TWO SHUT-OUT CONTESTS
IN CITY LEAGUE OFFERING

Hymans Won an Exciting Game From Orientals by a Close Score of 2 to 0—A. M. C. and First Hussars Continue Winning Streak.

Two shut-out contests and one game which was a trifling one-sided were the offering of the City League before a fair-sized crowd at the Simcoe street rink last evening. In the first game, the A. M. C. continued their efforts in rolling up big scores, and tied the can on the Seventh Regiment by the score of 11 to 0. The First Hussars also continued on their winning streak by winning from the Meds. in the second contest by the score of 9 to 2. The last game was the most exciting of the evening. Hymans, scoring out a victory from the Orientals in the last few minutes of play by the score of 2 to 0.

The ice was hard, but considerably rough in spots, and at times it seemed to affect the playing of the teams. However, the games were all good exhibitions, Sid Rankin officiating, and keeping them free from rough play.

A. M. C. 11, Seventh 0.

The Seventh Regiment was greatly strengthened for the game with the A. M. C. Burdick, in goal; Hawkey, at point, and Brodison, at rover, were all new players to the City League, and they made an impression on their first appearance. However, they were not strong enough to assist the Seventh in warding off defeat at the hands of that scoring machine, the A. M. C. team.

The A. M. C. have been treating all the teams alike so far, and have run up big scores on all of them.

At half-time they were leading by the score of 6 to 0, but eased up in the second period and only managed to run in five goals. The Seventh had very few shots on the A. M. C. goal, and these were easily taken care of by Hally Watts.

McKay, McGeech and Linkin were the stars of the winners, while Brodison, Hawkey and Higgins featured for the Seventh.

The teams were:

A. M. C.—Watts, goal; Bryce, point; Chantler, rover; Buchanan, rover; McKay, centre; Linkin, right; McGeech, left.

HUSSARS 9, MEDS 2.

The First Hussars outclassed the Meds in a somewhat listless exhibition by the score of 9 to 2 in the second round of the evening's program. The Meds were strengthened with Hill and Fetterley, both of whom played nice games. However, the Hussars had the combination working overtime, and the kept Callahan busy. The half-time score was 4 to 1 in favor of the ultimate winners. The game was played with six men aside nearly all through. Fetterley and Hill, who were on the ice for the rest of the game, as a result of an exhibition of hugging. Referee Rankin was taking no chances in having any ill-feeling exist between the players, so he "canined" these exponents of the fine art, and the game continued with the results of the Ontario rinks.

Denver, Col., Jan. 22.—Oscar Battling Nelson, one of the most famous champions of the world, and Miss Fay King, a Denver newspaper artist, will be married on Thursday at Hedgesville, Ind. They left Denver today for the east.

"Sure," said Bat, just before leaving, "we go into the ring for the marriage bells at 12 minutes before 1 o'clock on the 23rd of the month, and with that bunch of hoodlums we are bound to have all the luck."

"I am the luckiest guy in the world," was the way Bat expressed himself last night. "This business of getting married is better than winning back the title."

From Hedgesville, Bat's home, the pair will return to Denver, where they say they will make their home.
