

Eliza was married to the Rt. Rev. John Inglis, D. D., third Bishop of Nova Scotia, and was the mother of Sir John Eardley Wilmot Inglis, hero of Lucknow; Isabella became the wife of Dean Ramsay, of Edinburgh; James became chief justice of Gibraltar, and was knighted; and Rupert John married, in New York, Isabella Clarke, and had, among other children, Isabella-Ramsay, wife of Edward King, Esq., of New York, and Harriet-Georgina-Alice, now the widow of Sir James-Thomas Stewart-Richardson, Bart., of Pitfour, Scotland. By his first marriage, the Hon. Thomas Cochran had one daughter, Margaret, the wife of Admiral Sir Rupert George, Bart.