

While in Montreal these gentlemen were the guests of Mr. James Ross, who is taking a very deep interest in Toronto's new hospital scheme. Mr. Ross is well known in Ontario. It is generally recognized that he thoroughly understands hospital building. It is only a few years since Mr. Ross presented to his native town of Lindsay one of the most beautiful and complete hospitals in North America. Mr. Ross accompanied the Toronto trustees when they were making their examination of the internal arrangements of the Royal Victoria Hospital, and rendered them every assistance in his power.
