A Livingstone celebration was held in the Methodist Sunday School, Warwick village, on Sunday, March 16th. The pastor, Rev. H. P. Kennedy, gave an interesting talk on Livingstone's life and work in Africa, and also had on exhibition a typical African kraal in miniature form showing hut, native boy and girl, hammock, implements, idols, etc., illustrating the manners and customs of the savages as David Livingstone found them.

A largely attended mass meeting of the Warwick churches was held in Knox Presbyterian church, two miles east of Warwick village, on Wednesday evening, March 19th. The meeting was held under the auspices of the local Laymen's Missionary Association for the purpose of commemorating the one hundredth anniversary of the birth of David Livingstone, that great and heroic pioneer missionary and explorer of central and western Africa. The two invited speakers of the evening were Mr. H. J. Pettypiece of Forest, and Rev. R. J. Bowen of London. Both addresses were very instructive and interesting, and delivered in a masterly manner and were highly applauded by the audience. Mr. Pettypiece gave a very interesting and glowing account of the life and work of that great missionary hero, while Rev. Mr. Bowen spoke more particularly on the influence of Livingstone's work upon the great missionary enterprise. The meeting was presided over by Rev. H. F. Kennedy, Warwick. Several churches were well represented not only by the laymen but also by the clergymen, including Revs. Forster, Shore, Kennedy and Stevenson. The churches and community at large cannot help being greatly benefited by such a meeting.
