

No right in certain cases.

“51. (1) Subject to subsection two, no widow or child of a contributor is entitled to a pension or gratuity under this Part if

(a) the contributor was over sixty years of age at the date of his marriage; 5

(b) the contributor dies within one year of the date of his marriage, unless the Treasury Board is satisfied that the contributor was in good health at that date; or

(c) the person to whom the pension or gratuity is otherwise payable is in the opinion of the Treasury Board unworthy of it. 10

Proviso.

(2) A breach by the contributor of the conditions as to marriage prescribed by subsection one does not prejudice the right to a pension or gratuity of a child of an earlier marriage of the contributor. 15

Contributor twenty years older than wife.

(3) Where the contributor marries and his age exceeds that of his wife by twenty years or more the pension payable to his widow, under this Part, shall be reduced by such an amount as the Governor in Council may by regulation prescribe. 20

Payment in event of disentitlement of widow.

(4) Where the widow is by virtue of this section not entitled to a pension or gratuity the children of the contributor are entitled to the same pension or gratuity as they would have been entitled to had the widow predeceased the contributor, and such pension or gratuity shall be paid for the benefit of the children to such person and under such terms and conditions as may be prescribed by the Treasury Board. 25

Employment of officer pensioner in the public service of Canada or the force.

“52. A contributor who has been retired as an officer or warrant officer and has been granted a pension under this Part and thereafter is employed in the public service of Canada or appointed to or enlisted in the naval, army or air forces of Canada is entitled to receive that part of his pension which, when added to his salary or pay and allowances, as the case may be, will not exceed the pay and allowances of which he was in receipt at the date of his retirement from the force.” 30 35
