

THE OWL.

Vol. V.

OTTAWA UNIVERSITY, CHRISTMAS, 1891.

No. 5

Wrapped in resplendent robes of white,
Laden with peace and joy and mirth,
Young in her pristine loveliness,
Messenger of good cheer to earth,
Chanting anew the Saviour's Birth,
Down from the heav'n's sublimest height,
Down thro' December's starry night
Comes glorious, glalsome Christmas!
