in the Todd Case Does Not War-There will be no criminal proceed-ngs taken against the Street Railway officers on account of the Todd tragedy. Crown Attorney Curry has gone through the evidence carefully and finds that there is nothing which would warrant him taking action. There is nothing to show that the officers were aware that the fender was defective and that they knew that the accident could happen in the way he did, he said.

Gulf Trips. So popular are the routes of the uebec S.S. Company that both the gular and special cruises have this ar been well patronized. The Sun Loan Company Dispute. At the Police Court yesterday George and John Ashworth, Burgoyne Burdon, Forster McMichael and Henry Smith of the Sun Savings & Loan Company were committed for trial for trespassing upon the premises of the Loan Company in the Confederation Life building on Aug. 6. The defendants were released on their own ball in $100 each to appear.

Mrs. Celeste Coon, Syracuse, N.Y., writes: "For years I could not eat many kinds of food without producing a burning, excruciating pain in my stomach. I took Parmelee's Pills, according to directions under the head of 'Dyspepsia or Indigestion.' One box entirely cured me. I can now eat anything I choose, without distressing me in the least." These pills do not cause pain or griping, and should be used when a cathartic is required.

Seventy Nihilists Jailed at Odessa. Seventy Nihilists Jailed at Odessa.

Berlin, Aug. 18.—A despatch received here from Odessa states that 70 alleged Nihilists were arrested in a restaurant in that city last night. After the police had raided the place, the keeper of the restaurant committed suicide. Thousands of leaflets advocating the Nihilist doctrine and a hand press were seized. Many arrests have been made of persons residing in the suburbs of Odessa on suspicion of being concerned with the plots of the Nihilists taken into custody at the restaurant.

The trial of the young men charge Goldsmiths' Stock Company was re Goldsmiths' Stock Company was fesumed in the Police Court yesterday. During the examination of Fred Koots, one of the alleged thieves, Richard Wiley, an employe of the company, swore that he bought some of the stolen goods from Root at greatly reduced prices. Gerrard Fudger, who is held for complicity in the thefts, entered the witness box and swore he gave four or five watches and several diamond rings to Roots. Fudger swore that Roots knew that the articles were stolen and that he bought them from him at a reduced prsce. Arthur Muntz stolen and that he bought them from him at a reduced prsce. Arthur Muntz swore he bought a purchased ring from Roots at $25. A.G. Dalrymple of Buffalo swore Roots sold him $1500 worth of goods. Dalrymple testified that he sold the watches to various theatrical and circus men. A "tatooed man" got one and "the trainer of the baby elephant" another. Roots was committed for trial upon one charge of receiving stolen goods.

Francis Worster and Frank Cable Francis Worster and Frank Cable were also committed for trial, although the case against the former was pronounced by the Magistrate as being very weak. Young Fudger swore he sold goods to both these men. All the equivalent he got from Cable, he claimed, was a bogus cheque.
