

tion on the military highway of Central Europe. Its principal interest to most tourists is the old Augustinian Convent, which was for several years the home of the intrepid Reformer, Martin

CASTLE OF HOHEN-SCHWANGAU—SUMMER RESIDENCE OF THE KING OF BAVARIA.

Luther. The Convent is now used as an asylum for orphans. The University where he studied was suppressed in 1816. The convent cell in which Brother Martin studied and prayed was long