

OUR GRADUATES

REV. J. Morrison has resigned the pastorate of the congregation at Danville, Quebec.

We are pleased to learn that Rev. A. Lee, B. A., of Sherbrooke, has recovered from his illness, and is at work again.

Rev. S. J. Taylor, B. A., has been inducted into the charge at Moosejaw, N. W. T., where he has been laboring as an ordained missionary since '81.

Rev. D. McRae, of Victoria, whose interesting "History of the Presbyterian Church in British Columbia" appears in this number of the JOURNAL, is busy at work once more after his six months furlough in the East.

The Windsor Tribune of November 8th, contains a report of a sermon by Rev. T. A. Nelson, in which he discusses Infidelity's Epitaph—"They are dead which sought the young child's life." Mr. Nelson deals with the enemies of our religion in a fearless and able manner.

Mr. D. Campbell, who labored during the summer at Manitou, Man., was inducted at Pinkerton, Ont., on November 5th. The call was signed by one hundred and seventy-seven members and eighty-one adherents. The congregation gave Mr. Campbell a very hearty welcome.

A unanimous call from the congregations at Strabane and Kilbride, has been extended to Rev. D. G. Cameron of Dungannon, Ont. Mr. Cameron has labored at Dungannon for five years, and has done good work in the face of many difficulties.

On the eve of his departure for Waverly, N.Y., Rev. P. R. Ross, of Ingersoll, Ont., was presented by his friends with a valuable gold watch and chain. Mr. Ross's plea for leaving was that a way might be opened for a union between the two Presbyterian congregations of the town, Mr. H. C. Ross having likewise resigned the pastorate of the other to take a charge in Uncle Sam's dominions. A basis of union is now being considered.

A French Protestant college was opened in September last at Springfield, Mass., under the presidency of Rev. C. E. Amaron, formerly of Lowell,
