

YORK COUNTY AND SUBURBS OF TORONTO

A NEWS BUDGET
FROM EARLS COURT

Residents Startled by a Loud Noise at Three This Morning.

FEARED EARTHQUAKE

Frozen Cars Fashionable—Special S. A. Service on Sunday.

Twenty degrees below zero still prevail in the Earls Court district. Numerous cases of frost bites and frozen limbs are reported by the doctors in the district. The World's Earls Court representative had his right ear badly frozen last evening while going his rounds. All outside work is yet at a standstill.

Mrs. Brown, 189 Nairn avenue, is dangerously ill, and was removed to the Western Hospital in a private ambulance yesterday morning by order of her attending physician, Dr. Corrigan.

The death occurred on Tuesday of James Watson, at his residence, 30 Bloom avenue, Earls Court. The funeral took place from Speer's undertaking parlors, Dundas street, at 2 p.m., to Prospect Cemetery. Mr. Watson was 57 years of age, and was employed by the Dominion Bridge Works as a steel worker.

What Was It? A loud report, like the sound of heavy artillery fire, was heard yesterday morning at 3.30 in Earls Court, awakening many people from sleep. Mr. Smith, a resident, informed The World that he and his family were startled by the noise, and thought the house was about to fall upon them. Seven smaller reports were heard about half an hour afterwards. E. Goodell also heard the noise, and is convinced that it was another quake.

The ladies of the parish of St. Clare gave their usual euchre party and social last evening in the basement hall of the school. In spite of the zero weather a large number of parishioners and their friends were present. Refreshments were served during the evening. Rev. Father McCabe was also present.

The Earls Court branch of the Dominion Elks will hold their next meeting in Little's Hall, corner Earls Court and Avenue Road, on Friday, Feb. 26, when a number of visitors from neighboring lodges are expected to be present. The Salvation Army will hold a special service on Sunday, Feb. 22, at the Royal George Theatre, when Wesley Martin, M.A., will give a special discourse, entitled "The Devil's Slave." The service will take place in the afternoon.

Royal George L.O.L. held a meeting last evening in the hall, corner Langton and Victoria streets, at 8 o'clock. Routine business was transacted, and Dr. St. George delivered an address. Wednesday, Feb. 25, is the date of the next meeting.

Oakwood high school graduates held an at home last evening in the assembly hall of the school. There were about 150 persons present.

A highly successful entertainment was held under the auspices of the Independent Order of Oddfellows for the benefit of the inmates of Ontario Oldfellows Home, Ossington avenue, at that institution. There was a large attendance of Oddfellows and their friends. Mr. John Buchanan occupying the chair.

The Dunn Avenue Methodist Church Orchestra played several selections, and among those who contributed to the success of the evening were Stuart Barker, Mrs. Wilson, Arthur Wilton, J. Kelly, ventriloquist; James Clark, Miss Waterhouse and Mrs. Kennedy. The home, which was removed from Oakville to its present site on Ossington avenue three years ago, has twelve inmates.

TODMORDEN AND DON MILLS ROAD ANNEXATION.

A resident of Todmorden said to The World yesterday: "It is all very well to have it given to the people of Todmorden are against annexation, but I do not think that is the real fact. What is happening is that Mr. Orford and his associates, who got eighty acres of the Danforth estate into the city the other day, will start in at once to lay out and develop that property and sell it like hot cakes at a big price, and a much stiffer and cheaper development will come to us of Todmorden in the rear. And more than this, all the business is going to Danforth avenue and along that street, and the development of the Don Mills road north of the city line is very far ahead of Danforth avenue as day light is to dark; now it is all the other way. A lot of business that is now on Danforth avenue could have gone to Don Mills road if the people on the road had followed up the taking in of the Hellwell estate. Whether annexation pays the people who own property can easily be settled by reference to the success of the Player estate, now built up with high-class houses. The same is also true of the Hellwell estate; the enterprising men who opened up that district are reaping the benefit. Now the Orford syndicate are going to make money out of the Danforth estate, which they have just got put into the city. And it may be that once the demand is supplied along the front there may be a slow-up and Todmorden may have to wait for years for what it could have reaped this year. And another thing is, as proved by the last annexation, the city will insist on its own terms hereafter. The whole of Todmorden and Cedarvale could have gone in on a fixed assessment a year ago or less, and now they may have to go in without any terms and to pay for all their own improvements. And our taxes in the township, especially for schools, will be as high as the city next year, without any improvements."

