

but know that man has power over sickness, poverty and death. And the power resides in the Mind. The Mind is the store-house of Energy. It is the Kingdom of Heaven, which as Jesus said was "within." The King sits on his throne there. His name is I AM. There is nothing sacrilegious in thus asserting the Human and Divine Will to be one. To recognize ourselves as one with God gives us the power of overcoming environment.

Our ideals have been low and we have reaped exactly what we sowed. Thought is the sower, our ideals are the seeds, and the fruits we gather are our experiences. If you are not satisfied with your present life, it is a sign that you are ready for Mental Science. If you are contented, these words are not for you. Live your life in your own way. If you wish to be a mere animal, be one. There is nothing evil in such an existence, it is simply a low ideal. A good animal nature is something to be cultivated. There are many individuals who live a happy, contented existence, living to a good old age—ah! but they die—and how much have they profited? But they knew of nothing higher. They neither desired nor sought a better life. Truth only comes to the seeker. Seek and ye shall find.
