and that a comprehensive test-ban treaty is the litmus test of the real willingness to pursue nuclear disarmament, 2/

Recalling also that the leaders of the States associated with the Six-Nation Initiative on peace and disarmament affirmed in the Stockholm Declaration, adopted on 21 January 1988, 4/ that "Any agreement that leaves room for continued testing would not be acceptable",

Recalling further the final document on international security and disarmament adopted by the Minth Conference of Heads of State or Government of Mon-Aligned Countries, held at Belgrade from 4 to 7 September 1989, 5/ which underlined that the immediate suspension of and comprehensive ban on nuclear tests remained one of the highest priorities of nuclear disarmament,

Taking note with satisfaction of the continuing progress made in the Conference on Disarmament by the Ad Hoc Group of Scientific Experts to Consider International Co-operative Heasures to Detect and Identify Seismic Events on the seismic verification of a comprehensive test ban,

Taking note of the re-establishment, without a negotiating mandate, of the Ad Hoc Committee on a Muclear Test Ban by the Conference on Disarmament at its summer esssion in 1990,

- 1. Reiterates once again its grave concern that nuclear testing continues unabated, against the wishes of the overwholming majority of Member States;
- 2. Reaffirms its conviction that a treaty to achieve the prohibition of all nuclear-test explosions by all States for all time is a matter of the highest priority;
- 3. Reaffirms also its conviction that such a treaty would constitute a contribution of the utmost importance to the cessation of the nuclear-arms race;
- 4. Urges once more all nuclear-weapon States, in particular the three depositary States of the Treaty Banning Muclear Meapons Tests in the Atmosphere, in Outer Space and under Mater and of the Treaty on the Mon-Proliferation of Muclear Meapons, to seek to achieve the early discontinuance of all test explosions of nuclear weapons for all time and to expedite negotiations to this end;