ISLAND LAKE.

On Tuesday evening, Feb. 10, Oliver Yakely on returning to the house from feeding the stock, slipped and fell on the icy boulevard surrounding his residence, breaking both bones of one leg below the knee.

The young farmer, while suffering from shock and the icy position, was rescued by his wife, who otherwise was comfortable.

DISTRICT VOTERS
START CAMPAIGN

For a Shelter for Passengers at St. Clair and Avenue Road.

PUBLIC WEIGH SCALES

Also Required—Meeting Opposed to Five Cent Fare on Civic Cars.

A meeting of the executive committee of the Earls Court District Voters' Association was held last evening in Dominion Bank Chambers, corner St. Clair and Avenue Road. The meeting was presided over by the president, Mr. Holmes. The following members were present: Messrs. Pidgeon, Oram, Little, Moon, Claver, Malby, Hands, Lord, Oram, Assistant Secretary, and W. Lord reported having interviewed Commissioner Chambers with reference to a site for a park or playground for the Earls Court district, and was told by the commissioner that he had secured an area without an option, which, in his opinion, would be suitable, but the owners were asking a figure so far above his price that he has dropped the matter. The price asked was fully 50 per cent. too high.

The commissioner assured his interviewer that no one was in his confidence in the Earls Court district, or anywhere else for that matter, as to his business, and that he feared there would be no park in Earls Court in the year 1914.

After some discussion it was decided that the committee appointed at the general meeting of the association to look for a suitable site for a park should carry out their work and submit their choice to the association, which would then place it before the council.

The meeting also went on record as being decidedly against a five-cent fare on the St. Clair avenue car line.

The matter of a shelter for passengers at Avenue road was discussed. The secretary was instructed to write the civic authorities that the same was absolutely necessary. It was also decided to get in touch with the other ratepayers' associations and ask them to take the matter up at their next meeting.

Wm. Pidgeon brought the matter of city weigh scales for Earls Court before the meeting for consideration, stating that the nearest scales to Earls Court were at Fairbank, and was of no use to the business section. A site near Dufferin street and St. Clair avenue was suggested as a suitable location, and the placing of scales in Earls Court would be of great benefit to business people in the district. This will also be brought to the attention of the city council.

HAS TO DESTROY
A HERD OF COWS

Temperanceville Farmer's Heavy Loss—All Sick With Tuberculosis.

A herd of twenty cows belonging to Mr. Beynon of Temperanceville were found to be suffering from tuberculosis, and the farmer has been obliged to kill them. The herd had been showing signs of sickness for a few days, and Mr. Beynon called in Dr. Scrivenor, veterinary surgeon of Aurora, who had to condemn the whole herd.

CEDARVALE

The Church of the Resurrection, Woodbine avenue, has arranged for special services for the afternoon and evening services next Sunday. Mr. Hallington of Wyckville College will occupy the pulpit at the evening service, and the Ten's Brotherhood will be present.

The afternoon will be addressed by Mr. Fingling of Knox College. Cedarvale Lodge, E.O.E., will hold the first degree initiation on Monday night at Cedarvale avenue, next Monday night. All members are asked to attend and invite their friends.

FAIRBANK AND THE REEVE.

Editor World: Surely our old and trusted friend, Reeve Syme, is not going to let them appoint him to be a county beak on the bench and thus be forced to work his plan for giving water and other municipal improvements, as promised. We are looking for him to come and tell us about it the first degree initiation. But maybe he's cold up here over the hill walking home from our work! And oh the pumps that the missus has to pump.

VETERANS OF 1866.

The annual meeting of the Veterans of 1866 Association of Toronto was held at the armories, Toronto, last evening, when the election of officers for the current year took place.

President, Major Joseph Beck; first vice-president, Capt. John A. Macdonald; second vice-president, Col. Belcher; chaplain, Rev. G. I. Taylor; recording secretary, John H. Norrie; 200 Bessford avenue; financial secretary, W. Gibson, 121 Baldwin street; treasurer, W. M. Miller; executive committee, George F. Briggs, William Forbes, H. Crewe, Alex. Auchincloss, John Wilson, Henry Swan, W. Ginkins, J. Robinson, Capt. P. E. Bernard, Thomas Claxton, W. Bradley, H. M. Cussack.

