice thin. Line the pie plate with the crust, place the sliced apples on the crust and season with three-fourths cup of sugar, a piece of butter size of a walnut, a half a teaspoonful of salt and a fourth of grated nutmeg. Wet the edges of the under crust, place the upper crust over the apples and press very closely round the edge, prick the upper crust with a fork to keep from blistering. Bake slowly for half an hour.

Cream Cookies—One and two-thirds cups of sugar, one-half cup of butter, one cup of sour cream, three eggs, one-half teaspoonful of soda, three cups of flour. Do not roll too thin.

After a Severe Cold.

"Hood's Sarsaparilla has cured me of scurvy. I was weak and debilitated, and Hood's Sarsaparilla built me up and made me strong and well. After a severe cold, I have been met by a large number of ratepayers, who objected to the proposed grading of the street at this point. The opinion of the aldermen was that the cut was too heavy, and the question was referred to the public."

HOOD'S PILLS are the favorite family cathartic, easy to take, easy to operate.

Ferdinand Herve a French-Canadian, 25 years old, attempted to kill Miss Rosina Drobiet, 36 years old, also a French-Canadian, in New York City, Friday. Herve afterwards shot and killed himself. The woman will probably die.

MILITARY BOOTS

At Low Prices.

Keep a Complete Stock.

Infantry Shoes special at... $1 25
Cavalry Long Boots special at... 2 50
Officers' Fine Shoes special at... 3 00

Whiting and Black Heel Ball (for accoutrements) that will not rub off. Special low prices this month for out of town buyers, as well as citizens. Such values are not known outside of this store. We do the trade, because we do it well.

POCOCK BROS

One Price Shoe Store.

Why Spend

Your leisure hours walking on the hot streets of the city when Springbank is so near, and the beauty of spring budding from every nook with shrubs and flowers of nature?

London Advertiser.

TELEPHONE NUMBERS.

107.....Business Office.
134.....Editorial Rooms.
175.....Job Department.

July!

When the oxygen is melted from the air.

And the blazing sun brings nothing but despair.
The explorer at the pole
Is the envy of your soul,
And you vainly wish that you were
With him there.

When the climate was more moderate,
with words that sounded wise
Men hailed his expedition as a doubtful enterprise;
But each is eager, now, to lend assistance to his plan.

Say, Mr. Nansen, don't you need another man?

Where glittering icebergs drift beyond control
And the walrus sits contented by his hole.
A sealskin overcoat
You can button round your throat
While old Boreas shouts a lusty barcarole.

The crystal snowflakes eddy in the bracing atmosphere
And the sun takes a vacation and is gone for half a year.
We long to join the Eskimos—that comfortable clan!

Say, Mr. Nansen, don't you need another man?
—Washington Star.

A Local Budget

—Mr. Bert C. Wales, of Detroit, is home on a ten days' vacation.

—Miss Maud Parks, of 14 King street, is visiting Miss McElliott, of Stratford.

—Miss Williams, of Cleveland, Ohio, is visiting at Mr. James Kilgour's, South London.

—Mr. James Wild, of 307 Grey street, London, is visiting Miss C. Moyan, of Ingersoll.

—One noticeable thing about the weather is that it is steam heated in every room.

—Mrs. Roderick McPherson, of Paris, spent the holiday with her father, Mr. Carnegie, here.

—Mrs. W. Scarlett, of this city, is the guest of Mrs. H. Donley, Wellington street, St. Thomas.

—Hon. S. H. Blake, of Toronto, is the guest of Mr. V. Cronyn, at his summer house on con. 4.

—Mr. Joe Paladino, treasurer of the Lyceum Theatre, Detroit, and his wife, are spending the holidays in the city.

—Mr. and Mrs. S. R. Manness and family have gone to spend the summer at New Orchard Beach, Port Stanley.

—Traffic on the belt line was so heavy on Saturday night that it was necessary to attach trailers to the regular cars.

—Miss Alice Essex, of 744 Lorne avenue, left Thursday on an extended visit to her brother, Rev. H. A. Essex, of Kalamazoo, Mich.

—Asklin Street Methodists, Wortley Road Baptists, and Knox Church Presbyterians will picnic at Port Stanley on Friday, July 16.

—Mr. Frank Brown, Dufferin avenue, was thrown from his bicycle Saturday night upon a load of gravel, and suffered an injury on the shin that required several stitches.

