

3. For purposes of determining entitlement to the payment of a benefit under the legislation of Antigua and Barbuda:
- (a) when the calendar year 1973 is a creditable period under the Canada Pension Plan, it shall be considered as 39 weeks for which contributions have been paid under the legislation of Antigua and Barbuda;
 - (b) a calendar year commencing after April 2, 1973 which is a creditable period under the Canada Pension Plan shall be considered as 52 weeks of contributions under the legislation of Antigua and Barbuda;
 - (c) a week commencing on or after April 2, 1973 which is a creditable period under the Old Age Security Act of Canada and which is not part of a creditable period under the Canada Pension Plan shall be considered as a week of contributions under the legislation of Antigua and Barbuda.

Article IX

Periods under the Legislation of a Third State

If a person is not entitled to the payment of a benefit on the basis of the creditable periods under the legislation of the Parties, totalized as provided in Article VIII, the entitlement of that person to the payment of that benefit shall be determined by totalizing these periods and creditable periods under the legislation of a third State with which both Parties are bound by social security instruments which provide for totalizing periods.