DEATH OF PATRICK McCONVEY.

Patrick McConvey, whose death occurred yesterday, was a well-known resident of Toronto for over 25 years, of which he spent in the employ of W. J. Hynds, ornamental plasterer. He is survived by four sons, J. J. McConvey, chief inspector of weights and measures; W. J. McConvey, with the P. C. Burroughs Furniture Co. of Denham; John McConvey, of Los Angeles; and three daughters, Mrs. Drake and Mrs. Parr, of Toronto.

TOWNSHIP SCHOOL
DEBENTURES SOLD

For Additions to George Syme and King George Schools.

NEWS OF WARD SEVEN

Frank Moss Injured While Playing Hockey—Cutter Smashed.

The York Township Council held the debentures for the raising of money for public school additions in Runnymede and the George Syme school and King George school, which each be provided with an additional wing containing four large new classrooms. The price obtained was $8, which was considered exceptionally good compared with the offers they received for them when on the market last year. Then the highest tender did not reach 50 per cent., and they left it over until the present year, with good results. The public schools in the Runnymede district are very much overcrowded, and in the large King George school, which has only been built a few years, some of the classes are being held in the basement. It is expected that construction work on the additions will be started as soon as the weather is warm enough as the plans have been ready for a year.

Annual Dance. Mimico Lodge, No. 389, A.F. and A.M., held its annual at home and dance in the Annette street Masonic Temple last evening. In spite of the cold weather a large number of members and their ladies were present.

On account of alterations in the church building the evening service of the Annette street Baptist Church on Sunday next will be held in the new Beaver Theatre, Dundas street.

Shoulder Dislocated.

While playing hockey for St. Andrew's club against the North Toronto team in the city league last night, Frank Moss of 57 French avenue, was badly hurt. The game, which was played at Ravina rink, was a fast one, and Moss was heading a rush when he was checked and thrown violently into the boards. Dr. R. R. Hopkins of Annette street, was summoned, and found his shoulder dislocated and the ligaments badly torn. After treatment at the rink the injured youth was taken to his home on French avenue.

The annual valentine party of the Humberside Collegiate Literary Society will be held in the school auditorium tonight. The meeting will be interesting as it has been arranged for the entertainment of old boys and girls of the school.

Becoming alarmed at a passing Davenport suburban car yesterday afternoon a horse driven by Frederick Giles of 39 McRoberts street, ran away on St. Clair avenue and dashed east as far as Ford street, where the cutter collided with a hydro-electric pole. Giles was thrown out but escaped injury and the cutter was badly smashed. The horse also received several cuts on its feet.

Controller McCarthy will address the Ward Seven Ratepayers' Association tonight at Annette street school on the subject of "Sewers." A map of the ward has been prepared by the commissioner's department showing sewers constructed and under construction, and Controller McCarthy will be pleased to answer any questions in regard to works in Ward Seven.

WESTON.

The Winter Fair, held in Weston town hall, last night, raised funds to provide a district nurse for the sick poor of the district, was very successful, the receipts amounting to $100.

The fair was held under the auspices of the Women's Institute and the Town Improvement Society, and Mrs. Dyer of the public health department delivered an address.

The prize for the most successful booth was won by Mrs. Master, whose receipts from the sale of work were the highest. The prize was a beautiful brass jardiniere stand donated by Mrs. Dawson.

PERSONAL.

Mrs. Geo. J. Manning of St. Clair avenue has read to Paul Minn, on account of the death of her uncle, Wm. C. Kennedy of that place, and formerly of Owen Sound, Ont.

AND THE WORST IS YET TO COME

Dr. Grant of the home missions, and the Rev. Tibbs, former rector of the church, also gave addresses.

A fine musical program was given by J. McCrae, J. J. Salmund and Austin home in Woodbury Church since her death in her third year. Mrs. Elberby had been in poor health for years, but had only taken seriously ill about a month ago. She was one of the pioneers of Vaughan, a daughter of the late John Williams, and was born on March 30, 1831, at the farm on the little concession now occupied by Mr. Geo. Troyer. She was married in 1857 to the late Mrs. Elberby, who predeceased her in 1897.

