up The undersigned, having met together for the purpose of proceeding to deposit ratifications of the Treaty for the Limitation and Reduction of Armaments, signed at London, the 22nd day of April, 1930.

Having produced the instruments whereby the said Treaty has been ratified by the President of the United States of America, by His Majesty the King of Great Britain, Ireland and the British Dominions beyond the Seas, Emperor of India, in respect of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland, and all parts of the British Empire which are not separate members of the League of Nations, of the Dominion of Canada, of the Commonwealth of Australia, of the Dominion of New Zealand, of the Emperor of Japan, of the Dominion of the Ionian Islands, and by His Majesty the Emperor of India; and the respective ratifications of the said Treaty having been compared and found to be in due form, the said deposit in accordance with the provisions of Article 21 (1) of the Treaty took place this day in the presence of the undersigned, who are named in a list in Article 22 of the said Treaty.

The representative of the United States of America declared that the instrument of ratification of the United States of America was deposited and to the British and explicit understandings set forth in the resolution of the July 1930 of the Senate of the United States of America, advising and consenting to ratification, that there is no secret document, letter, or agreement, or agreement, which in any way directly or indirectly, modifies, explains, or takes from any of the stipulations, agreements, or statements in the Treaty, and that excepting the agreement brought about through the exchange of notes between the Governments of the United States, Great Britain and Japan, having reference to Article 19, there is no agreement secret or otherwise expressed or implied, between any of the parties to the Treaty, as to any condition that shall hereafter be given to any statement or provision contained therein, and that no statement or declaration shall be made by any of the parties thereto, which would affect the interpretation of the Treaty, and that the undersigned, who are named in a list in Article 22 of the Treaty, are the witnesses thereof, and have signed the present record, and placed there to their seals.

Done at London, the 27th day of October, 1930.
