

12 YEARS A CATHOLIC PRIEST.
IN THE PRESS, AND SHORTLY WILL BE PUBLISHED,

FOR THE BENEFIT OF HIS WIDOW,
THE AUTOBIOGRAPHY OF THE
REV. V. P. MAYERHÖFFER, M. A.

The first part of the work will contain the history of his life and adventures as a Franciscan Friar and Military Chaplain during the wars of Napoleon. The second part of it is an account of the reasons which induced him to leave the Church of Rome. The Book will contain nearly 400 pages, (12 mo.) printed on plain type, and bound in cloth, with a portrait of the author.

Parties wishing to secure an early copy of the work can do so by remitting $1.00 to Mrs. Mayerhoffer, Box 640, P. O. Toronto, C. W., when the book will be sent free by post to any part of Upper or Lower Canada.

CONTENTS OF PART I.

CHAPTER I.

My parentage, education, and apprenticeship, in the town of Papa—Ill treatment by my fellow apprentices—I attempt to enlist—Am imprisoned amongst the common felons—Released by my uncle—Flight to Baja—Employed by a baker—Meet one of my former tutors—Am reinstated in the schools—Visit my mother—Unkind reception—Description of the city of Tata—Attempt to enter the order of St. Francis—Am sent to Bats—nearly terrified to death at Nemes Miletich—Deception of the Slavonites.

CHAPTER II.

Battle of Mohacs—Finish my Theological studies—Am ordained by the Archbishop of Colocza, and the Bishop of Alba Julia—Description of the seven orders conferred on the Priests of the Church of Rome—Appointed curate to my uncle in the city of Neoplanta—Preach and sing mass before my mother at Tata—Transferred to the curacy of Priglivitz, Szentivany—An immoral rector, and unjust sentence—A woman given 100 lashes—A murderer protected from justice, by the Church of Rome—Procure a Latin bible—First dawn of light—Appointed military chaplain at Peterwardein, and finally regimental chaplain to the 60th, commanded by Ignatz Count Gyulay—Journey to Austrian Poland—Intemperate and filthy habits of the Poles—War between France and Russia—March with the French army to Russia—Retreat from Moscow—Mediation of the Austrian Emperor refused by Napoleon—Alliance between Austria, Russia, and Prussia—March through Silesia to Bohemia—Stockings nine feet long—A watchmaker puts out his apprentice's eyes—Battle of Jena—Retreat from Dresden—Taken prisoner by the French—Singular dream of Napoleon—The nun's prophecy to Josephine—Napoleon's visit to her, and her prediction to him—Defeat of Wandam at Culm by Prince Schwartzenberg.

CHAPTER III.

March towards France—Birthplace of Prince Albert—Relics of Luther at Eisleben—Fall sick—Arrival at Mayence—Meet a fellow-countryman—Battle of Leipzig—Defeat of Napoleon at Frankfurt by Wreden—Napoleon escapes, disguised as a waggoner—Pestilence in Mayence—Escape to Oppenheim—Secreted in the belly of a church—Departure of the French—The Maire dies of fright—Am elected Maire of Oppenheim—Arrival of the Russians—Go to Mannheim—Rejoin my regiment—enthusiastic reception—Handsome conduct of the Austrian Government—March to Paris—Napoleon arms 100,000 citizens—Capture of Paris by the allies—Rage of Napoleon—

General Bubna challenges him—Abdication of Napoleon—Louis XVIII takes possession of the throne—March to Italy—Turin—A pleasant adventure—Kindness of Colonel Csarnotzay—Enter Switzerland—Norbertine monks of Mount St. Bernard—Description of Switzerland—Quartered at Bergamo—Napoleon lands at Cannes—Treachery of Ney—March to Bologna—Body of St. Catherine preserved from decay for 340 years—Imola—Piacenza—Pavia—Description of splendid monastery of Carthusian monks—Sacrilege of Napoleon—Altar of sea horse teeth—Cathedral at Milan—March towards Paris—Capture of a French fort—Dogs blowing the bellows—Waterloo—Review of 60,000 men before the allied sovereigns—Peace proclaimed—Visit the old rector at Oppenheim—Return to my regiment at Mohsheim.

CHAPTER IV.