Mrs. Elberby has been a resident of Woodbridge for nearly seven years, and leaves a family of two sons and two daughters: Jonathan and J. W. at Woodbridge; Mrs. (Rev.) T. A. Watson, Fairview, and Mrs. Robt. Agar, Alberta. The deceased was a member of the Methodist Church, and her funeral will take place on Sunday afternoon at the Methodist cemetery, after which memorial service will be held in the Methodist Church.

RIVERDALE.

The annual meeting of the North Riverdale Association Football Club was held last night in the Todmorden Hotel, when the following officers were elected: president, Sen. E. Kemp; president, J. Scott; vice-president, R. Downes; sec.-treas., R. Collins; executive committee, F. Godwin, J. Scott and R. Collins.

The club will play on the same grounds as last year at the corner of Danforth and Broadview avenues. There was a large attendance, many well known soccer players of the north end of the city having joined the club.

ANNUAL BANQUET
A GREAT SUCCESS

Eglinton Presbyterian Church Members Spent a Very Happy Evening.

WELCOME IMMIGRANTS

Speakers Said Canadians Should Extend Hand of Welcome to Others.

The seating capacity of North Toronto Town Hall was taxed to its utmost last night, when the men of Eglinton Presbyterian Church gathered together for their first annual banquet. James Lodge president of the board of management, occupied the chair and announced that their pastor was unable to be present owing to illness, but the reverend gentleman had assured the speaker that he was with them in spirit and hoped they would enjoy their banquet. He mentioned that it was the intention of the management to organize a men's club, and he thought that the splendid gathering at their first annual banquet augured well for the success of the club. D. D. Reid, who replied to the toast of "The Empire," said he had had the pleasure of circulating the globe twice, and he had no idea of the vastness of the empire until he had seen for himself its immense proportions.

There were two things that had struck him in his travels, the scenery of New Zealand and the music of America, adding humorously that he had also been struck by a charming young Australian lady, whom he afterwards made his bride. He had seen the beauties of Switzerland and Italy, and he was convinced that the finest scenery in the world was within the British Empire.

Mr. Reid spoke of personal acquaintance of the training methods of the German army, and he declared England had nothing to fear in the event of a conflict, for in stature, training and condition the army of England was far ahead. He was very proud to belong to the British race, and of the two greatest things in the world he would choose, the Bible as the greatest book in existence and the British Empire as the greatest country.

Wonderful Growth.

Mr. Parkinson of the home missions gave an address and expressed his pleasure at being among the members of Eglinton Presbyterian Church. He had watched the progress of the church, and he thought it nothing short of marvellous, and when he had the opportunity of speaking to the Yankees he would tell them of the men that made Eglinton church. He had heard in proposed to organize a men's club for the church, and he was very pleased with the proposition, but if they are going to form a club it must be a work of self-sacrifice and not to think of themselves but of others, and teach the story of Christ.

"The progress of Christianity," said Mr. Parkinson, "is the greatest opportunity of the world, and the time was not far distant when every nation must acknowledge the influence of God; and the nation that has vision must perish." Continuing, the speaker said he heard a lot of "Shenays" and "Daogs," but he thought that all useless talk, for physically and intellectually those foreigners were their equal, and they ought to welcome them as people who would become good citizens. It was their duty to go among these people of different races and teach them the life of the lowly Nazarene, lead them out of their ignorance and they would have the nation and the world to thank for it, and it was essential to the welfare of Canada.

Other Speakers. The Rev. Tibbs, former rector of the church, also gave addresses. A fine musical program was given by J. McCrae, J. J. Salmund and Austin home in Woodbury Church since her death in her third year. Mrs. Elberby had been in poor health for years, but had only taken seriously ill about a month ago. She was one of the pioneers of Vaughan, a daughter of the late John Williams, and was born on March 30, 1831, at the farm on the little concession now occupied by Mr. Geo. Troyer. She was married in 1857 to the late Mrs. Elberby, who predeceased her in 1897.