—Brantford Conservator: Mr. Wm. Wilson, of London, was in town yesterday visiting his family. Miss Bell, also of Brantford, is in town, is home on a visit to her mother.

—Mrs. Ross, widow of the late Wm. Ross, gardener for C. S. Hyman, and her mother, Mrs. Elizabeth Cummings, of Elmwood avenue, have returned to their farm near Ettrick postoffice, to reside.

—The board of works visited Wellington street, between Hill and Grey streets, Saturday afternoon and were met by a large number of ratepayers, who objected to the proposed grading of the street at this point. The opinion of the aldermen was that the cut was too heavy, and the question was referred to the public.

If you want a good, bright, cheerful light for the long, hot days, get Lilywhite Oil. Ask your grocer for it. It's the best lamp oil now offered. Don't supply peddlers. Gasoline, benzine, cylinder and machine oils at lowest price. Phone 307.—Empire Oil Co.

Humphreys' Homeopathic Specifics

Cure the Sick.

We have received a fresh and complete assortment of these famous homeopathic remedies. We also have a new stock of their well-known "Veterinary Specifics."

FOR SALE BY
W. S. B. Barkwell,

DISPENSING CHEMIST,
268 Dundas Street.

Our Latest Offer!

CORN COB PIPE FOR ONE CENT.

SAM. K. STEWART, 202½ Dundas St.

referred back to the engineer. Those present were Ald. Parnell, Carrothers, Cooper, Johnston and Mayor Little.

—Mr. George Bragg, of Providence, R. I., has been visiting relatives in this city for a few days. He will return tonight, accompanied by Mrs. Bragg's wife, Mrs. Joshua Hartley, of Dundas street east.

—Rev. Walter Moffat conducted his first communion service at Chalmers Church yesterday since he was ordained pastor. Several new members were present. Tonight a strawberry festival will be held on the church grounds.

—The death of James Cassels, color-sergeant of the Salvation Army in this city since its inception, twelve years ago, occurred at his residence, King street west, last evening. Deceased, who was 77 years of age, had been dangerously ill for a month. He was an old citizen and very highly esteemed. A widow and two or three grown-up children survive. The funeral will be conducted by the army.

—A young man named Raney, living at 201 Oxford street, was turning the corner of Dundas and Richmond streets on his wheel on Saturday night, when he collided with a horse and rig, driven by Mrs. Lawrence, of London West. Raney was thrown under the buggy, and might have received serious injury had he not taken hold of the box of the rig and thus prevented the wheels from passing over him. The horse had become frightened at street car and bolted.

—Mr. John M. Moore, civil engineer of the waterworks, has been transmitted to the clerk of Alisa, Craig his report upon the proposed scheme, from which it will be seen that unless the Grand Trunk Company will put in a more powerful boiler, so as to give a working steam pressure of 80 pounds to the square inch, instead of 40 pounds per inch as at present, the proposed outlay would result in no benefit to the community, as the present pressure would be used for fire purposes. The G. T. R. may increase their engine.

ELDER JOHNSTON'S INDUCTIO. Rev. D. C. Johnston, who was elected to the eldership of St. James' Presbyterian Church congregation, was yesterday morning inducted to that office by the pastor, Rev. M. P. Talling.

Rev. Canon Duffin, for his text II. Timothy, ii, 3—"A good soldier of Jesus Christ." The speaker first gave a few practical points of the resemblance there was between the soldier and the Christian. Many people would be surprised at such a comparison, because as a rule a soldier did not get a very high name for exceeding righteousness. They were not distinguished for the great profession of religion, and religious people were consequently often very shy about speaking to soldiers in the matter of religion. "I protest, as a religious teacher," he said, "against such an assertion. He had a great deal to do with soldiers all his life, and he had found some of the best men in the army. Not only were they the best men, honest and kind and true, but they were deeply religious. The soldier could be a true servant of the Christian religion. He was not a loud professor of religion. In the other hand, people were surprised that a soldier's life should be likened to a Christian's, because a soldier's life was to fight and protect his country and those nearest and dearest to him; and a Christian's life was to promote harmony, peace and goodwill among his fellow men. While the preservation of peace was the greater part of the Christian's duty, there were times when they were not to stand upon peace—times when every worthy of the name of Christian should come out and fight for God, for Christ, for right, for his country. There was a time when the Christian and of duty to the soldier. "Do you think," he said, "that the cross was placed upon the Union Jack for nothing? It tells you that you are a soldier fighting for the British crown, and also that you are a captain and soldier for the King of Kings, and that great duty is what the cross symbolizes. I can understand the great battle of life. One of the great things a soldier has to learn is discipline. When a whole mass of soldiers were called on a field by a commanding officer, and they moved as one man in response to one word, such a sight has been brought about by obedience, the power that had made the English army so great. They had heard of the wonderful charge at Balaklava, when the noble six Hundred rode into the jaws of death. They knew some one had blundered, but there was no reply, no question given to the order. It was theirs to do and die. The preacher closed with one hope and wish, that all having fought the battle of life, each one might be able to say, when the great muster roll brought forth, and the Great Judge stood up, "I have not been a great hero, and have oftentimes been very careless, cowardly, and very nearly mutinous, and I look back upon my past life to say, 'I have never been a traitor to my Lord and Captain, and to the army of Christ. I did not do all that I ought to have done, but I know that I tried to, and I ask you now, Judge, to accept me for the sake of the great Captain who yielded up his life's blood for me.'"