Resign my chaplaincy—Appointed to the parish of Klingenmunster—Duke of Wellington—Write to bishop of Philadelphia—Sail from Amsterdam—Vicar General DeBarth—Jesuits—Their possessions at Canewago—Fathers: Britt and Lekue—Invitation to join the society of Jesus—Infamous character of Lekue—Rings and Hydrophobia—Superstitious merchant—Seduction of a young Irish lady—Agnus Dei—DeBarth—His character—A middle aged woman, and Susan—DeBarth and Lekue delude the people out of $5,000—Attempts to get rid of me—Forbidden to preach—Disturbance in the Church—Mr. Huber—An intercepted letter—A plot brought to light—Chapchwardens called in—Lekue very angry—Lekue's attempt to poison me—Remove to Mr. Shorb's—De Barth cheats an old lady out of $600—Go to the parsonage—Interview with DeBarth—Jesuitical duplicity—I become angry—Threaten to break DeBarth's head—Perform my duties as usual—Interview with the three priests—Refusal of testimonials—Mr. Huber and I leave the Church of Rome—Open a drug store—Bishop of Maryland approves of DeBarth's conduct—I marry—Attempts of the priests to get me back—Interfere with my wife—Study the Scriptures—Join German Reformed Church—Begin English—Become acquainted with Episcopal clergymen at Buffalo—Write to Bishop of Quebec—Examined at Toronto—Received into Church of England—Appointed to Vaughan and Markham—Rebellion in 1837—Godlieb Eckhardt—Locked out of my church—Go to Toronto—Consult the Attorney General—Break open the Church—Threatened to be shot—Church nailed up—Orangemen from Brown's corners drive away the rebel guard, and open the Church—Law suit—Imperfect title—Lose the Church—Build one in Vaughan—Two more in Markham—Declining health—Superannuation—Remove to Toronto—Go to Perrytown—Build another church—Generous conduct of the congregation—Dangerous illness—Forbidden to preach—Retire to Whitty—Editor's note.

CONTENTS OF PART II.

CHAPTER I.

Neglect of the Bible—Franciscan order in Austria—Begging Friars—Vow of Poverty—How kept—Chastity—Paul III—The chest in the wall—St. Petronella—Priest at Bologna—Five young ladies—Obedience—The Jesuits—100,000 Orangemen—Suppression of Jesuits by Emperor Joseph Count Kaunitz and "the prater"—A rich lady—An honest Jesuit—An empty coffin—A regiment of Cuirassiers—Priest of Oshawa.

CHAPTER II.

Faith—The church—Traditions—Relics—Iniquity established by law—Head of the church—First Pope—Desecration of the Sabbath.

CHAPTER III.

Soetus—Bellarmine—Cardinal Cajetan—Fisher

Justin Martyr—Irenaeus—Tertullian—Origen—Cyprian—Agustine—Pope Gelasius—Erasmus—Lateran Council.

CHAPTER IV.

Sale of Masses—Douay Catechism—Hungarian Catechism—Council of Trent—Adventure in Whitty—Sacrifice of Christ—High and low mass—St. Bernard—Vestments—When worn—Procession at Milan—Directions for mass.

CHAPTER V.

Last mention of Mary—Rheinish doctors—St. Anne—Doctors of the Sorbonne—St. Anselm—Garden of the soul—Dr. Challoner—"Ave Maris Stella"—McCulloch—St. Bridget—Crasset's miracle—A man three days under water—Prayers to the virgin—80,000,000 per diem from Great Britain—Misapplication of title of saint—Distribution of saints—A black virgin and child.

CHAPTER VI.

Celibacy not of God—St. Paul—Marriage no hindrance to ministerial duty—St. Peter a married man—Early fathers of the church married men.

CHAPTER VII.

Decree of the Council of Trent—Sin against the Holy Ghost—Scripture authorities—A cardinal's joke—Archdeacon of Toronto—Ceremony at St. Michael's—Translation of souls in Dublin—Black velvet and crabs—Tract circulated in Tuscany—Apocryphal books—Questions for the Priest.

CHAPTER VIII.

Romish Catechism—Satisfaction of divine justice—Merits of saints—Bull of Urban VIII—Its effects—Dupin—Tax of apostolic chancery—Wesselus—A man flogged in the confessional at Thornhill—Popery—"Semper eadem."

CHAPTER IX.

Arrogance of the church—Substitution of the Breviary—Constantine the Great—Introduction of heathen rites—Suppression of the Bible—Wycliffe—Luther—Bull of Leo X—Opening of St. Michael's, Toronto—Council of Trent—An Irish gentleman.

CHAPTER X.

Use of the word church—A visible church—Immaculate conception—Disputes—Greek church—Unity—Church of England—Infallibility of the Pope—Bishop Hay—Jesuits and Jansenists—Sanctity—Profligate priests—Covetous bishop and cardinals—History of the Popes—Dr. Claget—Apostolicity—Primitive churches.

CHAPTER XI.

Penance—Duty of confession—Venial and mortal sins—Lifting a finger—Scripture authorities.

CHAPTER XII.

A written law—False arguments—The patriarchs—Meaning of traditions, and their origin and design.

CHAPTER XIII.

Worship of saints in the Church of Rome—Voluntary humility—St. Thomas a Becket—His shrine—Death and funeral of the Virgin Mary—Her assumption—The Virgin and St. Dominic—Alanus Redivivus—Hautin angelus custos—Insults to the memory of Mary.

CHAPTER XIV.

Romulus—Popes enriching the calendar—False translation of St. James—Canonization of Andrew Avelino.

CHAPTER XV.

Doctrines of Luther—Antichrist—Luther on Galatians—False notions of God—My troubles in the monastery—Peace of mind.

CHAPTER XVI.

Doctrine of the Council of Trent—Catechism—The dying christian—Power of Satan—The church of Rome a destroyer of souls—Destruction of the man of sin—Glory of the true church.

APPENDIX.

Brief memoir of the author's last days—Confidence—Account of the author's funeral

H. ROWSELL, Public