Recruiting for the Cuban expedition, it is said, has ceased in this city, Colonel Gibbons having already enrolled 6500, which is 1500 more than he wants. He allows that the command is to devolve upon a wealthy Habanez Fainace, a military leader under Don Carles and Maximilian, who so far has furnished all the funds necessary. The intention is to annex Cuba to the United States. A public meeting is to be held in the Cooper Institute.

Two Men BLINDED BY IN EXPLOSION-Two Man Binder by An Expression—
Nine Days Wirmort Food. The Wabasha
(Minn.) Herald of Aug 20, says:—By a letter from Mr. Harris, formerly of this place, we learn the particulars of a remarkable case of 192 acres, in a high state of cultivation, and surrounded by a substantial stone wall. The farm is known to the neighbors as the Wabasha Gold and Silver Mining Company to drive a drift on Pine Island, where this Company has a way tich yain. They work Company has a very rich vein. They worked on the island alone, the principal operations of the miners being on the main land. One day they fired the fuse to a big blast, and after waiting a long time, found that the liquid fuse had become extinguished, and at once set themselves to work to drill out the blast, using water freely. Mr Norman was an old and experienced miner and feared no mishaps, taking, as he thought, sufficient pains to prevent an explosion; but, by some means, in some strange manner, the blast was lighted while they were at work. Two fingers were torn from one of Norman's hands and the drill driven through the wrist of the other arm, and both men were blinded of the other arm, and both men were blinded by the explosion. Nine days after this a party went over to the island from the main-land, and finding blood around the spot where the ill-fated men had been at work, they be-same alarmed, searched vigorously, and finally found them. They had been without food since the accident; Norman's hand and wrist were alive with maggots, and in the wrist were alive with maggots, and in the eyes of both of these terribly smitten men is Queen's Printer of the Dominion, and in these loathsome crawling things were so embedded, that they had to be pulled out with pincers. The utmost kindness and care in the power of the miners was bestowed on the wounded men, and Norman was sent the wounded men, and Norman was sent the delegate from New Westdown to Superior for treatment, while Peterson remained in camp. Loss of blood saved the men from the cravings of a terrible appetite, while both must have been possessed of iron constitutions to have enabled them to survive those tersible nine days.

Editorial Correspondence—No 27. BROCKVILLE, ONTARIO, Sept 8, 1868. I arrived at this pleasant little Canadian town last evening, via the Grand Trunk Railway, from Hamilton, and was much leased to find here the Hon A N Richards and Mr Henry Griffin. The first named gentleman paid Victoria a flying visit in January last, and though not a British Columbian in fact, is, I can assure you, one in spirit, and expresses himself so highly gratified with what he saw and heard while there that he has serious intentions of removing with his interesting family thither early next Spring. Men of Mr Richards' stamp have always met with a cordial welcome at the hands of our colonists, especially when they furnished such positive proof of an intention to settle among us as he proposes. Mr Griffin is an old Caribooite and an ardent British Columbian, notwithstanding he left the country poorer in ourse than when he entered it. He looks forward with a pleasurable feeling of anticipation to the day when he, too, shall join the returning stream of immigration which must ere long set in towards our shores, and unite his future 'for better or for worse' (as some of the marriage ceremonies have it) with his old associates. How favorably do the expressions of this gentleman contrast with those of some of the men I met with at San Francisco, who owed their start in life to the partial success which had attended them in British Columbia. One person who, it was notorious, brought only a few soiled shirts into the Colony and took out several thousand dollars, was industriously lengaged d-ning the Colony on street-corners and at hotel doors. Another creature who came with nothing, made a small fortune and squandered it in drinking and gaming and 'strutting his brief hour' on Government street, while his betters were at work laying a solid foundation for future prosperity, was loud in his denunciation of the way he had been swindled out of his money up there. A third ran away, leaving $10,000 of indebtedness behind him, and I found him on change gambling in stocks, and prophecying the speedy downfall of British power on the Pacific. And still a fourth, who crushed in Jounty, 242; Union 307; Umatilla, 198; the face of a fellow-succest, the face of a fellow-succes organization, impatiently awaiting the day when he may return and revenge himself upon his persecutors. Of such, as a rule, are the detractors and villiflers of our Colony composed. Some of the very men who owe Army, the Provisional Government will dispatch 9000 soldiers, with authority to suppress the insurrection in Cuba.

London, Nov 8—Dispatches from Italy report that the Papal army continues to be described by described. Some of the very men who owe it most are loudest in their complaints; while those who, like Mr Griffin, have been pecuniary losers through their connection with it, are generally willing to concede that their ill-luck was attributable to causes in-CORK, Nov. 10—A great popular demonstrafineral of James Mountain, supposed to have again to occur in British Columbia.

Among the fortunate Caribooites who acknowledge with satisfaction their deep obligations to the country, I may mention Mr J. A. Cameron and Mr James Watty, both of whom acquired competencies on William the village of Camerontown, Cariboo, takes its name; and Mr Watty was the principal owner in the rich Watty claim in the same locality. Mr Cameron has returned to the home of his childhood, purchased the old the famed St. Lawrence River, about 9 miles east of Cornwall, and commands a fine view and his amiable and accomplished wife are unbounded, and his popularity in the neighbourhood is deservedly great. Mr Watty has a large woollen mill at a place called Valley field, lower down the river, in successful

At Ottawa I saw Mr Fred. Toller, for merly connected with the Bank of British Columbia, at Victoria, Mr Toller is now in the employ of the Bank of British North America, but looks confidently forward to a day (which all his friends will hope is not far distant) when he may return to our Island and settle down among us. Mr Malcolm Cameron is also at Ottawa. He minster to Downing street, in 1862. The honorable gentleman is now a cripple, he having been run over by a runaway horse about a year ago, sustaining a fracture of one of his legs. Otherwise his bodily health is good and his flesh increasing so rapidly as to seriously threaten Daniel Lambert's repu tation as the most obese Briton that ever

But the flood of recollection which the night of so many faces once familiar to British Columbian scenes produced has nearly driven from my mind the town in which I am at present sojourning. Brockville contains about 5000 inhabitants, Its buildings are generally of granite, and many of them are fine structures. The Court-house, Markets and Churches are worthy the inspection of travelers. A railroad extends from Brock ville to the lumber and iron districts of Ottawa, and large quantities of both products are transported by rail to this point for shipment. Brockville is at the foot of the picturesque locality, knewn as the Thousand Isles, which stud the St. Lawrence for many miles, and which form objects of interest and admiration to tourists from every part of the