NOTES. Corp. Miller, R. R. C. I., on Saturday celebrated his wedding, and was the recipient of many presents and hearty congratulations.

A letter has reached the barracks stating that Sergeant Cooper, Sergeant Cranston and Corp. Horner, who represented the school at the jubilee celebration in London, England, will reach home in about ten days. The non-commissioned officers are making preparations to give them a right royal reception.

Pte. Green, of No. 3 Company, Twenty-ninth Battalion, while trick on a bicycle on Saturday, was overcome with the heat. He was taken to the hospital and was soon all right.

The Twenty-eighth and Twenty-ninth went to the butts this morning.

Give Holloway's Corn Cure a trial. It removes ten corns from one foot without any pain. What it has done once it will do again.

Eva Booth Here.

The Daughter of the General Conducts S. A. Meetings

In the Opera House and Open Air—Bright and Profitable Services.

Commissioner Eva Booth, the much-loved leader of the Salvation Army in Canada, and daughter of the great general, delivered two remarkable addresses at the Grand Opera House yesterday afternoon and evening, besides conducting other meetings earlier in the day.

Miss Booth was accompanied here by about a dozen members of her staff, including the staff string and brass band, a fine organization. Five orphan children who have been adopted by Miss Booth were also in the party.

The soldier of the Salvation Army, led the knee drill at 7:30 a.m. at the citadel yesterday, and Miss Booth conducted the addresses at 11 a.m. The commissioner, though possessing remarkable energy, has not been in the best of health recently, and the close of the morning service was overcome by the heat.

An open air meeting was held in Victoria Park in the afternoon and another early in the evening on the market square.

At the opera house the heat was very oppressive, yet each meeting was attended by 500 or 700 people. "Faith" was the subject of the commissioner's address in the afternoon, and she spoke for nearly three-quarters of an hour, holding her hearers in rapt attention all the while. The staff band gave several pleasing selections, and one very agreeable feature was the singing of Dot, an adopted daughter of the commissioner.

Miss Booth spoke in the evening of "The Great White Throne," and Willie, a bright little 4-year-old, whom Miss Booth adopted when in this city a year ago, sang and exhorted very cleverly.

Musical evening tonight at the Auditorium will conclude the special jubilee services.

Intense Heat Keeps the Crowd From the Heights.

Saturday Night's Fire and Sing-Song a Great Success.

Nearly 2,000 People Present—Rev. Canon Duffin Sermon on the Hill—At the Butts Notes.

Saturday was a hot day at the races, where the Thirty-third, Huron Battalion, had their first practice with the new rifle. The scores made speak well for the battalion, which has some splendid marksmen. It was a hot and dusty march to the butts, and even more trying on the return. The Twenty-ninth and Twenty-ninth put in the day on the field, and the usual number (about 20 during the day) were overcome by the heat and had to fall out of the ranks.

In the evening a mammoth camp fire and "sing-song" was the programme, and this attracted nearly 2,400 people to the grounds. The best evidence of their appreciation was the hearty manner in which each number was received. The audience was seated facing the camp fire, which had been built a short distance off, and as it cast the lurid light upon the smiling faces, the scarlet coats of the ladies' dresses of various colors, the scene was a beautiful one. Col. Stacey's Highlanders—Pipe-Major Skinner and the Twenty-ninth Band—were received with cheers and gladdened the hearts of every son of Scotland in camp. Major Hoger acted in the capacity of "supply officer" and as each artist creditably acquitted himself another artist was provided. The following is the programme:

