Do not then, be ashamed of learning a little wisdom from Poor Jim Dick. Like him give soft words for hard words, and return kind deeds for evil deeds, and you will find yourself all the happier; but if you give way to an angry temper it will be like a burning fire in your bosom.

HINTS TO FARMER'S BOYS.

There is one thing I would like to impress upon the minds of the farmers of this country. To all you that have boys that can write, get each one a memorandum book; a few sheets of paper will do, if nothing better can be had; and in that have each one keep an account of every day's work done in the year, the kind of work employed in, and the day of the month and the date of the year. If in sowing, mention the kind of grain, and the amount of seed per acre, the time of planting, and of reaping. In fact, I should have them note all the passing events of the farm; and as they grow older they will find more of importance to note. Six cents will buy a book that will last one year, to commence with. My word for it, if the farmers will adopt this course, their sons will be much better farmers than their fathers. It may seem dry business to commence with the first of January; but as the spring opens, the green grass appears, and bright prospects are in our paths, and the tasks will be more pleasing every day until the close of the year. Who would not give twice what the paper and ink cost, could they but obtain a memorandum book written by a grandfather a hundred years ago? Try it, farmers, young and old; keep a journal of every day, and you will become a race of scientific book-farmers, not to be imposed upon.—A farmer.
