

February 19th, 1926.

Ray A. Grandall, Esc., Clarion, Iowa.

My dear Mr. Grandall:-

I have now heard from both the Canadian Pacific and the Canadian National Railways.

Mr. MacTier, the Vice-President of the former, although sympathetic in every way, told me that it was impossible to find an opening for you at the present time. I am sorry that the C.N.R. returned the same answer. I know Captain Alistair Fraser, now in their Legal Department and formerly an officer in the 15th Bn., did everything possible, but without success.

With all good wishes, I am,

Yours faithfully,