Mrs. Elberby has been a resident of Woodbridge for nearly seven years, and leaves a family of two sons and two daughters: Jonathan and J. W. at Woodbridge; Mrs. (Rev.) T. A. Watson, Fairview, and Mrs. Robt. Agar, Alberta. The deceased was a member of the Methodist Church, and her funeral will take place on Sunday afternoon at the Methodist cemetery, after which memorial service will be held in the Methodist Church.

PERSONAL.

Mrs. Geo. J. Manning of St. Clair avenue has read to Paul Minn, on account of the death of her uncle, Wm. C. Kennedy of that place, and formerly of Owen Sound, Ont.

AND THE WORST IS YET TO COME

Dr. Grant of the home missions, and the Rev. Tibbs, former rector of the church, also gave addresses.

A fine musical program was given by J. McCrae, J. J. Salmund and Austin home in Woodbury Church since her death in her third year. Mrs. Elberby had been in poor health for years, but had only taken seriously ill about a month ago. She was one of the pioneers of Vaughan, a daughter of the late John Williams, and was born on March 30, 1831, at the farm on the little concession now occupied by Mr. Geo. Troyer. She was married in 1857 to the late Mrs. Elberby, who predeceased her in 1897.

Mrs. Elberby has been a resident of Woodbridge for nearly seven years, and leaves a family of two sons and two daughters: Jonathan and J. W. at Woodbridge; Mrs. (Rev.) T. A. Watson, Fairview, and Mrs. Robt. Agar, Alberta. The deceased was a member of the Methodist Church, and her funeral will take place on Sunday afternoon at the Methodist cemetery, after which memorial service will be held in the Methodist Church.

PERSONAL.

Mrs. Geo. J. Manning of St. Clair avenue has read to Paul Minn, on account of the death of her uncle, Wm. C. Kennedy of that place, and formerly of Owen Sound, Ont.

AND THE WORST IS YET TO COME

Dr. Grant of the home missions, and the Rev. Tibbs, former rector of the church, also gave addresses.

A fine musical program was given by J. McCrae, J. J. Salmund and Austin home in Woodbury Church since her death in her third year. Mrs. Elberby had been in poor health for years, but had only taken seriously ill about a month ago. She was one of the pioneers of Vaughan, a daughter of the late John Williams, and was born on March 30, 1831, at the farm on the little concession now occupied by Mr. Geo. Troyer. She was married in 1857 to the late Mrs. Elberby, who predeceased her in 1897.

Mrs. Elberby has been a resident of Woodbridge for nearly seven years, and leaves a family of two sons and two daughters: Jonathan and J. W. at Woodbridge; Mrs. (Rev.) T. A. Watson, Fairview, and Mrs. Robt. Agar, Alberta. The deceased was a member of the Methodist Church, and her funeral will take place on Sunday afternoon at the Methodist cemetery, after which memorial service will be held in the Methodist Church.

PERSONAL.

Mrs. Geo. J. Manning of St. Clair avenue has read to Paul Minn, on account of the death of her uncle, Wm. C. Kennedy of that place, and formerly of Owen Sound, Ont.

AND THE WORST IS YET TO COME

Dr. Grant of the home missions, and the Rev. Tibbs, former rector of the church, also gave addresses.

A fine musical program was given by J. McCrae, J. J. Salmund and Austin home in Woodbury Church since her death in her third year. Mrs. Elberby had been in poor health for years, but had only taken seriously ill about a month ago. She was one of the pioneers of Vaughan, a daughter of the late John Williams, and was born on March 30, 1831, at the farm on the little concession now occupied by Mr. Geo. Troyer. She was married in 1857 to the late Mrs. Elberby, who predeceased her in 1897.

Mrs. Elberby has been a resident of Woodbridge for nearly seven years, and leaves a family of two sons and two daughters: Jonathan and J. W. at Woodbridge; Mrs. (Rev.) T. A. Watson, Fairview, and Mrs. Robt. Agar, Alberta. The deceased was a member of the Methodist Church, and her funeral will take place on Sunday afternoon at the Methodist cemetery, after which memorial service will be held in the Methodist Church.

PERSONAL.

Mrs. Geo. J. Manning of St. Clair avenue has read to Paul Minn, on account of the death of her uncle, Wm. C. Kennedy of that place, and formerly of Owen Sound, Ont.

MORE COMPLAINTS
ABOUT CIVIC CARS

Only Two in the Morning When Four Are Really Necessary.

