ALBANY

The picnic held on Wednesday p. m. was an enjoyable occasion. The beautiful church grove presented an attractive appearance, with a very long table in the centre, draped in white, decorated with lovely flowers and laden with everything to tempt the appetite. In the rear was an ice-cream booth enclosed with green boughs interwoven with wire netting. Swinging and running races for prizes were the sports of the afternoon. A large number were present, representing nearly every family in Albany, nearly all of whom remained to the evening meeting at which Rev. M. B. Whitman, of Margareville, gave an earnest address. The music was well rendered, some of the pieces sung by a quartette being "The Little White Church on the Hill". Meeting again on Thursday evening at which the home Pastor, Rev. A. H. Whitman, presided. Several stood at the close for prayer. Much of the success of the whole was due to Mr. Clyde Whitman who was untiring in his efforts to prepare everything necessary for the occasion.

The old home week in Albany was a success, beginning with an old-fashioned conference meeting, where some were present who could go back nearly seventy years, telling of the old home church, when Samuel Tutts, Henry Parker, the first David Whitman, and Ezekiel Foster's family met together for worship.

FORMER BRIDGETOWN GIRL WINS CHAMPIONSHIP IN TENNIS

Mrs. Ethel Kinney Eddy, of Fargo, N. Dakota, was the winner in Ladies Singles at the State Tournament recently staged in that city. Mrs. Eddy finished in the finals by taking from her opponent, Miss Doris Lovell, two straight sets 6-1, 6-4, and Mrs. Eddy had to compete with a large field of strong players, most of whom were college girls, and some of the events produced as good tennis as ever witnessed at the State Tournament. It was Mrs. Eddy's hard smashes and lawford return that finally brought her through a victor.

In addition to being State Tennis Champion this year, Mrs. Eddy was joint runner up in the State women's doubles with Miss Doris Lovell, two children and Robert Muir in the State mixed doubles.

Mrs. Eddy came to Fargo last year a few weeks before the city tournament and at that time entered the events and walked away with everything in sight. This year she entered the open singles of the peg tournament and at the close stood 15th among a field of seventy-five men players. It is against men players that she is really at her best.

Mrs. Eddy is now twenty-nine years old, is shown above with her four children who are keenly interested with her playing and her success.

(Mrs. Eddy is a daughter of Mrs. Watson A. Kinsey, and a sister of Mrs. Fred R. Fay and Mrs. Henry B. Hicks of this town).

Mine Workers Show Splendid Spirit.

The Ministerial Alliance, Glace Bay, wishes to bear testimony to the splendid spirit shown by the men in the present crisis. No acts of violence are recorded, no intemperance is seen; everything is as orderly as it is possible to be. We regret that so many statements have gone out from Glace Bay reporting violence and disorder, and thus seriously misrepresenting actual conditions. We wish to commend the town authorities and especially the United Mine Workers for their promptness in preventing liquor. The use of liquor would unquestionably precipitate danger and riot, and it is a matter of great satisfaction that its use has been so stringently prevented.

We also urgently pray that a satisfactory settlement may soon come and pledge ourselves to do all in our power to facilitate measures for peace. The Ministerial Alliance reaffirms its decision that the men of our community are worthy of a living wage and that the coal industry should provide it.

BRIDGETOWN CENTENNIAL SUNDAY

Large Congregations From Canon Troop and Rev. E. D.

As suggested in our editorial last week, it was eminently fitting that the Bridgetown Centennial Celebration Committee should at the beginning of their program services in the churches, and it further fitting that the first service of the day should be held in James' Church (Anglican) to commemorate Capt. John Crosskill founder of the town, beloved of the Holy Communion at 8 a.m.

Capt. Crosskill was a member of the Church of England and gave ground on which the present stands, and although he died in the first church was completed in the "twelfth Sunday after Trinity" (for such was last Sunday) the same service was used in his name.

The second service in this city was at 7.30 p.m. for which the service was crowded. This was directed by the Rector (the Rev. E. Woodwood) and opened with a grand hymn—"O God our Heavenly Father," to Crofts' stately "St. Anne", in which the congregation joined very heartily. Then followed the evening service which has come down through the centuries and is by heart, even as many of those who have been constant users. The Canticles, "Silent", and "Nunc Dimittis" to Anthem settings by the Rev. Foster.

The second hymn—"Lord, us With Thy Favor," by Canon was very appropriate, especially es 4 and 5—

"For the memories we treasure That to this our Home belong, Hours of sweet and high communion Matins Prayers and Evensong; For the lessons Thou hast taught Taught by joy and taught by sorrow, for all Thy countless blessings We uplift our festal strain."

Thankfully our hearts remember Whom our eyes no longer see, Knowing, though the veil of death,

They with us are one in Thy Father's love, for One our Father—One our Church, and one our God, They who worshipped here before—One with us their latest seed."

In keeping with this was the funeral memorial prayer which was shortly after:

"Almighty God, with whom the Spirits of just men made after they are delivered from earthly prisons, we give Thee for all those who have departed in place and with the seal. Especially do we commemorate Capt. John Crosskill at who during the past hundred years have worshipped in this place were laid to rest in hope of resurrection, beseeching Thee unto them rest and refresh the place of light and life, as us who survive so to order by Thy Holy and Heavenly Father in the end we may attain to Thy Everlasting through Jesus Christ our Lord. The hymn before the service was the "Hills", sung to Purday's time "Sandon".

The special preacher for occasion was the Rev. Canon G. Troop, who, as our readers are an old Bridgetown boy, here until he was seventeen years of age. We leave them, then were unable to be present) the profound impression and appropriateness of the (Jesus) came to Nazareth. He had been brought; as tere, as His custom was, some on the Sabbath day, up to read; Luke 4 and 16.

It would be impossible in at our disposal to do just remarkable sermon which but we must mention of points: For instance, the quoted Bishop Brent's re that in the days of His flesh Jesus Christ was a Layman an example then to laymen
