

wit: University of Toronto, Queen's University and College of Kingston, University of Victoria College, University of Trinity College, Royal College of Physicians and Surgeons of Kingston, Toronto School of Medicine, and of every other College or body in the Province now authorized, or which may be hereafter authorized to establish a Medical Faculty in connection therewith, and to grant degrees in Medicine and Surgery, or other certificates of qualification to practise the same: Provided always, that no teacher, professor or lecturer of any of the before mentioned colleges or bodies shall hold a seat in the Council, except as a representative of the college or body to which he belongs.

2. There shall also belong to the said Council five members to be elected by the duly licensed practitioners in Homœopathy, who have been registered under this Act; and five members to be elected by the duly licensed practitioners in the Eclectic system of Medicine, who have been registered under this Act.

3. The twelve members who shall be elected in the manner hereinafter provided from amongst and by the registered members of the Profession, other than those mentioned in the next preceding subsection, shall be residents of the several Territorial Divisions for which they are elected.

Board of examiners, how composed.—Proviso.

XXV. The Board of Examiners appointed under the preceding section, shall be composed as follows: One Member from each of the three teaching bodies now existing in Ontario, and one from every other School of Medicine which may be hereafter organized in connection with any University or College which is empowered by law to grant medical or surgical diplomas; and nine Members to be chosen from among those Members of the College of Physicians and Surgeons of Ontario, who are unconnected with any of the above teaching bodies: Provided always, that every candidate who shall, at the time of his examination, signify his wish to be registered as a Homœopathic or Eclectic practitioner, shall not be required to pass an examination in either Materia Medica or Therapeutics, or in the Theory or Practice of Physic, or in Surgery or Midwifery, except the operative practical parts thereof, before any examiners other than those approved of by the representatives in the Council of the body to which he shall signify his wish to belong."

It was hoped that the degrading association of Homœopaths and Eclectics with the regular members of the Profession would prevent the Medical Council when elected under the Act, from accepting the Bill as it now stands, and when the Council did meet in Toronto in July last, the dele-