CONTRACTS CORNERED

Ratepayers Think Sewer Work Should Be Divided—Other News.

Residents in East Toronto and the Midway are complaining again about the service on the Gerrard street civic car line in the early hours of the morning.

Quite a large number of the people living in the district have to get to business at 7.30 a.m., and they complain that the two cars which are run on the line up till 7 a.m. are insufficient. After that hour two more cars are operated, and they think that one of these should be added to the two which run between six and seven.

Many Have to Walk.

A large number of people rather than wait for a quarter of an hour walk down to Queen street or to Greenwood avenue.

On the completion of the new society building at the corner of Redwood avenue and Gerrard street, the Midway Conservative Association purpose holding a smoking concert. Work on the building is being much delayed by the cold weather, but immediately the temperature rises a large gang of men will be set to work on the building.

The executive committee of the association has decided to hold a municipal night early next month. Municipal matters in the district until lately were looked after by the B.I.A., but as this association is now defunct, the members of the Conservative Association wish to talk municipal matters at one of their meetings.

Sewer Delayed.

The work on the Woodbine avenue sewer has not yet been started, although it was expected that the work would have been commenced a week ago. The matter was brought up at the last meeting of the sewer and ratepayers, and it was suggested as a means of relieving the unemployed.

The ratepayers claim that if the contracts were not yet started, men instead of each work going to the contractor who puts in the lowest tender, work such as this would be completed much quicker. They claim that one or two contractors monopolize the different jobs, and work on one cannot be started till something else is completed. The contractor for the sewer has already several jobs under way, and they are afraid it will be some time yet before this sewer is started.

The Rev. Donald McIntyre, B.A., who has been called to East Toronto Baptist Church, preaches his farewell sermon at Calvary Baptist Church, New York, on Sunday next, and will occupy his new pulpit on Feb. 22. Mr. McIntyre has been associate pastor and minister of Calvary Church since his graduation from Rochester College in 1906. He is a Canadian and was born in the Village of Glamis, Bruce County, where his parents still reside.

OLD RESIDENT OF WOODBIDGE DEAD

Mary Williams, Widow of the Late Jonathan Elberby—Vaughan Pioneer.

Mary Williams, widow of the late Jonathan Elberby, passed away at her home in Woodbury Church since her death in her third year. Mrs. Elberby had been in poor health for years, but had only taken seriously ill about a month ago. She was one of the pioneers of Vaughan, a daughter of the late John Williams, and was born on March 30, 1831, at the farm on the little concession now occupied by Mr. Geo. Troyer. She was married in 1857 to the late Mrs. Elberby, who predeceased her in 1897.

Mrs. Elberby has been a resident of Woodbridge for nearly seven years, and leaves a family of two sons and two daughters: Jonathan and J. W. at Woodbridge; Mrs. (Rev.) T. A. Watson, Fairview, and Mrs. Robt. Agar, Alberta. The deceased was a member of the Methodist Church, and her funeral will take place on Sunday afternoon at the Methodist cemetery, after which memorial service will be held in the Methodist Church.

PERSONAL.

Mrs. Geo. J. Manning of St. Clair avenue has read to Paul Minn, on account of the death of her uncle, Wm. C. Kennedy of that place, and formerly of Owen Sound, Ont.

AND THE WORST IS YET TO COME

Dr. Grant of the home missions, and the Rev. Tibbs, former rector of the church, also gave addresses.

A fine musical program was given by J. McCrae, J. J. Salmund and Austin home in Woodbury Church since her death in her third year. Mrs. Elberby had been in poor health for years, but had only taken seriously ill about a month ago. She was one of the pioneers of Vaughan, a daughter of the late John Williams, and was born on March 30, 1831, at the farm on the little concession now occupied by Mr. Geo. Troyer. She was married in 1857 to the late Mrs. Elberby, who predeceased her in 1897.

Mrs. Elberby has been a resident of Woodbridge for nearly seven years, and leaves a family of two sons and two daughters: Jonathan and J. W. at Woodbridge; Mrs. (Rev.) T. A. Watson, Fairview, and Mrs. Robt. Agar, Alberta. The deceased was a member of the Methodist Church, and her funeral will take place on Sunday afternoon at the Methodist cemetery, after which memorial service will be held in the Methodist Church.