Chorus...Dunraven Tuxedo Minstrels
Selection...Twenty-eighth Band
Duet...Ptes. Hamacher and Millar
Song...Pte. Schneider
Selection...Twenty-ninth Band
Song...Bugle-Major Holway
Highland Dancing...Twenty-fifth Pipers
Song...Pte. Smith
Violin Solo...Pte. McDonald
Song...Pte. Higgins

THE SUNDAY SERMON. All night the atmosphere was close and oppressive, and when gray dawn on the horizon marked the birth of another Sabbath day, there was every indication, by the cloudless sky, that it would be a "scorching." It was, without a doubt, and this fact none more than the soldier realized. All day yesterday the camp was practically deserted. In the morning a few citizens attended divine service on the hill, but in the afternoon everyone sought rest either in the tents or under the lying maps along the road sides, and only an occasional straggler was seen moving about.

In the morning at 9 o'clock the troops were drawn up on the side of the hill for an often divine service. Rev. Canon Dann, chaplain of the Twenty-sixth Middlesex Light Infantry, conducted the service. The men joined heartily in the singing of the hymns, and the combined bands of the three corps in camp struck up the tunes.

Rev. Canon Duffin, for his text II. Timothy, ii, 3—"A good soldier of Jesus Christ." The speaker first gave a few practical points of the resemblance there was between the soldier and the Christian. Many people would be surprised at such a comparison, because as a rule a soldier did not get a very high name for exceeding righteousness. They were not distinguished for the great profession of religion, and religious people were consequently often very shy about speaking to soldiers in the matter of religion. "I protest, as a religious teacher," he said, "against such an assertion. He had a great deal to do with soldiers all his life, and he had found some of the best men in the army. Not only were they the best men, honest and kind and true, but they were deeply religious. The soldier could be a true servant of the Christian religion. He was not a loud professor of religion. In the other hand, people were surprised that a soldier's life should be likened to a Christian's, because a soldier's life was to fight and protect his country and those nearest and dearest to him; and a Christian's life was to promote harmony, peace and goodwill among his fellow men. While the preservation of peace was the greater part of the Christian's duty, there were times when they were not to stand upon peace—times when every worthy of the name of Christian should come out and fight for God, for Christ, for right, for his country. There was a time when the Christian and of duty to the soldier. "Do you think," he said, "that the cross was placed upon the Union Jack for nothing? It tells you that you are a soldier fighting for the British crown, and also that you are a captain and soldier for the King of Kings, and that great duty is what the cross symbolizes. I can understand the great battle of life. One of the great things a soldier has to learn is discipline. When a whole mass of soldiers were called on a field by a commanding officer, and they moved as one man in response to one word, such a sight has been brought about by obedience, the power that had made the English army so great. They had heard of the wonderful charge at Balaklava, when the noble six Hundred rode into the jaws of death. They knew some one had blundered, but there was no reply, no question given to the order. It was theirs to do and die. The preacher closed with one hope and wish, that all having fought the battle of life, each one might be able to say, when the great muster roll brought forth, and the Great Judge stood up, "I have not been a great hero, and have oftentimes been very careless, cowardly, and very nearly mutinous, and I look back upon my past life to say, 'I have never been a traitor to my Lord and Captain, and to the army of Christ. I did not do all that I ought to have done, but I know that I tried to, and I ask you now, Judge, to accept me for the sake of the great Captain who yielded up his life's blood for me.'"

NOTES. Corp. Miller, R. R. C. I., on Saturday celebrated his wedding, and was the recipient of many presents and hearty congratulations.

A letter has reached the barracks stating that Sergeant Cooper, Sergeant Cranston and Corp. Horner, who represented the school at the jubilee celebration in London, England, will reach home in about ten days. The non-commissioned officers are making preparations to give them a right royal reception.

Pte. Green, of No. 3 Company, Twenty-ninth Battalion, while trick on a bicycle on Saturday, was overcome with the heat. He was taken to the hospital and was soon all right.

The Twenty-eighth and Twenty-ninth went to the butts this morning.

Give Holloway's Corn Cure a trial. It removes ten corns from one foot without any pain. What it has done once it will do again.

CHILDREN'S SHOES...

FOR

50c

See Window.

Johnston's,

198 Dundas St.

There's Comfort In Cotton Dress Goods

They're long wearers and short costers

—are these American Prints—light and dark colors, perfectly fast—dark colors reversible—7c

CREPONS "Crinkled loveliness" is the term that best describes these airy, fairy crepon we