

Dr. Pedley:

He thought this might happen but nevertheless felt justified in calling the governors together. It is the principles involved. In any case this action announced this morning is to apply only until June 1st and he has no guarantee that it indicates the continuing policy of the government.

He would be glad if you could come if you are not too busy.