

appointed, without special permission of the Exhibition Committee or superintendents.

21. Any person who shall attempt to interfere with the Judges while in the discharge of their duties, or who shall attempt to influence their decisions by their presence or remarks, or who afterwards, within the limits of the show grounds, shall use any contemptuous or abusive language in consequence of any award made, shall forfeit his right to any premiums to which he might otherwise be entitled, and be otherwise dealt with as the Committee may determine.

22. Any exhibitor who may feel aggrieved in consequence of any irregularity, is requested to draw the attention of the Committee of that department to the matter, without entering into any discussion to cause hindrance or distraction. Should he not receive what he may consider sufficient redress on the spot, he must, nevertheless, abide by the decision given, but he may, at the close of the Exhibition, bring the matter before the General Committee by written statements with a view to full enquiry.

23. No animal can be admitted within the enclosure that has not been previously entered in accordance with regulations 6 and 7, and animals of an inferior character only by permission of the General Committee.

24. Space will be provided for any article that may be forwarded for exhibition, subject to approval of Committee, apart from such as are mentioned in the Prize List. Awards of merit will be given by the Committee for such, all which exhibits must be entered in the Secretary's books in the manner prescribed for those within the Prize List.

25. Exhibitors must supply themselves with proper fastenings for safely securing the animals in their stalls. All bulls (not under a year old) must have nose rings.

FAIR DAY.

26. Thursday, the 10th., will be a general Fair, under the control and management of the Committee. As on the two previous days, the admission at the gate will be at the same rate and on the same conditions.

All animals and articles intended for sale on this day will be admitted free, but must occupy the positions assigned them by the Committee, the owners giving all necessary care and attention, and running all risks. All persons will be at liberty to make private sales at all hours of the day, but auction sales shall be confined to the appointed auctioneer at the stand fixed for that purpose. To facilitate business, selling at auction will commence promptly at 1 o'clock, p. m. The auctioneer to sell and collect all bills at two and one-half per cent.

Every person intending to sell at the Fair is requested to forward to our Secretary, Henry Lovett, Esq., at Kentville, before the 31st day of August, 1878, a statement of what he intends to offer for sale, so that public notice may be given of the same by posters and otherwise.

The Committee will use every effort to make the Fair convenient and profitable, and hope that the people of the County will strive to make it a success.

PRIZE LIST, 1878.

Class 1—Horses.

1. In awarding the Prizes for Stallions, the Judges are requested to take into account the soundness and progeny, as well as the size and build of the animals.

2. A preference shall be given to such Brood Mares as shall have the best exhibit of their stock on the grounds.

3. The best Saddle Horse is the one that carries his rider most easily, is the best trained, and sound and well made, and must be exhibited with saddle on the course, and to be ridden by Judges.

4. Draft Horses must be tested as to their drawing powers and training, and no horse shall be allowed to take the draft horse prize that refuses to work, but soundness and build must not be overlooked. No horse over 14 years old shall be eligible for a prize.
