TONIC TREATMENT FOR INDIGESTION

The Surest Way to Relieve Stomach Trouble is Through Dr. Williams' Pink Pills.

When the stomach is feeble and food lies in it undigested, the poisonous gases distend the walls of the stomach and cause serious interference with the action of the heart and lungs. These poisonous gases have other ill effects. They are absorbed by the blood and so weaken and corrupt it as to cause aches in remote parts of the body and the formation of unhealthy tissues everywhere. Experience shows that these troubles vanish just as soon as the stomach is made strong enough to digest the food. In other words, it needs a tonic that will enable it to do the work of changing the food into nourishment. The tonic used ought to be one that will agree with the most delicate stomach and this is exactly what Dr. Williams' Pink Pills do.

Here is a bit of convincing proof given by Mrs. Chas. Ladner, Ellerslie, P. E. I., who says: "For some years I was a sufferer from stomach trouble. Everything I ate caused distress. My stomach, and belching, I did not eat meat or potatoes, and I was weak and very nervous. No medicine seemed to help me until I was persuaded to take Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, and these simply worked wonders. I took the pills faithfully for a couple of months, by which time every symptom of the trouble had disappeared, and there has not since been the slightest symptom of stomach trouble. No wonder I praise Dr. Williams' Pink Pills."

You can get these Pills from any medicine dealer, or by mail at 50 cents a box from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

WEDDING

Ross—Atlee

Annapolis Royal.—One of the most beautiful weddings ever celebrated in Annapolis Royal was solemnized at St. George's United Church Thursday afternoon last at four o'clock, when Miss Olive Velzina Atlee, B.A., youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Atlee, was united to George W. W. Ross, youngest son of the Rev. and Mrs. James Ross, of Halifax.

The ceremony was performed by the Rev. M. H. Macintosh. The church was a mass of floral blossoms with arch and wedding bell at the altar. Preceding the ceremony, Mrs. Robert Hardwick at the organ, the well known Nova Scotia ballad, Earle Spicer, of Berwick, sang "Because."

At the sound of the wedding march the bride came down the aisle on the arm of her father, who gave her in marriage. She was attired in a beautiful bridal gown, especially designed, a creation of ivory satin trimmed with duchess lace, with long lace sleeves. The long court train lined with flesh colored georgette, clusters of orange blossoms, held the bridal veil of tulle with lace coronet. She carried a shower bouquet of pink tea roses and lilies-of-the-valley.

Miss Sue Atlee, M.A., sister of the bride, was maid of honor. Miss Ruth McPhail, B.A., of Toronto, and Miss Constance Wilson, B.A., of New-castle, N. B., were bridesmaids. These three attendants were all gowned alike in white brocaded tulle with tiny clusters of flowers, made in bouffant style, all wearing large flame colored hats trimmed with draper velvet and carrying short bouquets of flame colored gladiolus.

At the altar the bride was met by the bridegroom, and his best man, William Ross, of St. John, brother of the groom. Preceding the bride and her father were the two ushers, Samuel Pickup, of Granville Ferry and David MacKeen, of Halifax.

The reception immediately followed the ceremony, took place at the home of the bride, where the same scheme of floral decorations was used as at the church, rose and white.

Mr. and Mrs. Ross left by motor for Kentville where they will spend a few days before going to Boston. They will reside in St. John's, Nfld. The bride's travelling dress was of brown crepe morocain with brown Kashy coat and beaver collar, her hat of embroidered dusty, made in the latest style.

There was a wealth of wedding gifts, among others a gold silver tea service from the groom's family.

Those present at the ceremony aside from the town guests, were: Rev. Mr. and Mrs. James Ross, Miss Mary Ross, and Donald Ross, Dr. and Mrs. H. B. Atlee, and Mrs. T. H. Williams, of Halifax; Misses Alice and Browne Wickwire, Kentville; Miss Katherine Foster, Antigonish; Mrs. R. P. Dixon and Miss Katherine Dixon, Moncton; Mr. and Mrs. Robert J. Rankine, Halifax; Dr. and Mrs. Goodwin, Miss Grace Goodwin, and Mr. and Mrs. Woodman, of Boston; E. Hallett, of Halifax, and T. E. G. Lynch, Digby.

All the members of the bridal party were graduates of Dalhousie University. Mrs. Ross was a member of the debating team of "Dal" last year. The groom was a veteran of the late war, having served with the artillery overseas.
