MR. JOSEPH ARCH

CANADA.

Londonberry to Belfast

"I say this to-night, that if I had not upon my shoulders the responsibility that I have in this country with regard to this movement, and if the farm-labourers of England will release me from my responsibility, I will take with me my wife and family and go to Canada—for it is a better land than England."—Extract from the Speech of Joseph Arch at Leamington, 1st December, 1873.