PERSONAL.

Mrs. Geo. J. Manning of St. Clair avenue has read to Paul Minn, on account of the death of her uncle, Wm. C. Kennedy of that place, and formerly of Owen Sound, Ont.

AND THE WORST IS YET TO COME

Dr. Grant of the home missions, and the Rev. Tibbs, former rector of the church, also gave addresses.

A fine musical program was given by J. McCrae, J. J. Salmund and Austin home in Woodbury Church since her death in her third year. Mrs. Elberby had been in poor health for years, but had only taken seriously ill about a month ago. She was one of the pioneers of Vaughan, a daughter of the late John Williams, and was born on March 30, 1831, at the farm on the little concession now occupied by Mr. Geo. Troyer. She was married in 1857 to the late Mrs. Elberby, who predeceased her in 1897.

Mrs. Elberby has been a resident of Woodbridge for nearly seven years, and leaves a family of two sons and two daughters: Jonathan and J. W. at Woodbridge; Mrs. (Rev.) T. A. Watson, Fairview, and Mrs. Robt. Agar, Alberta. The deceased was a member of the Methodist Church, and her funeral will take place on Sunday afternoon at the Methodist cemetery, after which memorial service will be held in the Methodist Church.

PERSONAL.

Mrs. Geo. J. Manning of St. Clair avenue has read to Paul Minn, on account of the death of her uncle, Wm. C. Kennedy of that place, and formerly of Owen Sound, Ont.

THE HOME BANK OF CANADA

An account that is opened in the name of two or more persons is termed a "Joint Account." Any of the parties to such an account have the privilege of withdrawing or depositing money over their own name, and in case of the death of one of the parties the amount on deposit may be withdrawn by the survivor, or survivors, without any formality or process of law.

HEAD OFFICE AND 9 BRANCHES IN TORONTO JAMES MASON GENERAL MANAGER
8-10 KING ST. WEST, HEAD OFFICE & TORONTO BRANCH
75 CHURCH STREET
COR. QUEEN WEST AND BATHURST
COR. QUEEN EAST AND ONTARIO
1151 YONGE ST. (2 doors North of Shaftsbury Ave. on east side.)
2115 YONGE ST., NORTH TORONTO, Cor. Eglinton Ave.

Get the Brick Right

If the job is important—make sure of your brick. —sure of quality. —sure of delivery.

This plant has a capacity of over 1,000,000 per week—in best pressed, wire-cut, etc., etc. Even quality throughout.

PORT CREDIT BRICK COMPANY LIMITED
PORT CREDIT
Toronto Office — McKinnon Bldg.

ASQUITH RULE AN EXAMPLE TO PROGRESSIVE GOVERNMENT

Sir John Willison Declares Military Policy is Justified by Imperial Conditions—Twenty Years May Replace Great Britain in Isolation—Ro well on Imperial Federation.

Addresses by Sir John Willison and N. W. Rowell were delivered at the meeting of the International Policy Club of the university last evening, their subjects being respectively "War and Empire" and "Imperial Relations and Peace." The addresses interesting as they would otherwise have been were furnished with additional interest to the large gathering of students interested in international problems, in that the views of two imperialists were aired who had views in common on imperial relation, but who advocated totally different methods of arriving at the same end.

It was his opinion, Sir John declared, to advance reasons to show that there was no necessary connection between the two subjects which he had interwoven into one "War and Empire." Peace, he declared, still came from power rather than thru preaching. What evidence is there that man's nature has radically changed during the last few years, and that he has departed from the warring instincts which he has had since the dawn of history.

Norman Angell's Mistake. Norman Angell's doctrine would be consequently perfect if the author had not left one necessary factor, human nature, out of the equation. The child of today is not born with the wisdom of all the previous centuries, but comes into the world with exactly the same amount of inherent wisdom as did the child of the fifteenth or of any other century, maintained Sir John.

The Asquith government was, he said, an example to all governments, in its efforts to improve social and industrial conditions in England. There was one detail in which it had failed to live up to its promises, the matter of decreasing the expenditure for armament. This they were unable to do, because feeling on their shoulders the responsibility of guiding England's affairs, and knowing the conditions prevailing in Europe at the present day, they could not conscientiously take any other course than the one taken.